Gentleman In The Garden The Influential Landscape In The Works Of James Fenimore Cooper:

The Gentleman in the Garden Russell T. Newman,2001 The Gentleman in the Garden Russell T.

Newman,2003-01-01 The Gentleman in the Garden The Influential Landscape of James Fenimore Cooper examines the profound and previously unrecognized relationship between landscape and social standing in the work of James Fenimore Cooper Russell T Newman looks at the use of landscape in a wide array of Cooper s novels to illustrate the great author s distinctive outlook on what it meant to be a gentleman in the early days of America Both a broad overview of Cooper s work and an in depth examination of its views on society The Gentleman in the Garden is more than a glimpse into the pioneer aesthetic of one of America s earliest authors it demonstrates how Cooper re defined the concept of the gentleman to suit American life Only in the land of democracy opportunity and rolling countryside can a true Cooper gentleman emerge

Remodeling the Nation Duncan Faherty,2007 In this interdisciplinary study Faherty argues that throughout the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Americans conceptualized their still unsettled political and social states through metaphors of home building During this period a pervasive concern with the design and furnishing of houses helped writers to manage previous encounters with settlements both native and European and to imagine and remodel a new national ideal By aligning the period s architectural concerns registered in both the interior and exterior of houses with concurrent debates about the need to create a national identity in the wake of the American Revolution Faherty registers how representations of the house were a crucial locus for debating broadly shared concerns about the anxieties of nation building Topics include Abraham Lincoln s use of architectural motifs in his 1858 senatorial campaign the house divided against itself speech the arguments about domestic identity embodied in the designs of Mount Vernon and Monticello the lingering import of colonial and indigenous settlements on post revolutionary culture as registered in the work of William Bartram and Lewis and Clark Charles Brockden Brown s representations of the multivalent legacies of Pennsylvania s architectural landscapes Washington Irving s attempts to preserve and remodel national architectural and literary practices by underscoring the manufactured nature of European cultural production the shifting importance of the house and American attitudes toward nature in the work of three generations of the Cooper family and the gendering of domestic space in the work of Edgar Allen Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne and Herman Melville Richly informed by contemporary work in literary studies history art history and cultural criticism Remodeling the Nation ranges incisively across the work of political theorists social critics novelists poets natural historians landscape artists travel writers and authors of architectural and domestic treatises The Deerslayer James Fenimore Cooper,2013 Thoreau the Land Surveyor Patrick Chura,2010-10-10 Henry David Thoreau one of America s most prominent environmental writers supported himself as a land surveyor for much of his life parceling land that would be sold off to loggers In the only study of its kind Patrick Chura analyzes this seeming contradiction to show how the best surveyor in Concord combined civil engineering with civil disobedience Placing Thoreau s surveying in historical context

Thoreau the Land Surveyor explains the cultural and ideological implications of surveying work in the mid nineteenth century Chura explains the ways that Thoreau s environmentalist disposition and philosophical convictions asserted themselves even as he reduced the land to measurable terms and acted as an agent for bringing it under proprietary control He also describes in detail Thoreau s 1846 survey of Walden Pond By identifying the origins of Walden in of all places surveying data Chura re creates a previously lost supporting manuscript of this American classic

A Colossal Hoax Scott Tribble,2008-12-16 In October 1869 as America stood on the brink of becoming a thoroughly modern nation workers unearthed what appeared to be a petrified ten foot giant on a remote farm in upstate New York The discovery caused a sensation Over the next several months newspapers devoted daily headlines to the story and tens of thousands of Americans including Oliver Wendell Holmes Ralph Waldo Emerson and the great showman P T Barnum flocked to see the giant on exhibition In the colossus many saw evidence that their continent and the tiny hamlet of Cardiff had ties to Biblical history American science also weighed in on the discovery and in doing so revealed its own growing pains including the shortcomings of traditional education the weaknesses of archaeological methodology as well as the vexing presence of amateurs and charlatans within its ranks A national debate ensued over the giant s origins and was played out in the daily press Ultimately the discovery proved to be an elaborate hoax Still the story of the Cardiff Giant reveals many things about America in the post Civil War years After four years of destruction on an unimagined scale Americans had increasingly turned their attention to the renewal of progress But the story of the Cardiff Giant seemed to shed light on a complicated mysterious past and for a time scientists clergymen newspaper editors and ordinary Americans struggled to make sense of it Hucksters of course did their best to take advantage of it The Cardiff Giant was one of the leading questions of the day and how citizens answered it said much about Americans in 1869 as well as about America more generally

Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies Patrick D. Murphy,2009-07-15 In Ecocritical Explorations Patrick D Murphy explores environmental literature and environmental cultural issues through both theoretical and applied criticism He engages with the concepts of referentiality simplicity the nation state and virtual reality in the first section of the book and then goes on to interrogate these issues in contemporary environmental literature both American and international He concludes his argument with a discussion of the larger frames of family dynamics and un natural disasters such as hurricanes and global warming ending with a chapter on the integration of scholarship and pedagogy in the classroom with reference to his own teaching experiences Murphy s study provides a wide ranging discussion of contemporary literature and cultural phenomena through the lens of ecological literary criticism giving attention to both theoretical issues and applied critiques In particular he looks at popular literary genres such as mystery and science fiction as well as actual disasters and disaster scenarios Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies is a timely contribution to ecological literary criticism and an insightful look into how we represent our relationship with the environment

A Historical Guide to James Fenimore Cooper Leland S. Person,2007 A Historical Guide to James

Fenimore Cooper features new critical essays by noted American literature scholars Gerald Kennedy John P McWilliams Dana Nelson and Barbara Mann as well as a brief biography by authorized Cooper biographer Wayne Franklin and a survey of Cooper scholarship and criticism and bibliography by Jeffrey Walker Kennedy examines Cooper's five volume Gleanings in Europe as the most ambitious effort by an antebellum American author to scrutinize the new nation from a critical transnational perspective McWilliams challenges the critical and scholarly neglect of Cooper's women by analyzing the four Revolutionary War novels in which young women play critical roles in furthering political debates about loyalty independence and family upon which America's new republican culture depends Examining the five Leatherstocking novels Nelson shows how groupings of male and female characters across lines of class habitude and race foreground the problems of creating new identities that can support the democratic aims of the early United States Mann defends Cooper from nineteenth century as well as twentieth century attacks that he was a race traitor and argues provocatively that Natty Bumppo is a mixed race character Wayne Franklin offers a preview of his forthcoming two volume biography of Cooper Editor Leland S Person provides an introduction and an illustrated chronology of Cooper's life and nineteenth century historical events

Persuasive Aesthetic Ecocritical Praxis Patrick D. Murphy, 2015-08-20 Persuasive Aesthetic Ecocritical Praxis continues Patrick D Murphy's focus on transversal ecocritical praxis by considering literature and cinema in terms of the persuasive force of aesthetic activity and whether or not artistic production and its criticism can be considered forms of activism Murphy argues that literature and other forms of aesthetic production hold out the promise of being able to move some individuals deeply through both affective and intellectual engagement in ways that facilitate ideological reflection To analyze aesthetic production ecocritically requires a transversal orientation in order to work continuously at accommodating a vast array of often seemingly disparate perspectives disciplines and contextual information as well as the ever changing thematic plot setting and contextual elements of the aesthetic works under consideration and the responses of changing audiences through time and across cultures Murphy demonstrates this approach through presenting theories of transversality and applying them with attention to issues of propaganda agitation and persuasion both in terms of artistic production and the criticism of such production He also brings an ecofeminist orientation to the fore with particular attention to the gendered economic aspects of environmental issues in an age of land grabs and plantation economies Along the way he treats a wide range of literary works films and miniseries In American literature he discusses realist and science fiction works from Susan Fenimore Cooper's Rural Hours to Paolo Bacigalupi's The Windup Girl Barbara Kingsolver's Flight Behavior to Kim Stanley Robinson's 2312 and Ana Castillo's So Far from God to Leslie Marmon Silko's Gardens in the Dunes In international literature he analyzes Mo Yan's The Garlic Ballads Jiang Rong's Wolf Totem Michiko Ishimure's The Lake of Heaven Miyuki Miyabe's All She Was Worth and other novels The book concludes with a reading of Ernest Callenbach's Ecotopia and Ecotopia Emerging an Afterword recommending further directions for transversal ecocritical research and interview that discusses Murphy's previous book Transversal Ecocritical Praxis and provides some personal background on the author
