Genteel Revolutionaries:

Gentlemen Revolutionaries Tom Cutterham, 2020-10-13 In the years between the Revolutionary War and the drafting of the Constitution American gentlemen the merchants lawyers planters and landowners who comprised the independent republic's elite worked hard to maintain their positions of power Gentlemen Revolutionaries shows how their struggles over status hierarchy property and control shaped the ideologies and institutions of the fledgling nation Tom Cutterham examines how facing pressure from populist movements as well as the threat of foreign empires these gentlemen argued among themselves to find new ways of justifying economic and political inequality in a republican society At the heart of their ideology was a regime of property and contract rights derived from the norms of international commerce and eighteenth century jurisprudence But these gentlemen were not concerned with property alone They also sought personal prestige and cultural preeminence Cutterham describes how painting the egalitarian freedom of the republic's lower sort as dangerous licentiousness they constructed a vision of proper social order around their own fantasies of power and justice In pamphlets speeches letters and poetry they argued that the survival of the republican experiment in the United States depended on the leadership of worthy gentlemen and the obedience of everyone else Lively and elegantly written Gentlemen Revolutionaries demonstrates how these elites far from giving up their attachment to gentility and privilege recast the new republic in their own image

Revolutionary Lives Lauren Arrington, 2020-08-04 Constance Markievicz 1868 1927 born to the privileged Protestant upper class in Ireland embraced suffrage before scandalously leaving for a bohemian life in London and then Paris She would become known for her roles as politician and Irish revolutionary nationalist Her husband Casimir Dunin Markievicz 1874 1932 a painter playwright and theater director was a Polish noble who would eventually join the Russian imperial army to fight on behalf of Polish freedom during World War I Revolutionary Lives offers the first dual biography of these two prominent European activists and artists Tracing the Markievicz's entwined and impassioned trajectories biographer Lauren Arrington sheds light on the avant garde cultures of London Paris and Dublin and the rise of anti imperialism at the turn of the twentieth century Drawing from new archival material including previously untranslated newspaper articles Arrington explores the interests and concerns of Europeans invested in suffrage socialism and nationhood Unlike previous works Arrington's book brings Casimir Markievicz into the foreground of the story and explains how his liberal imperialism and his wife's socialist republicanism arose from shared experiences even as their politics remained distinct Arrington also shows how Constance did not convert suddenly to Irish nationalism but was gradually radicalized by the Irish Revival Correcting previous depictions of Constance as hero or hysteric Arrington presents her as a serious thinker influenced by political and cultural contemporaries Revolutionary Lives places the exciting biographies of two uniquely creative and political individuals and spouses in the wider context of early twentieth century European history A Social History of Women in Ireland, 1870-1970 Rosemary Cullen Owens, 2005-10-25 A Social History of Women in Ireland is an important and overdue book that explores the role and status of women in Ireland from 1870 until 1970 looking at politics sociology marriage patterns religion education and work among other topics It provides a vital missing piece in the jigsaw of modern Irish history Using a combination of primary research and published works A Social History of Women in Ireland explores the role and status of women in Ireland It examines lifestyle options available to women during this period as well as providing an overview of the forces working for change within Irish society In bringing together a wide ranging portfolio of material A Social History of Women in Ireland 1870 1970 fills an important gap in the literature of the period by focusing on the experiences of Irish women a group so often overlooked in histories of revolutionary men and prominent politicians Crucial to a determination of the status of women throughout this period is an examination of the choices available regarding work marriage and emigration Rosemary Cullen Owens stresses at all times the importance of class and land ownership as key determinants for women's lives A decrease in home industries allied to increasing mechanisation on the farm resulted in a contraction of labour opportunities for rural women With the establishment of an independent farming class the distinguishing criteria for status in rural Ireland became ownership of land in which single minded patriarchal figures dominated In this context the position of women declined and a society evolved with a high pattern of late age marriages large numbers of unwed sons and daughters and an accepted pattern of emigration In the cities and towns the condition of lower working class women was especially distressing for most of the period with particular problems regarding housing health and sanitation Through the work of campaigning activists equal educational and political rights were eventually attained From the early 1900s there was some expansion in female employment in shops offices and industry but domestic service remained a high source of employment For middle class women employment opportunities were limited and usually disappeared on marriage The civil service a major employer in an economy that was generally un dynamic and stagnant operated a bar on married women for much of the period Rosemary Cullen Owens not merely traces these injustices but also the campaigns fought to right them She locates these struggles in the wider social context in which they took place This important book restores balance to the narrative of modern Irish history changing the focus from key male political figures to society at large by unveiling the often forgotten story of the country's women over a tumultuous century of change In doing so Rosemary Cullen Owens enriches our understanding of Irish history from 1870 to 1970

