Genesis Of Values:

The Genesis of Values Hans Joas, 2001-04-01 Public and intellectual debates have long struggled with the concept of values and the difficulties of defining them With The Genesis of Values renowned theorist Hans Joas explores the nature of these difficulties in relation to some of the leading figures of twentieth century philosophy and social theory Friedrich Nietzsche William James Max Scheler John Dewey Georg Simmel Charles Taylor and Jürgen Habermas Joas traces how these thinkers came to terms with the idea of values and then extends beyond them with his own comprehensive theory Values Joas suggests arise in experiences in self formation and self transcendence Only by appreciating the creative nature of human action can we understand how our values arise

The Sacredness of the Person Hans Joas, 2013-02-19 What are the origins of the idea of human rights and universal human dignity How can we most fully understand and realize these rights going into the future In The Sacredness of the Person internationally renowned sociologist and social theorist Hans Joas tells a story that differs from conventional narratives by tracing the concept of human rights back to the Judeo Christian tradition or alternately to the secular French Enlightenment While drawing on sociologists such as mile Durkheim Max Weber and Ernst Troeltsch Joas sets out a new path proposing an affirmative genealogy in which human rights are the result of a process of sacralization of every human being According to Joas every single human being has increasingly been viewed as sacred He discusses the abolition of torture and slavery once common practice in the pre 18th century west as two milestones in modern human history The author concludes by portraying the emergence of the UN Declaration of Human Rights of 1948 as a successful process of value generalization Joas demonstrates that the history of human rights cannot adequately be described as a history of ideas or as legal history but as a complex transformation in which diverse cultural traditions had to be articulated legally codified and assimilated into practices of everyday life The sacralization of the person and universal human rights will only be secure in the future warns Joas through continued support by institutions and society vigorous discourse in their defense and their incarnation in everyday life and practice

Do We Need Religion? Hans Joas, 2015-11-17 The old assumption that modernization leads to secularization is outdated Yet the certainty that religion is an anthropological universal that can only be suppressed by governments is also dead Thus it is now a favorable moment for a new perspective on religion This book takes human experiences of self transcendence as its point of departure Religious faith is seen as an attempt to articulate and interpret such experiences Faith then is neither useful nor a symptom of weakness or misery but an opening up of ways of experience This book develops this basic idea contrasts it with the thinking of some leading religious thinkers of our time and relates it to the current debates about human rights and universal human dignity

Pragmatism and Literary Studies Winfried Fluck, 1999 The Value Orientations of Buddhist and Christian Entrepreneurs Gábor Kovács, 2020-07-30 This book is a comparative analysis of the value orientations of Buddhist and Christian entrepreneurs and how these values impact business The chapters review and analyze the concepts of Buddhist economics and the social teaching of the Roman Catholic Church The value orientations of Buddhist and Christian entrepreneurs are described by irreducible core values that correspond to the ontological conception the procedural dimension and the other directedness of a spiritual value commitment in business The book includes the reflections of Buddhist and Christian entrepreneurs about business spirituality profit the temporal perspectives of business and stakeholder management The cases testify that a spiritual value orientation can contribute to creating genuine ethical commitment The findings and the examples can encourage business scholars and practitioners to stop considering ethics as an instrument in the service of profit and serve as inspiration for integrating spirituality into business in a profound way This book will be of interest to scholars studying business ethics workplace spirituality and faith at work Frontiers of

Sociology Peter Hedström, Björn Wittrock, 2009-01-01 The 37th World Congress of the IIS focused on theory and research at the forefront of sociology and the relationship between sociology and its neighbouring disciplines This volume constitutes a sustained effort by prominent sociologists and other social scientists to assess the current standing of sociology It is a stocktaking of the unique nature of sociology in the light of advances within the discipline itself and within a range of neighbouring disciplines Some of the chapters outline institutional and professional strategies for sociology in the new millennium Others trace scholarly advances and propose ambitious research programmes drawing on recent developments not only within traditional neighbouring disciplines such as history political science and economics but also within the cognitive cultural and mathematical sciences Contributors include Hans Peter Blossfeld Raymond Boudon Richard Breen Christofer R Edling S N Eisenstadt Jack Goldstone Philip Gorski Peter G rdenfors Ulf Hannerz Peter Hedstr m Hans Joas Dietrich Rueschemeyer Jens Rydgren Neil Smelser Aage B S rensen Richard Swedberg Piotr Sztopka Peter Wagner and Bj rn Wittrock Perceiving Truth and Value Markus Mühling, David Andrew Gilland, Yvonne Förster, 2019-11-11 The theme of this volume is the question of value perception It is discussed from different philosophical psychiatric theological and anthropological perspectives The thesis that unites all the papers is the recognition that we live in a relational dynamic world in which we primarily perceive and that to dissolve values from facts is fundamentally misleading both in theory as in life The contributions are the outcome of an energetic conference in 2016 where the problems at stake were rigorously discussed The results are presented here and they have an explicit order and are strictly related It opens with basic questions and observations then critical opinions and objections come into play after which the outline of a larger theory of value perception is presented and at the end some concrete examples from material practices are drawn Theology

