Reflections on the Evolution of Jewish Mysticism Dr. Martin Sicker,2021-12-05 It has been asserted that monotheism in the Jewish tradition has long been understood both exoterically and esoterically In the exoteric Scripture based rabbinic tradition monotheism is the belief in a one and only God a belief which goes hand in hand with the affirmation of distinct individual and divine existences so that there is a dualism between humanity and God In the esoteric or mystic tradition this dualism is overcome by a conception of monotheism in which God is One not only in his Lordship but also in his universal reality That is God is the only reality so that everything which exists is in essence an aspect of divinity Jewish mysticism has both a devotional or practical and an intellectual or speculative side On its devotional side it emphasizes those aspects of the biblical precepts which serve to promote direct communion between the worshipper and God On its speculative side it is especially concerned with outlining and bringing into relief the link or links between God and man or more generally between the Creator and the universe The focus of this study is on the questions of how and why Jewish mysticism arose and underwent a variegated evolution throughout much of the history of the Jewish people from remote antiquity to the present day

Mysticism, Physics, Polarity and Mother Earth Helmut W. An Introduction to Modern Jewish Philosophy Norbert M. Samuelson,2012-02-01 The book is divided into three sections The first provides a general historical overview for the Jewish thought that follows The second summarizes the variety of basic kinds of popular positive Jewish commitment in the twentieth century The third and major section summarizes the basic thought of those modern Jewish philosophers whose thought is technically the best and or the most influential in Jewish intellectual circles The Jewish philosophers covered include Spinoza Mendelssohn Hermann Cohen Martin Buber Franz

Rosenzweig Mordecai Kaplan and Emil Fackenheim The text includes summaries and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources Apocalyptic and Merkavah Mysticism Ithamar Gruenwald, 2014-08-21 This is a new and revised edition of the book first published 1980 It contains new introductory and concluding chapters as well as a Bibliography and updated Index Furthermore substantial corrections updates and changes have been made in the original text The changes concern matters of language and style they nuance the line of argumentation and they update the discussion of major issues The new chapters fill several scholarly gaps that have opened since the initial publication of this book in 1980 The new Introductory Chapter explores new venues and issues in the study and assessment of the Hekhalot literature and relevant passages in apocalyptic literature and this in light of epistemological and ontological considerations The Concluding Chapter discusses the ritual praxis of the experience of the Hekhalot mystics and its affinity to magic and this in terms of new approaches to ritual theory Spirit: 101 Ramon Lazarus, 2024-03-21 Spirit 101 is a book about growth transformation and healing of the mind body spirit and soul It is a journey from dysfunction and dis ease to wholeness function and peace It covers from awakening to entering one's darkness healing it as one goes through it to embodiment union with God healing grief interpreting scripture of The Bible to being a work in progress and process with Spiritual Healing Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb From Something to Nothing Harry Fox, Daniel Maoz, Tirzah Meacham, 2019-05-24 Jewish mysticism approaches God as no thing or nothing reflecting Judaism's traditional identification of God as incorporeal Whereas technical philosophical language often employed to discuss Jewish mysticism has a tendency to ward off otherwise interested readers this study sufficiently breaks down the technical language of Jewish mysticism in its various expressions to allow a beginner to benefit from what may otherwise be indescribable and only approached by consideration of what is not rather than what is Integral to the title From Something to Nothing is the concept that God cannot be something because that would be restricting so God is simply no thing Ironically the conventional religious expression for the biblical notion of creation is something from nothing whereas the title of this volume is its precise opposite which may at first seem to be illogical creation in reverse However in a volume dedicated to various deliberations on magic and mysticism the ultimate reality may receive expression as nothingness that is no thingness no quality associated with things What adds to our difficulty today is that nothingness is inextricably linked with silence Is silence also an element or indication of an ultimate reality or its absence Or is it merely the reflection of nothing whatsoever This is at the heart of modern debates between atheists and believers Believers feel that even this silence speaks to this ultimate reality whereas atheists claim that if you cannot show it then you do not know it In other words believers are victims of their own wishful thinking From Something to Nothing memorializes Canadian mystic and scholar Zalman Schachter Shalomi's engaging in particular aspects that he addressed at some phase of his colourful and erudite life providing the reader with a broad spectrum of both phenomenological and intellectual topics Phenomenology and Mysticism Anthony J.

Steinbock,2009-12-22 Exploring the first person narratives of three figures from the Christian Jewish and Islamic mystical traditions St Teresa of Avila Rabbi Dov Baer and R zbih n Baql Anthony J Steinbock provides a complete phenomenology of mysticism based in the Abrahamic religious traditions He relates a broad range of religious experiences or verticality to philosophical problems of evidence selfhood and otherness From this philosophical description of vertical experience Steinbock develops a social and cultural critique in terms of idolatry as pride secularism and fundamentalism and suggests that contemporary understandings of human experience must come from a fuller more open view of religious experience

Mysticism in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Ori Z. Soltes,2009 Throughout the ages and across religious traditions people have yearned to personally experience God and deeply connect with the Creator In Mysticism in Judaism Christianity and Islam Ori Z Soltes traces the sweep of mysticism this search for oneness with God throughout the three Abrahamic traditions This unique comparative overview begins with a definition of mysticism and a discussion of its place within religion as a whole Soltes then explores the history of mysticism from Biblical times through the present day highlighting the emergence of mysticism within the three traditions and how beliefs and practices converge and diverge over time The final chapters discuss the growing interest in mysticism today through practices such as Kabbalah and how people publicly express their private encounters with God through art literature and other modern media The Four Elements of an
