Searching for Home M. Craig Barnes,2006-03-01 Deep down it s easy to believe that the better job the nicer house or the more dynamic church will finally make us feel at home In Searching for Home M Craig Barnes challenges this belief He reminds us that paradise is lost and we can t go home again Our great comfort and hope however is that we are never lost to God Seasoned by more than twenty years as a pastor Barnes discusses the importance of confession worship and grace in our search for home He offers advice about how we can move from being transient nomads too frightened to be grateful to pilgrims who are at home with God guided by our pleasure in him This book was written for both Christians and seekers who are still looking for a sense of belonging or home It will be a useful tool for pastors adult Sunday school groups and counselors of all kinds who are advising pilgrims along the way

The Little Theatre on the Square Beth Conway Shervey,2000 Beth Conway Shervey examines the cultural consequences of an Equity theatre in a small midwestern farm town Although many in the Midwest and beyond know the story of The Little Theatre On The Square in Sullivan Illinois Shervey is the first to consider what the existence of such a theatre means to perceptions of life in the town To tell the story of Sullivan and of its star theatre in a cornfield from the perspective of the residents involved Shervey uses oral history and and dozens of photographs by David W Mobley the theatre s longtime photographer Sullivan resembles most small towns in the Midwest and The Little Theatre differs little from most professional summer stock theatres Yet taken together the small town and its theatre are clearly unusual and the existence of the theatre obviously alters perceptions of life in the small town Before the theatre opened in 1957 Sullivan decidedly was a product of its time the town sported a strong local chapter of the WCTU moral people avoided taverns liberals and Catholics were the minorities and the population was predominantly white While the theatre didn t effect instant change it did introduce people to Sullivan who were obviously different Stars such as Betty Grable Cesar Romero Margaret Hamilton and Pat O Brien came into town Aspiring actors and those behind the scenes also mingled with the residents of Sullivan As a result Shervey finds Sullivan faced such issues as racism homophobia urban liberalism and alcohol consumption at a much faster rate than similar towns For some the theatre disrupted a sense of the normal for others the theatre made life in Sullivan different and interesting breaking the restrictive bonds typically associated with small towns
