Good Things to Do Rüdiger Bittner, 2023 Rüdiger Bittner argues that the aim of thinking about what to do of practical reason is to find not what we ought to do but what it is good to do under the circumstances Neither under prudence nor under morality are there things we ought to do There is no warrant for the idea of our being required by natural law or by our rationality to do either what helps us attain our ends or what is right for moral reasons While common moral understanding is committed to there being things we ought to do and to our being guilty and deserving blame if we fail to do them we can lay aside these notions without loss indeed with benefit The volume also explains what it is for something to be good to do under the circumstances and argues for understanding practical reason in these terms What is good to do we find by experience what we go through teaches us what helps and what hinders and helps us figure out what is prudentially useful and what is morally right to do although ultimately this difference itself gives way and morality turns out to be a part of prudence

Patterns of Destiny Diane M. Sharon, 2002 Diane Sharon uses the tools of structuralist literary criticism to uncover social and theological patterns in the literature of the Hebrew Bible After providing a brief framework for understanding the approach used in her study she demonstrates that the social activity of eating and drinking when accompanied by other literary motifs is part of a pattern portending the establishment or condemnation of a cultural entity This pattern she refers to as the Pattern of Destiny In addition to defining the destiny pattern Sharon shows that the direction of the eating and or drinking event provides clues regarding the nature of the destiny portended whether the event will turn out to the positive or negative for the individual or cultural entity is signaled by clues within the eating drinking event sometimes in opposition to the surface structure of the text in which these clues are embedded Book Jacket

all the wooden animals away she added Not this time said Bunker Blue Your father sent me up Bunny to get the big auto the ark as you call it It s got to be fixed and I m to drive it to the shop over at East Milford That s why I came up Where s your mother I want to tell her I m taking away the ark so she won t think some tramps or some gypsies have run off with it I ll call her Sue said while Bunny kept on brushing the tiny whittlings from his jacket and short trousers And there was a queer look on the face of Bunny Brown
