Ward Churchill

Genocide Machine In Canada:

The Genocide Machine in Canada Robert Davis, Mark Zannis, 1973 The authors claim and support with quoted statements that Canada is committing an act of genocide against the native peoples of the north in the process of developing the north

The Genocide Machine in Canada Robert Davis, Mark Zannis, 1973 Struggle for the Land Ward Churchill, 2002-09 Landmark work illustrates the history of North American indigenous resistance and the struggle for land rights

Critical Criminology in Canada Aaron Doyle, Dawn Moore, 2011-01-01 Canada's criminal justice landscape has been shaped by contrary trends in recent years As the crime rate declines policy makers continue to push for tough on crime legislation and university criminology programs continue to expand Given these trends what does the future hold for criminology and criminal justice This book presents the work of a new generation of critical criminologists who explore the geographical institutional and political context of the discipline in Canada Breaking away from mainstream criminology and popular law and order discourses the authors present a spectrum of theoretical approaches to criminal justice from governmentality to feminist criminology from critical realism to anarchism and they propose novel approaches to topics such as genocide white collar crime and the effect of prison sentences on families By posing crucial questions and attempting to define what criminology should be this book will shape debates about crime policing and punishment for years to come

Cultural Genocide Jeffrey S. Bachman, 2019-05-24 This book explores concepts of Cultural genocide its definitions place in international law the systems and methods that contribute to its manifestations and its occurrences Through a systematic approach and comprehensive analysis international and interdisciplinary contributors from the fields of genocide studies legal studies criminology sociology archaeology human rights colonial studies and anthropology examine the legal structural and political issues associated with cultural genocide This includes a series of geographically representative case studies from the USA Brazil Australia West Papua Iraq Palestine Iran and Canada This volume is unique in its interdisciplinarity regional coverage and the various methods of cultural genocide represented and will be of interest to scholars of genocide studies cultural studies and human rights international law international relations indigenous studies anthropology and history

The United States and Genocide Jeffrey Bachman, 2017-11-22 There exists a dominant narrative that essentially defines the US relationship with genocide through what the US has failed to do to stop or prevent genocide rather than through how its actions have contributed to the commission of genocide This narrative acts to conceal the true nature of the US relationship with many of the governments that have committed genocide since the Holocaust as well as the US own actions In response this book challenges the dominant narrative through a comprehensive analysis of the US relationship with genocide The analysis is situated within the broader genocide studies literature while emphasizing the role of state responsibility for the commission of genocide and the crime's ancillary acts The book addresses how a culture of impunity contributes to the resiliency of the dominant narrative in the face of considerable evidence that challenges it Bachman's narrative presents a far darker relationship between the US and genocide one that has developed from the start of the Genocide Convention s negotiations and has extended all the way to present day as can be seen in the relationships the US maintains with potentially genocidal regimes from Saudi Arabia to Myanmar This book will be of interest to scholars postgraduates and students of genocide studies US foreign policy and human rights A secondary readership may be found in those who study international law and international relations

The American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony J. Hall, Tony Hall, 2005 In a book that Naomi Klein says could change the world Anthony Hall shows that the globalization debate actually began in 1492

Un/Covering the North Valerie Alia, 2011-11-01 Despite setbacks and cutbacks Canada leads the world in northern and Aboriginal communications This book provides a comprehensive survey of communications in the circumpolar region focusing on the Canadian Arctic and sub Arctic but also looking at the circumpolar North Alaska Siberia Greenland and the Nordic Saami nations Radio television magazines newspapers and web sites are all covered As technologies and access improve Aboriginal people are increasingly taking control of their own representation and consolidating their presence in northern media Alia concludes that Canada will maintain its leadership in northern communications in the years ahead given the topic s far reaching importance and international context

Almost A Born Loser! Annis Gregory Aleck, 2011-05-09 Canada also tried to exterminate the Indians just like the USA but used subtle methods like diseases starvation Residential Schools and oppression Then when we tried to do something for ourselves we were held back by the Govt and many Canadians wouldn t hire us or didn t treat us very well when we got hired Canada kept the truth well hidden by not exposing the truth or distorting stories so much that when they were exposing what happened there was very little if any truth to what they re saying My story will expose some of these issues and how we had to struggle against overwhelming odds to do something with our lives but still weren t able to work to our full potential

