Goodbye Culinary Cringe:

Goodbye Culinary Cringe Cherry Ripe, 1996 Does Australia have a cuisine This is a provocative guide to the way Australia eats in the 1990s Leaving China Wanning Sun, 2002-08-15 More than ever before China is on the move When the flow of people and images is fused meanings of self place space community and nation become unstable and contestable This fascinating book explores the ways in which movement within and across the national borders of the PRC has influenced the imagination of the Chinese people both those who remain and those who have left Travelers or no all participate in the production and consumption of images and narratives of travel thus contributing to the formation of transnational subjectivities Wanning Sun offers a fine grained analysis of the significant narrative forms and discursive strategies used in representing transnational space in contemporary China This includes looking at how stay at homes fantasize about faraway or unknown places and how those in the diaspora remember experiences of familiar places She considers the ways in which mobility of people capital and images affects localities through individuals constructions of a sense of place Relatedly the author illustrates how economic social and political forces either facilitate or inhibit the formation of a particular kind of transnational subjectivity They Eat That? Jonathan Deutsch, Natalya Murakhver, 2012-01-16 This thoroughly engaging encyclopedia considers the rich diversity of unfamiliar foods eaten around the world The title They Eat That A Cultural Encyclopedia of Weird and Exotic Food from around the World says it all This fun encyclopedia organized A Z describes and offers cultural context for foodstuffs people eat today that might be described as weird at least to the American palate Entries also include American regional standards such as scrapple and chitterlings that other regions might find distasteful as well as a few mainstream American foods like honey that are equally odd when one considers their derivation A long narrative entry on insects for example discusses the fact that insects are enjoyed as a regular part of the diet in some Asian South and Central American and African countries It then looks at the kinds of insects eaten where and how they are eaten cultural uses nutrition and preparation Each of the encyclopedia s 100 entries includes a representative recipe or for a food already prepared like maggoty cheese describes how it is eaten Each entry ends with suggested readings Tourism Business Frontiers Dimitrios Buhalis, Carlos Costa, Francesca Ford, 2006-08-11 As the global tourism industry continues to expand and to become more complex it is vital that those in the industry are equipped with a thorough knowledge of all topics involved New Tourism Consumers Products and Industry Present and Future Issues provides this comprehensive coverage and more Written by a team of globally renowned thinkers and researchers it not only provides a brief historical overview of tourism but delves deeper to discuss emerging trends consumer types and looks at the way the industry itself is changing and developing It provides the manager of tomorrow with the ability to look beyond normal planning horizons and identify potential opportunities from these changes New Tourism Consumers Products and Industry Present and Future Issues is part of a two part set with its companion text Tourism Dynamics Challenges and Tools Present and Future Issues which takes the reader on a logical progression to look at issues relating to the external environment in which the tourism industry functions Both texts thereby provide the reader with a complete set of tools and knowledge recognise the key areas of growth and change and the ability to use the new tools and technologies available to develop them and maximise business potential

Carnal Appetites Elspeth Probyn, 2003-09-02 In Carnal Appetites Elspeth Probyn charts the explosion of interest in food from the cults that spring up around celebrity chefs to our love hate relationship with fast food our fetishization of food and sex and the impact of our modes of consumption on our identities You are what you eat the saying goes but is the tenet truer than ever As the range of food options proliferates in the West our food choices become inextricably linked with our lives and lifestyles Probyn also tackles issues that trouble society asking questions about the nature of appetite desire greed and pleasure and shedding light on subjects including fast food vegetarianism food sex cannibalism forced feeding and fat politics

The Japanese Restaurant Iori Hamada, 2023-08-04 This book explores the growth and operations of the Japanese restaurant in Australia since the early 2000s from perspectives of both restaurant workers and consumers Through first hand testimonies collected from chefs restaurateurs gourmets and casual diners it demonstrates how Japanese restaurants act as cultural hubs connecting a diverse community of migrants Australian citizens and international tourists while also disseminating knowledge of Japanese culinary cultures The ethnographic evidence presented challenges the colonialist and essentialist understandings of the exotic and Japaneseness as the inferior other to the West In so doing the book highlights the complex manifestations of cross cultural desires translating practices and the performative racial ethnic mimesis of Japanese ethnicity Featuring critical investigation into the fixed notions of otherness race ethnicity and authenticity this book will be a valuable resource to students and scholars of Japanese society and culture particularly Japanese food culture

Food Tourism Around The World C. Michael Hall, Liz Sharples, Richard Mitchell, Niki Macdonald, Brock Cambourne, 2004-02-18 Food and wine are vital components of the tourism experience and are increasingly being seen as prime travel motivators in their own right Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets offers a unique insight into this phenomenon looking at the interrelationship between food the tourism product and the tourist experience Using international case studies and examples from Europe North America Australasia and Singapore Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets discusses the development range and repercussions of the food tourism phenomenon The multi national contributor team analyses such issues as the food tourism product food tourism and consumer behaviour cookery schools educational vacations food as an attraction in destination marketing Ideal for both students and practitioners the book represents the most comprehensive and wide ranging treatment yet of this recent development in tourism

The Oxford Companion to Food Alan Davidson, 2014 Twenty years in the making the first edition of this bestselling reference work appeared in 1999 to worldwide acclaim Combining serious and meticulously researched facts with entertaining and witty commentary it has been deemed unique by chefs and reviewers around the globe It contains both a comprehensive catalog of foodstuffs crackers and cookies named for battles and divas body parts from toe to cerebellum breads from Asia to the Mediterranean and a richly allusive account of the culture of food whether expressed in literature and cook books or as dishes special to a country or community Retaining Alan Davidson s wisdom and wit this new edition also covers the latest developments across the whole spectrum of this subject Tom Jaine has taken the opportunity to update the text and alert readers to new perspectives in food studies There is new coverage on attitudes towards food consumption production and perception such as food and genetics food and sociology and obesity New entries include terms such as convenience foods gastronomy fusion food leftovers obesity local food and many more There are also new entries on important personalities who are of special significance within the world of food among them Clarence Birdseye Henri Nestle and Louis Pasteur Now in its third edition the Companion maintains its place as the foremost food reference resource for study and home use

Food and Landscape: Proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery Mark McWilliams, 2018-07-01 The proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery includes 43 essays by international scholars The topics included agro ecology food sovereignty and economic democracy in the agricultural landscape argued by Colin Tudge James Rebanks on family life as a hill farmer in the Lake District and many talks that illustrate Catalan historian Joseph Pla s axiom that Cuisine is the landscape in a saucepan

Disappearing Foods Harlan Walker, 1995 Australian National Bibliography, 1996-12

Remote Control Catharine Lumby, Elspeth Probyn, 2004-01-12 This book examines the ethical challenges posed by new media formats technologies and audiences It considers how these emerging genres and technologies work how they are reshaping the public sphere and how the connections between product and viewer and producer and media consumer are being changed by new shows and formats It includes lively chapters from a range of prominent media commentators and practitioners on a diverse range of issues including reality TV on line media the cash for comment scandal and emerging philosophical approaches to new media ethics With so much interest in contemporary media forms and so many heated debates about media ethics this book will be a must for journalists media practitioners watchers and students
