Tony Burke,2013-01-07 In 1958 American historian of religion Morton Smith made an astounding discovery in the Mar Saba monastery in Jerusalem Copied into the back of a seventeenth century book was a lost letter attributed to Clement of Alexandria ca 150 215 CE that contained excerpts from a longer version of the Gospel of Mark written by Mark himself and circulating in Alexandria Egypt More than fifty years after its discovery the origins of this Secret Gospel of Mark remain contentious Some consider it an authentic witness to an early form of Mark perhaps even predating canonical Mark Some claim it is a medieval or premodern forgery created by a monastic scribe And others argue it is a forgery created by Morton Smith himself All these positions are addressed in the papers contained in this volume Nine North American scholars internationally recognized for their contributions to the study of Secret Mark met at York University in Toronto Canada in April 2011 to examine recent developments in scholarship on the gospel and the letter in which it is found Their results represent a substantial step forward in determining the origins of this mysterious and controversial text List of Contributors Scott G Brown Tony Burke Stephen C Carlson Bruce Chilton Craig A Evans Paul Foster Charles W Hedrick Peter Jeffery Allan J Pantuck Marvin Meyer Hershel Shanks *Sandi C. Evans,2021-10-05 Jesus and the Manuscripts by popular author and Bible scholar Craig A Evans introduces readers to the diversity and complexity of the ancient literature that records the words and deeds of Jesus This diverse literature includes the familiar Gospels of the New Testament the much less familiar literature of the Rabbis and of the Qur an and the extracanonical narratives and brief snippets of material found in fragments and inscriptions This book critically analyzes important texts and quotations in their original languages and engages the current scholarly discussion Evans argues that the Gospel of Thomas is not early or independent of the New Testament Gospels but that it should be dated to the late second century He also argues that Secret Mark like the recently published Gospel of Jesus Wife is probably a modern forgery Of special interest is the question of how long the autographs of New Testament writings remained in circulation Evans argues that the evidence suggests that most of these autographs remained available for copying and study for more than one hundred years and thus stabilized the text Key points and features Written by popular author and Bible