Medicine Unbundled Gary Geddes, 2017-02-15 We can no longer pretend we don t know about residential schools murdered and missing Aboriginal women and Indian hospitals The only outstanding question is how we respond Tom Sandborn Vancouver Sun A shocking expos of the dark history and legacy of segregated Indigenous health care in Canada After the publication of his critically acclaimed 2011 book Drink the Bitter Root A Writer s Search for Justice and Healing in Africa author Gary Geddes turned the investigative lens on his own country embarking on a long and difficult journey across Canada to interview Indigenous elders willing to share their experiences of segregated health care including their treatment in the Indian hospitals that existed from coast to coast for over half a century The memories recounted by these survivors from gratuitous drug and surgical experiments to electroshock treatments intended to destroy the memory of sexual abuse are truly harrowing and will surely shatter any lingering illusions about the virtues or good intentions of our colonial past Yet this is more than just the painful history of a once so called vanishing people a people who have resisted vanishing despite the best efforts of those in charge it is a testament to survival perseverance and the power of memory to keep history alive and promote the idea of a more open and just future Released to coincide with the Year of Reconciliation 2017 Medicine Unbundled is an important and timely contribution to our national narrative Metacide ,2010-01-01 If philosophy addresses concrete ethical challenges then what shifts in basic concepts must be made to the discipline in the darkness of our genocidal world What anti genocidal strains are in Western philosophy Are we really rejects and or still of intrinsic worth when we fail our excellence tests How are we represented and how do we participate in representations Are representational forms historical in origin and development Is genocide indissolubly linked to our degradation and destruction of animals Can one slaughter and eat one s partners in a social bond If so what does this tell us about the socio political world we have formed Is there a deep center metacide in our culture from which genocide receives its impulse These are some of the pivotal questions addressed in the thirteen thought provoking essays of this volume Renewing Destruction Alexander A.

