Walther Pistols John Walter,2022-04-28 While the PP and PPK were intended for police work the Walther P 38 was produced for the Germany military all three pistols have garnered a formidable international reputation since the 1930s The innovative Walther PP Polizeipistole a double action semi automatic pistol intended for the law enforcement market became available in 1929 and went on to arm the police of several European countries in the 1930s Its smaller cousin the PPK more readily concealed for undercover work but with reduced magazine capacity was produced from 1931 Intended to replace the P 08 Luger the Walther P 38 was issued from 1940 and equipped the armed forces of Germany and other countries during and after World War II but never entirely replaced the Luger in German service All three pistols went on to have lengthy and varied service across the world after 1945 Both the PP and the PPK remain in production today while the P 38 re emerged as the P1 and equipped West German forces from 1963 until 2004 when it was replaced by the P8 In this study noted authority John Walter assesses the origins development use and legacy of these three high profile semi automatic pistols alongside other Walther variants such as the tiny 25 ACP Modell 9

Luger John Walter,2018-02-13 The distinctive look of the Luger and its role in German military history make it the world s most famous handgun In Luger renowned gun expert John Walter traces the history of this semiautomatic pistol from an early design by Hugo Borchardt in the 1890s through its use in the trenches of the First World War to the final days of the Third Reich in WWII Other books on the Parabellum Pistole as the Luger was also known focus strictly on narrow subjects like manufacturing details or accessories While still offering the technical details to satisfy the collector Walter provides a comprehensive narrative history Readers will learn of the initial collaboration between Borchardt and Georg J Luger who patented the design in 1898 Following initial adoption by the Swiss Army design refinements convinced the Imperial German Navy to order the sidearm while the US Army passed on it following field trials in favor of the Colt Production ramped up for World War I and the gun became a prized trophy for Allied soldiers in both that conflict and World War II German soldiers aware of their desirability even used them as bait for booby traps Today it is still desired by collectors both for its unique design and for its connection to the history of Nazi Germany and Luger The Story of the World s Most Famous Handgun tells how it came to be
