Emergence Of Modern Afghanistan Politics Of Reform And Modernization 1880 1946:

The Emergence of Modern Afghanistan Vartan Gregorian, 1969 Modernist Islam, 1840-1940 Charles Kurzman, 2002 A major intellectual current in the Muslim world during the 19th and 20th centuries proponents of modernist Islam typically believed that it was imperative to show how modern values and institutions could be reconciled with authentically Islamic ideals This text collects their writings The Emergence of Modern Afghanistan Vartan Gregorian, 2013-01-09 A reissue of SUP s seminal 1969 publication including a new introduction that places the key themes of the book in the context of current events The Emergence of Modern Afghanistan Vartan Gregorian, 1880 A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan Constance Wyndham, 2023-12-22 A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan investigates the politics of cultural heritage preservation in Afghanistan between 2008 and 2015 Based on several periods of ethnographic fieldwork and the author s direct employment on several internationally sponsored heritage projects this book studies the new and complex intersections between cultural heritage and politics in Afghanistan Wyndham argues that a particular configuration of heritage and politics has emerged after the destruction of the Buddhas at Bamiyan and demonstrates how the characteristics of this post Bamiyan heritage paradigm are revealed through a number of case studies of internationally sponsored heritage work These case studies reveal how politics and heritage are currently configured across a diverse range of governments state and non state actors NGOs individuals and forms of expertise and why such intersections matter The book responds to a call from across the discipline of Heritage Studies to look more closely at the relationships between heritage power and politics A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan provides a fascinating case study on the intersection of heritage and politics that will be of interest to students and scholars of heritage as well as to professionals working on heritage preservation both within and outside of government

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present Francis Robinson a leading historian of Islam has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years As their articles reveal the social economic political and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have in many different parts of the world empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged Synthesising the academic research of the past thirty years as well as offering substantial guidance for further study this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies State Formation in Afghanistan Mujib Rahman Rahimi, 2017-08-17 The creation of Afghanistan in 1880 following the Second Anglo Afghan War gave an empowering voice to the Pashtun people the largest ethnic group in a diverse country In order to distil the narrative of the state's formation and early years a Pashtun centric version of history dominated Afghan history and the political process from 1880 to the 1970s Alternative discourses made no appearance in the fledgling state which lacked the scholarly institutions and any sense of recognition for history thus providing no alternatives to the narratives produced by the British whose quasi colonial influence in the region was supreme Since 1970 the ongoing crises in Afghanistan have opened the space for non Pashtuns including Tajiks Hazaras and Uzbeks to form new definitions of identity challenge the official discourse and call for the re writing of the long established narrative At the same time the Pashtun camp through their privileged position in the political settlements of 2001 have attempted to confront the desire for change in historical perceptions by re emphasising the Pashtun domination of Afghan history This crisis of hegemony has led to a deep antagonism between the Pashtun and non Pashtun perspectives of Afghan history and threatens the stability of political process in the country

Regime Change In Afghanistan Amin Saikal, William Maley, 2019-05-28 This book is a study of regime change in an underdeveloped country with a weak state and strong autonomous social organizations Regime change is in many countries a traumatic and disruptive experience but few countries have paid as high a cost to retain traditionally accepted relationships of authority as has Afghanistan since the communist coup

Historical Dictionary of Afghan Wars, Revolutions, and Insurgencies Ludwig W. Adamec, 2005 Since its foundation in 1747 Afghanistan has seen seemingly limitless wars waged by the central government to consolidate its control over the country as well as rampant tribal warfare There have been three Anglo Afghan Wars 1839 42 1878 79 and

