an inherited Catholic worldview which initially inculcated guilt and shame However a tenacious drive to be a poet made her the most unconditionally loved writer of her generation Although her claim was that the poem is not the poet her life is tracked in her voluminous published and unpublished poetry and prose The themes of mental illness the importance of place the problems associated with being an unmarried woman artist her relationship with literary mentors and younger poets her non feminist feminism and her marginality and sympathy for the outcast are all explored It was poetry which saved her it helped her push back darkness and discover order in the midst of chaos Poetry was her raison d'être It was her life A