 Dunlap,2019-06-21 Renewing Destruction examines how wind energy projects impact people and their environments Wind energy development in Mexico and most countries fall into a roll out neoliberal strategy that is justified by climate change mitigation programs that are continuing a process of land and wind resources grabbing for profit The result has been an exaggeration of pre existing problems in communities around land income inequality local politics and contrary to public relations stories is devastating traditional livelihoods and socio ecological relationships Exacerbating pre existing social and material problems in surrounding towns wind energy development is placing greater stress on semi subsistence communities marginalizing Indigenous traditions and indirectly resulting in the displacement and migration of people into urban centers Based on intensive fieldwork with local groups in Oaxaca Mexico this book provides an in depth study demonstrating the complications and problems that emerge with the current regime of sustainable development and wind energy projects in Mexico which has wider lessons to be drawn for other regions and countries Put simply the book reveals a tragic reality that calls into question the marketed hopes of the green economy and the current method of climate change mitigation It shows the variegated impacts and issues associated with building wind energy parks which extends to recognizing the destructive effects on Indigenous cultures and practices in the region The book however highlights what to consider or more importantly what to avoid if one is working with industrial scale wind energy systems Inuit Women Janet Mancini Billson,Kyra Mancini,2007-04-09 Inuit Women is the definitive study of the Inuit during a time of rapid change Based on fourteen years of research and fieldwork this analysis focuses on the challenges facing Inuit women as they enter the twenty first century Written shortly after the creation of Nunavut a new province carved out of traditional Inuit homelands in the Canadian North this compelling book combines conclusions drawn from the authors ethnographic research with the stories of Inuit women and men told in their own words In addition to their presentation of the personal portraits and voices of many Inuit respondents Janet Mancini Billson and Kyra Mancini explore global issues the impact of rapid social change and Canadian resettlement policy on Inuit culture women s roles in society and gender relations in Baffin Island in the Eastern Arctic They also include an extensive section on how the newly created territory of Nunavut is impacting the lives of Inuit women and their families Working from a research approach grounded in feminist theory the authors involve their Inuit interviewees as full participants in the process This book stands alone in its attention to Inuit women s issues and lives and should be read by everyone interested in gender relations development modernization globalization and Inuit culture American Indian Liberation Tinker, George E "Tink",2020-01-23 Earth Into Property Tony Hall,2010 A broad exploration of the colonial roots of global capitalism and the worldwide quest of Indigenous people for liberation through decolonization American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony J. Hall,2003-11-10 In The American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony Hall presents a sweeping analysis of encounters between indigenous people and the European empires national governments and global corporations on the moving frontiers of globalization since Columbus discovered America How should we respond to the emergence of the United States as the military commercial and cultural centre of a global empire How can we elaborate a global rule of law based on equality and democracy when the world s most powerful polity acknowledges no higher authority in the international arena than its own domestic priorities For Hall the answer lies in the concept of the Fourth World an inclusive intellectual tent covering a wide range of movements whose leaders seek to implement alternative views of globalization Larger than any earlier political movement the Fourth World embraces basic principles that include the inherent rights of self determination and a more just approach to the crafting and enforcement of international law The Violent Technologies of Extraction Alexander Dunlap,Jostein Jakobsen,2019-10-15 Offering a thought provoking theoretical conversation around ecological crisis and natural resource extraction this book suggests that we are on a trajectory geared towards total extractivism guided by the mythological Worldeater The authors discuss why and how we have come to live in this catastrophic predicament rooting the present in an original perspective that animates the forces of global techno capitalist development They argue that the Worldeater helps us make sense of the insatiable forces that transform convert and consume the world The book combines this unique approach with detailed academic review of critical agrarian studies and political ecology the militarization of nature and the conventional and green extraction nexus It seeks radical reflection on the role people play in the construction and perpetuation of these crises and concludes with some suggestions on how to tackle them Entryways to Criminal Justice George Pavlich,Matthew P. Unger,2019-02-15 How do societies decide whom to criminalize What does it mean to accuse someone of being an offender Entryways to Criminal Justice analyzes the thresholds that distinguish law abiding individuals from those who may be criminalized Contributors to the volume adopt social historical cultural and political perspectives to explore the accusatory process that place persons in contact with the law Emphasizing the gateways to criminal justice truth telling and overcriminalization the authors provide important insights into often overlooked practices that admit persons to criminal justice It is essential reading for scholars students and policy makers in the fields of socio legal studies sociology criminology law and society and post colonial studies Contributors Dale A

Ballucci Martin A French Aaron Henry Bryan R Hogeveen Dawn Moore George Pavlich Marcus A Sibley Rashmee Singh Amy Swiffen Matthew P Unger Elise Wohlbold Andrew Woolford      Acts of Rebellion Ward Churchill, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Colonialism on the Prairies Blanca Tovias, 2012-07-23 This book spans a century in the history of the Blackfoot First Nations of present day Montana and Alberta It maps out specific ways in which Blackfoot culture persisted amid the drastic transformations of colonisation with its concomitant forced assimilation in both Canada and the United States It portrays the strategies and tactics adopted by the Blackfoot in order to navigate political cultural and social change during the hard transition from traditional life ways to life on reserves and reservations Cultural continuity is the thread that binds the four case studies presented encompassing Blackfoot sacred beliefs and ritual dress practices the transmission of knowledge and the relationship between oral stories and contemporary fiction Blackfoot voices emerge forcefully from the extensive array of primary and secondary sources consulted resulting in an inclusive history wherein Blackfoot and non Blackfoot scholarship enter into dialogue Blanca Tovias combines historical research with literary criticism a strategy that is justified by the interrelationship between Blackfoot history and the stories from their oral tradition Chapters devoted to examining cultural continuity discuss the ways in which oral stories continue to inspire contemporary Native American fiction This interdisciplinary study is a celebration of Blackfoot culture and knowledge that seeks to revalourise the past by documenting Blackfoot resistance and persistence across a wide spectrum of cultural practice The volume is essential reading for all scholars working in the fields of Native American studies colonial and postcolonial history ethnology and literature