1919 a Russian backed Marxist government in Kabul battled a coalition of tribal armies which was soon followed by the Taliban takeover Now in the midst of a war against terrorism the United States is backing another central government in yet another sporadic struggle All the information currently available on the endless chain of wars stretching over two and a half centuries is traced in this book It consists of the American involvement in Afghanistan since October 2001 as well as individual campaigns including tactics and logistics of skirmishes the weapons used and biographical entries on the significant leaders involved in the battles Extensive analysis of regional and ideological divisions within the country and the external forces that have brought around conflict in this remote mountainous region in addition to a chronology of the encounters an extensive bibliography and numerous maps and illustrations make this crucial volume indispensable The A to Z of Afghan Wars, Revolutions and Insurgencies Ludwig W. Chopra, 2003 This book is a compilation of articles by over two dozen Indian specialists on India s relations with Russia and Russia Today after the disintegration of the Soviet Union It is a unique exercise This study is first of its kind which makes an objective estimate of both India s relations with Russia and changes in Russia during 90 s in the last century Mission Failure Michael Mandelbaum, 2016-03-03 Mission Failure argues that in the past 25 years the U S military has turned to missions that are largely humanitarian and socio political and that this ideologically driven foreign policy generally leads to failure The Soviet Withdrawal from Afghanistan Amin Saikal, William Maley, 1989-04-06 Nearly ten years of bloodshed and political turmoil have followed the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979 Soviet occupation not only proved a major trauma for the people of Afghanistan invasion ended the growth in superpower dentents that had characterised the late 1970s and in the Soviet Union the effects of escalating military costs and over 13 000 young military casualties have been felt at every level of society The decision to withdraw combat forces under the provisions of the Geneva Accords of April 1988 is one of the most dramatic developments in the international system since the end of the Second World War The effects of this decision will be felt not only in Afghanistan but in the Soviet Union in Southwest Asia and in the wider world The Soviet Withdrawal from Afghanistan has been designed to explore the background to the decision to withdraw and its broader implications The authors all established specialists examine the Geneva Accords the future for post withdrawal Afghanistan and the impact of withdrawal on regional states Soviet foreign and domestic policies the Soviet armed forces Sino Soviet relations and world politics They write from diverse disciplinary traditions while bringing together a shared sensitivity to the issues which complicate the Afghan question

Afghanistan at War Tom Lansford, 2017-02-16 Covering wars and conflicts of Afghanistan from the modern founding of the country in the 1700s to the contemporary struggle with the Taliban this single volume reference analyzes the causes and results of Afghanistan s wars and examines leading political and military figures weapons and tactics Afghanistan has been embroiled in war and conflict throughout the latter part of the 20th century as well as the current millennium but due to its location at the crossroads of Central Asia Afghanistan has also endured repeated conquests throughout its turbulent earlier times Examining Afghanistan s long military history through this book will enable readers to grasp the wider sociopolitical history of the country appreciate the impact of these wars on Southwest Asia and superpowers such as Great Britain the Soviet Union and the United States and understand why Afghanistan remains a controversial battleground today The alphabetically organized entries examine the major wars and conflicts of Afghanistan from the modern founding of the country during the Durrani Dynasty in the 1700s through the contemporary struggle with the Taliban The book spotlights the role of key individuals in starting pursuing or ending conflicts as well as their broader contributions to or negative impact on Afghanistan and the international arena The work also presents essays that examine key subtopics such as weapons tactics ethnic groups religion and foreign relations This allows the reader whether a student scholar or member of a nonacademic audience to examine a topic in depth and see how the event figure or movement fits into the broader history of Afghanistan

The Failure of a Pseudo-Democratic State in Afghanistan Francisco José Berenguer López, Juan Ignacio Castien Maestro, 2024-09-13 This edited volume provides a multidisciplinary analysis of the failure of democratic state building in Afghanistan Encompassing insights from diverse perspectives and different theoretical viewpoints most importantly those of Afghan nationals the chapters address complex issues including the extent of global hegemonic power the efficacy of nation building strategies the clash between modernization and cultural legacies and the intricate task of establishing enduring institutions amid pervasive clientelist networks The volume is divided into sections addressing a key aspect of the situation state institutions and society insecurity and corruption social and economic development women s rights Drawing crucial lessons from a turbulent past to inform and guide future endeavors towards a stable prosperous Afghanistan this volume will be of interest to researchers and students of Middle East politics peace and conflict studies security studies development history and sociology Gendering Human Security in Afghanistan Ben Walter, 2017-06-14 This book employs the concept of human security to show what the term means from the perspective of women in Afghanistan It engages with a well established debate in academic and policy making contexts regarding the utility of human security as a framework for understanding and redressing conflict The book argues that this concept allows the possibility of articulating the substantive experiences of violence and marginalisation experienced by people in local settings as well as their own struggles towards a secure and happy life In this regard it goes a long way to making sense of the complex dynamics of conflict which have confounded Western policy makers in their ongoing state building mission in Afghanistan However despite this inherent potential the idea of human security still needs refinement Crucially it has benefitted from critical feminist and critical social theories which provide the conceptual and methodological depth necessary to apprehend what a progressive ethical program of security looks like and how it can be furthered Using this framework the work provides a critical reconstruction of the effect of the US led Western Intervention on women s experiences of insecurity in the three provincial contexts of Nangarhar Bamiyan and Kabul This reconstruction is drawn from a wealth of historical and contemporary sociological research alongside original fieldwork undertaken in Delhi India during 2011 with women and men from the country s different communities This book will be of much interest to students of human security state building gender politics war and conflict studies and IR in general
