Genius in the Garden George C. Longest,1992 Pioneers of American Landscape Design Charles A. Birnbaum,Lisa E. Crowder,1993 Montpelier Transformed: A Monument to James Madison and its Enslaved Community William H. Lewis,2022 By the late 20th century Montpelier the home of James and Dolley Madison had been altered until it would no longer have been recognizable to the couple In 2000 the newly created Montpelier Foundation took over management of the historic home with the seemingly insurmountable task of restoring it to be a visual record of the Madisons era Within ten years the Foundation overcame numerous hurdles turning Montpelier into a monument to the Father of the Constitution Over the next decade the site also became a monument to Montpelier s enslaved The buildings in their community next to the Madisons home were reconstructed and award winning exhibits dramatically illustrate the tragedy of slavery and essential role of enslaved people in Madison s life Foundation co founder William H Lewis details the nonprofit s ambitious preservation projects and remarkable achievements Historic Garden Week in Virginia ,2001 Celebrating Garden Genius ,1992 Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement Judith B. Tankard,2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index ,1993-11 Perspectives on Garden Histories Michel Conan,1999 Garden history is a discipline of contested purposes Perspectives on Garden Histories contributes to a self critical examination of this emergent field of study at the same time offering an overview of its main achievements in several domains such as Italian and Mughal gardens and of the new kinds of investigation to which they have led In its early years garden history centered on architectural studies of garden design but in the 1960s the emphasis shifted from garden design to garden meaning The new paradigm considered gardens as complex works of art and demanded an extensive documentation of the historical context as well as of the figurative and discursive sources This approach in its turn was challenged by neo Marxist scholars who proceeded to view landscape appreciation as an ideological superstructure an outgrowth of agricultural production processes Garden designs and their histories can also be viewed as expressions of ideological conflicts in society Neither gardens nor their history can thus be studied independently of the social cultural and political movements that give prominence to the contested ideologies Gardens can be used to foster some ideologies or reflect a reaction against a social change Comparative research offers another fascinating approach exploring the relations between European landscape concepts and other cultural contexts and discussing issues of cultural dominance and interpretation The emergence of various perspectives has led to the incorporation of further questions into the domain of garden studies which has been moving in new directions and using new methods in search of an adapted theoretical framework This volume offers a striking view of changes taking place in the discipline Journal of the New England Garden History Society ,2000 Landscape Architecture Sourcebook Diana Vogel song,1997 This selective volume contains information that describes key reference material and significant works for the practice and study of landscape architecture Coverage includes reference works general texts and histories landscape architects and architectural firms practical handbooks plant guides core works on places and projects periodicals and institution resources A useful glossary defines key terms important for understanding the structure of the resources and literature for the field of landscape architecture Also includes Subject Index and Author Title Index Virginia Librarian ,1995 Dictionary of Virginia Biography John T.
