Geography: The Study of Location, Culture and Environment John F. Kolars,1974      Geography: the Study of Location, Culture, and Environment John F. Kolars,John D. Nystuen,1974      Field Study for Remote Sensing ,1981

Teacher's Manual for Geography John F. Kolars,John D. Nystuen,1974      ,      Geopub Review of Geographical Literature ,1974      The SAGE Glossary of the Social and Behavioral Sciences Larry E. Sullivan,2009-08-31 Highly accessible A Z of the major terms in the social and behavioural sciences spanning anthropology communication and media studies criminal justice economics education geography human services management political science psychology and sociology      Event Studies Donald Getz,2013-03-12 Many books exist on various aspects of event management reflecting growing academic and professional interest but there has not been a book written on Event Studies until now As the event management field expands there is a growth in demand for advanced texts particularly with a multidisciplinary research and theoretical orientation Event Studies is the first text to embrace this new direction in the field of event management providing Students and practitioners with an explanation of why planned events are important from a social cultural economic and environmental perspective Readers with an understanding of how various disciplines and other professional fields view planned events and the contributions they make to understanding events Research students with a detailed evaluation of research issues and challenges and of methodologies and theories applicable to event studies The bibliography is extensive and numerous research examples are provided Professionals with a tool to expand their knowledge well beyond the art and science of producing events to include the philosophical and scientific foundations of event studies For the event management student and for professionals Event Studies provides the necessary body of knowledge and theoretical methodological underpinnings on the subject of planned events      Field Study for Remote Sensing William H. Wake,Garth A. Hull,1981      Resources in Education ,2000-04      Research in Education ,1971      Contouring Human Development Mukunda Mishra,Soumendu Chatterjee,2020-05-11 This book acquaints readers with a range of techniques to help them effectively identify record map analyze and report on patterns in various dimensions of human development HD with spatial scales down to the village level It is impossible to capture HD at the local and global scale with only a single index because differences in HD at the international scale are caused by general factors whereas local scale differences are influenced by specific factors This book offers a variety of methods for scientifically mapping HD at any spatial scale It covers how to rationally select variables how to test the models how to validate the results and how to analyze them For this purpose it employs a case study on an Indian district The socio economic factors regulating the patterns of HD are now more complex than they were only a few decades ago making it essential to incorporate newer models in order to successfully replicate the real world situation Accordingly the book offers essential methodological tools techniques for mapping HD It sheds new light on a handful of statistical multivariate analysis and machine learning algorithms that are rarely used in the social sciences

when dealing with HD yet have sound mathematical and statistical bases These techniques can be successfully used for predictive analysis in the earth natural sciences decision sciences and management disciplines and are equally effective in terms of capturing predicting and projecting the composite HD landscape This book will especially benefit two groups of readers firstly HD practitioners who want to find out why some areas are doing better than others by exploring the complex interactions of spatially linked variables with different HD parameters And secondly practitioners in other branches of the social sciences who are not concerned with HD but are looking for hands on training with techniques they can apply in their respective field of spatial investigations