A Social History of Women in Ireland

Table of Contents Introduction Part 1 Irishwomen in the Nineteenth Century A progressively widening set of objectives The Early Women's Movement Developments in Female Education Faith and Philanthropy Women and Religion Part 2 A New Century Action and Reaction Radical Suffrage Campaign Feminism and Nationalism Pacifism Militarism and Republicanism Part 3 Marriage Motherhood and Work The Social and Economic Role of Women in Post Famine Ireland Trade Unions and Irish Women Women and Work Part 4 Women in the New Irish State The Quest for Equal Citizenship 1922 1938 The Politicisation of Women Mid Twentieth Century Epilogue A Woman's World Forbidden Music Michael

Haas,2013-04-15 DIV With National Socialism s arrival in Germany in 1933 Jews dominated music more than virtually any other sector making it the most important cultural front in the Nazi fight for German identity This groundbreaking book looks at the Jewish composers and musicians banned by the Third Reich and the consequences for music throughout the rest of the twentieth century Because Jewish musicians and composers were by 1933 the principal conveyors of Germany s historic traditions and the ideals of German culture the isolation exile and persecution of Jewish musicians by the Nazis became an act of musical self mutilation Michael Haas looks at the actual contribution of Jewish composers in Germany and Austria before 1933 at their increasingly precarious position in Nazi Europe their forced emigration before and during the war their ambivalent relationships with their countries of refuge such as Britain and the United States and their contributions within the radically changed post war music environment div The Women's Suffrage Movement in Britain and Ireland Elizabeth

