Islands Magazine, 2000-12 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 New York Magazine, 1986-12-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Jonathan Lethem James Peacock, 2013-07-19 Jonathan Lethem is the first full length study dedicated to the work of an exciting genre busting contemporary writer with an increasingly high profile in American literature Examining all of Lethem's novels as well as a number of his short fictions essays and critical works this study shows how the author's prolific output his restlessness and his desire always to be subverting literary forms and genres are consistent with his interest in subcultural identities The human need to break off into small groupings subcultures or miniature utopias is mirrored in the critical tendency to enforce generic boundaries To break down the boundaries between genres then is partly to make a nonsense of critical distinctions between high and low literature and partly to reflect the wider need to recognise difference to appreciate that other people no matter how outlandish and alien they may appear share similar desires experiences and problems With this in mind James Peacock argues that Lethem's experiments with genre are not merely games or elaborate literary jokes but ethical necessities particularly when viewed in the light of the losses and traumas that shadow all of his writing Jonathan Lethem therefore makes an important contribution not just to Lethem studies but also to debates about genre and its position in postmodern or post postmodern literature It will be of interest to all scholars and students of contemporary American writing as well as those interested in genre fiction and literature's relationship with subcultures The Library Journal Book Review, 1977 ASCAP Index of Performed Compositions American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, 1963 The Films of the Eighties Robert A. Nowlan, 1991-01-01 The 1980s had more than its share of both emerging stars and final tributes paid to luminaries as well as smash hits and bombs memorable and boring performances and new trends and tried and true formula offerings The Film of the Eighties includes numerous examples of all of these Each entry has the year of release production company country of origin U S U K Australian Canadian leading performers and the characters they portrayed and comprehensive credits A brief description review and evaluation of the film's