Compromised Matthew Ryan Robinson, Evan F. Kuehn, 2019-10-17 Theological work whatever else it may be is always a reflection on social transformations Not only pastors but also theologians work with the sources of the Christian traditions in one hand and a newspaper in the other But how are we to understand the relationship between social transformations and the continuously compromised development of Christian ideals as these are measured by doctrinal formulations And how might a more deeply sociological perspective on this relationship inform theological work Matthew Ryan Robinson and Evan F Kuehn approach this question not by reconstructing a history of ideas but rather by telling a story about the development of churches and theological institutions They take the turbulent and dynamic ecclesiological situation of nineteenth century Germany as a representative case focusing on the sociological methodological orientation of Friedrich Schleiermacher and Ernst Troeltsch in the context of the rise of theological liberalism the history of religions and the German churches confrontation with social and political challenges Robinson and Kuehn then connect this orientation with the sociology of religion of Hans Joas and Niklas Luhmann arguing for a functional focus in theological research on what doctrines do rather than what the reality behind or in any particular doctrine is

A Philosophy of Landscape Construction Bruce

Ferguson, 2020-12-30 A Philosophy of Landscape Construction outlines a philosophy of values in landscape construction demonstrating how integral structures such as pavements and walls constitute a key element to how people interact with and inhabit the final design The book discusses how these structures enable assist and care for people negotiating between the dynamic processes of site ecosystems and the soil on which they are founded They articulate spatial functional cultural and ecological meanings Within this theoretical framework designers will learn to recognize and insert a set of core values into the most technical design stages to reach their full potential By offering a new perspective on landscape construction moving away from the exclusively technical characteristics this book allows landscape architects to realise the ideal vision for their designs It is abundantly illustrated with examples from which designers can learn both successes and failures and will be an essential companion to any study of built landscapes

Religion and Human Rights Wilhelm Gräb, Lars

Charbonnier, 2015-05-19 Current processes of globalization are challenging Human Rights and the attempts to institutionalize them in many ways The question of the connection between religion and human rights is a crucial point here The genealogy of the Human Rights is still a point of controversies in the academic discussion Nevertheless there is consensus that the Christian tradition especially the doctrine that each human being is an image of God played an important role within the emergence of the codification of the Human Rights in the period of enlightenment It is also obvious that the struggle against the politics of apartheid in South Africa was strongly supported by initiatives of churchy and other religious groups referring to the Human Rights Christian churches and other religious groups do still play an important role in the post apartheid South Africa They have a public voice concerning all the challenges with which the multiethnic and economically still deeply divided South African society is faced with The reflections on these questions in the collected lectures and essays of this volume derive from an academic discourse between German and South African scholars that took place within the German South African Year of Science 2012 13      Technical Memorandum Waterways Experiment Station (U.S.),1991      The Monist Paul Carus,1927 Vols 2 and 5 include appendices      New Meanings for Ancient Texts Steven L. Sharkov,2001-04-18 Tropical cyclones are the most impressive and best phenomenon of the tropics and this book fills a need for a thorough detailed book on the subject concentrating on the remote sensing results on both initial and mature forms of tropical cyclones It provides a comprehensive description of the physical geophysical and meteorological foundations of global tropical cyclogenesis The author emphasises the physical aspects necessary to judge the possibilities and limitations of monitoring mitigation methods and includes numerous applications and illustrations from up to date airborne and satellite experiments Futures Worth Preserving Andressa Schröder,Nico Völker,Robert A. Winkler,Tom Clucas,2019-01-23

Cultures as well as individuals continually balance the demands of nostalgia and sustainability as they construct historical narratives of futures worth preserving The aim of this volume is to explore those narratives and the underlying assumptions which inform them Drawing on a range of disciplines from the humanities and social sciences the chapters investigate cultural assumptions about which aspects of the past deserve to be remembered and which aspects of the present should be sustained for the future In the process they reveal how contemporary definitions of sustainability are informed by a nostalgic yearning for the past and how nostalgia is motivated by a reciprocal longing to sustain the past for the future Warm

Climates in Earth History Brian T. Huber,Kenneth G. Macleod,Scott L. Wing,2000 The geologic record contains evidence of greenhouse climates in the earth s past and by studying these past conditions we can gain greater understanding of the forcing mechanisms and feedbacks that influence today s climate Leading experts in paleoclimatology combine in one integrated volume new and state of the art paleontological geological and theoretical studies to assess intervals of global warmth The book reviews what is known about the causes and consequences of globally warm climates demonstrates current directions of research on warm climates and outlines the central problems that remain unresolved The chapters present new research on a number of different warm climate intervals from the early Paleozoic to the early Cenozoic The book will be of great interest to researchers in paleoclimatology and it will also be useful as a supplementary text on advanced undergraduate or graduate level courses in paleoclimatology and earth science     Philosophic Function of Value Nathan Blechman,1918