Crawford,2013-04-15 In this comprehensive study Elizabeth Crawford provides the first survey of women s suffrage campaigns across the British Isles and Ireland focusing on local campaigns and activists Divided into thirteen sections covering the regions of England Wales Scotland and Ireland this book gives a unique geographical dimension to debates on the suffrage campaign of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Through a study of the grass roots activists involved in the movement Crawford provides a counter to studies that have focused on the politics and personalities that dominated at a national level and reveals that far from providing merely passive backing to the cause women in the regions were engaged in the movement as active participants Including a thorough inventory of archival sources and extensive bibliographical and biographical references for each region including the addresses of campaigners this guide is essential for researchers scholars local historians and students alike Irish Women Writers Elke D'hoker,2010 After a decade in which women writers have gradually been given more recognition in the study of Irish literature this collection proposes a reappraisal of Irish women s writing by inviting dialogues with new or hitherto marginalised critical frameworks as well as with foreign and transnational literary traditions Several essays explore how Irish women writers engaged with European themes and traditions through the genres of travel writing the historical novel the monologue and the fairy tale Other contributions are concerned with the British context in which some texts were published and argue for the existence of Irish inflections of phenomena such as the New Woman suffragism or vegetarianism Further chapters emphasise the transnational character of Irish women s writing by applying continental theory and French feminist thinking to various texts in other chapters new developments in theory are applied to Irish texts for the first time Casting the efforts of Irish women in a new light the collection also includes explorations of the work of neglected or emerging authors who have remained comparatively ignored by Irish literary criticism Women and the Irish Nation J. MacPherson,2012-10-16 At the turn of the twentieth century women played a key role in debates about the nature of the Irish nation Examining women s participation in nationalist and rural reform groups this book is an important contribution to our understanding of Irish identity in the prelude to revolution and how it was shaped by women The Struggle for Female Suffrage in Europe Blanca Rodriguez Ruiz, Ruth Rubio-Marín, 2012-06-07 By comparing women's access to suffrage in the countries that make up the European Union i The Struggle for Female Suffrage in Europe provides a retelling of the story of how citizenship was gradually coined in Europe from the perspective of women Cosmopolitan Nationalism in the Victorian Empire J. Regan-Lefebvre, 2009-08-14 The first biography of Alfred Webb Irish nationalist and president of the 1894 Indian National Congress The biography explores how Webb viewed nationalism as a vehicle for global social justice Drawing on archives in Britain Ireland and India the author reveals how Irish and Indians used cosmopolitan London to create networks across the Empire Contraception and Modern Ireland Laura Kelly, 2023-02-23 The first history of contraception in twentieth century Ireland to explore the lived experiences of Irish men and women and activists Red Sun Sudeep Chakravarti, 2009-04-17 Spread over fifteen of the country's twenty eight states India's Maoist movement is now one of the world's biggest and most sophisticated extreme left movements Hardly a week passes without people dying in strikes and counter strikes by the Maoists interchangeably known as the Naxalites and the police and paramilitary forces In this brilliant and sobering examination of the Other India Sudeep Chakravarti combines reportage political analysis and individual case histories as he takes us to the heart of Maoist zones in the country areas of extreme destitution bad governance and perpetual war Beyond Pleasure Evert Peeters, Leen Van Molle, Kaat Wils, 2011-04-01 Asceticism so it is argued in this volume is a modern category The ubiquitous cult of the body of fitness and diet equally evokes the ongoing success of ascetic practices and beliefs Nostalgic memories of hardship and discipline in the army youth movements or boarding schools remain as present as the fashionable irritation with the presumed modern day laziness In the very texture of contemporary culture age old asceticism proves to be remarkably alive Old ascetic forms were remoulded to serve modern desires for personal authenticity an authenticity that disconnected asceticism in the course of the nineteenth century from two traditions that had underpinned it since classical antiquity the public republican austerity of antiquity and the private religious asceticism of Christianity Exploring various aspects such as the history of the body of aesthetics science and social thought in several European countries Great Britain France Germany Austria and Belgium the authors show that modern asceticism remains a deeply ambivalent category Apart from self realisation classical and religious examples continue to haunt the ascetic mind Irish Nationalist Women, 1900-1918 Senia Pašeta, 2013-12-05 This is a major new history of the experiences and activities of Irish nationalist women in the early twentieth century from learning and buying Irish to participating in armed revolt Using memoirs reminiscences letters and diaries Senia Pašeta explores the question of what it meant to be a female nationalist in this volatile period revealing how Irish women formed nationalist cultural and feminist groups of their own as well as how they influenced broader political developments She shows that women's involvement with Irish nationalism was intimately bound up with the suffrage movement as feminism offered an important framework for women's political activity She covers the full range of women's nationalist activism from constitutional nationalism to republicanism beginning in 1900 with the foundation of Inghinidhe na h ireann Daughters of Ireland and ending in 1918 with the enfranchisement of women the collapse of the Irish Party and the ascendancy of Sinn Fein Marriage in Ireland, 1660-1925 Maria Luddy, Mary O'Dowd, 2020-06-25 What were the laws on marriage in Ireland and did church and state differ in their interpretation How did men and women meet and arrange to marry How important was patriarchy and a husband's control over his wife And what were the options available to Irish men and women who wished to leave an unhappy marriage This first comprehensive history of marriage in Ireland across three centuries looks below the level of elite society for a multi faceted exploration of how marriage was perceived negotiated and controlled by the church and state as well as by individual men and women within Irish society Making extensive use of new and under utilised primary sources Maria Luddy and Mary O Dowd explain the laws and customs around marriage in Ireland Revising current understandings of marital law and relations Marriage in Ireland 1660 1925 represents a major new contribution to Irish historical studies Irish Women and the Vote Louise Ryan, Margaret Ward, 2018-02-01 This landmark book reissued with a new foreword to mark the centenary of Irish women being granted the right to vote is the first comprehensive analysis of the Irish suffrage movement from its mid nineteenth century beginnings to when feminist militancy exploded on the streets of Dublin and Belfast in the early twentieth century Younger more militant suffragists took their cue from their British counterparts two of whom travelled to Ireland to throw a hatchet into the carriage of Prime Minister Herbert Asquith on O Connell Bridge in 1912 missing him but grazing Home Rule leader John Redmond who was in the same carriage both politicians opposed giving women the Vote Despite such dramatic publicity and other non violent campaigning women's suffrage was a minority interest in an Ireland more concerned with the issue of gaining independence from Britain The particular complexity of the Irish struggle is explored with new perspectives on unionist and nationalist suffragists and the conflict between Home Rule and suffragism campaigning for the vote in country towns life in industrial Belfast conflicting feminist views on the First World War and the suffragist uncovering of sexual abuse and domestic violence as well as the pioneering use of hunger strike as a political tool The ultimate granting of the franchise in 1918 represented the end of a long fought battle by Irish women for the right to equal citizenship and the beginning of a new Ireland that continues to debate the rights and equality of its female citizens Bold, Brilliant and Bad Marian Broderick, 2018-09-10 From every county in Ireland Bold Brilliant Bad draws together the stories of over 120 amazing Irish women Marian Broderick is back to explore the histories of remarkable Irish Women in history From creative craftswomen to singing sensations poets to sporting champions From Lilian Bland to Maeve Binchy and from Anne O'Brien to Professor Sheila Tinney these women paved the way for the future and made massive changes in their various fields Meet the women from history who went against the grain and challenged the expectations of the world There were and are a force to be reckoned with

