Here Begins the Dark Sea Meredith Francesca Small, 2023-06-06 The remarkable story of the cartographic masterpiece the Venetian mappa mundi that revolutionized how we see the world In 1459 a Venetian monk named Fra Mauro completed an astonishing map of the world Seven feet in diameter Fra Mauro's mappamundi is the oldest and most complete Medieval map to survive into modernity And in its time this groundbreaking mappamundi provided the most detailed description of the known world incorporating accurate observation and geographic reality urging viewers to see water and land as they really existed Fra Mauro's map was the first in history to show that a ship could circumnavigate Africa and that the Indian Sea was in fact an ocean enabling international trade to expand across the globe Acclaimed anthropologist Meredith F Small reveals how Fra Mauro's mappamundi made cartography into a science rather than a practice based on religion and ancient myths Here Begins the Dark Sea brings Fra Mauro's masterpiece to life as a work of art and a window into Venetian society and culture In telling the story of this cornerstone of modern cartography Small takes the reader on a fascinating journey as she explores the human urge to find our way Here Begins the Dark Sea is a riveting testament to the undeniable impact Fra Mauro and his mappamundi have had over the past five centuries and still holds relevance today Hands-On Social Studies for Ontario, Grade 5 Jennifer E. United Kingdom Literacy Association's Author Award 2011 for its contribution to extending children's literacy. Praise for the book: This book is about making readers. A compact summary of its contents would not do it justice. It is the account of a life's work and it deserves thanks and readers. Margaret Meek. Books for Keeps on line. Number 185. November 2010. This book is a cornucopia of varied pleasures offering something for all tastes presented with an awareness of the complexities of the field and communicated with commitment, enthusiasm and deep knowledge. Eve Bearne. English 4. 11. the primary school journal of The English Association. Number 42. Summer 2011. Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3. 11 is a guide to the many kinds of text we want children to encounter, use and enjoy during their nursery and primary school years. So children's non-fiction literature including autobiography, biography, information and reference texts is given equal status with fiction, nursery rhymes, picturebooks, novels, traditional tales, playscripts and poetry. The author addresses important issues and allows the voices of teachers, reviewers and children to be heard. The book supports teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non-fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction. It also contains suggestions for practice which are in the spirit of the more flexible and creative approach to learning towards which primary schools are moving. It includes help on using criteria to select quality texts of all kinds, annotated booklists for each kind of text for different age groups, suggestions for keeping a balance between print and screen-based texts, case studies showing teachers and children using texts in interesting and imaginative ways to support learning in English lessons and across the curriculum, advice on developing children's visual and multimodal literacy, guidance on using the school library and embedding study skills in children's wider purposes and learning, critiques of key theoretical perspectives and research projects. Although the main readership will be primary and student teachers, it is hoped that the book will be of interest and use to anyone concerned with the role of texts in children's learning.

Locusts Are Here Again Avwoghoke Okoro, 2021-02-01. Here is a familiar phenomenon and especially easily understood in any neighbourhood or settlement or small town or certain parts of a city or geographical region where intensively profitable commercial or industrial or mining activities have wrought extensive physical changes alongside transformation of basic values and political bickerings and configuration of social and political alignments. The Locusts are Here Again documents and explores the various hazards, deprivations and sufferings engendered by crude oil exploiting activities in the so-called oil-bearing communities of the Niger Delta of Nigeria. The communities can so far only bear the oil physically but unable to own it economically, socially and politically except the deleterious consequences.