The Little Book of Rathmines Maurice Curtis, 2019-04-05 Rathmines is one of the oldest and most vibrant parts of Dublin

In this compendium of fascinating obscure strange and entertaining facts you will find out about Rathmines past its proud sporting heritage its arts and culture and its famous and occasionally infamous men and women A reliable reference book and a quirky guide this can be dipped into time and again to reveal something new about the people the heritage and the secrets of this much loved area Stirring Up Seattle R. M. Campbell,2014-11-01 In the 1950s the city of Seattle began a transformation from an insular provincial outpost to a vibrant and cosmopolitan cultural center As veteran Seattle journalist R M Campbell illustrates in Stirring Up Seattle Allied Arts in the Civic Landscape this transformation was catalyzed in part by the efforts of a group of civic arts boosters originally known as The Beer and Culture Society This merry band of lawyers architects writers designers and university professors eventually known as Allied Arts of Seattle lobbied for public funding for the arts helped avert the demolition of Pike Place Market and were involved in a wide range of crusades and campaigns in support of historic preservation cultural institutions and urban livability Urban Utopias in the Twentieth Century Robert Fishman,1982-09-16 The utopian visions of three of urban planning s greatest visionaries Ebenezer Howard Frank Lloyd Wright and Le Corbusier hated the cities of their time with an overwhelming passion The metropolis was the counter image of their ideal cities the hell that inspired their heavens In this book Robert Fishman examines the utopian visions of three of urban planning s greatest visionaries Howard created the concept of the garden city where shops and cottages formed the center of a geometric pattern with farmland surrounding Wright conceived of Broadacre City the ultimate suburb where the automobile was king and Le Corbusier imagined Ville Radieuse the city of cruciform skyscrapers set down in open parkland The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish History Alvin Jackson,2014-03 Draws from a wide range of disciplines to bring together 36 leading scholars writing about 400 years of modern Irish history
