Soul Hunters Rane Willerslev, 2007-08-24 This is an insightful highly original ethnographic interpretation of the hunting life of the Yukaghirs a little known group of indigenous people in the Upper Kolyma region of northeastern Siberia Basing his study on firsthand experience with Yukaghir hunters Rane Willerslev focuses on the practical implications of living in a hall of mirrors world one inhabited by humans animals and spirits all of whom are understood to be endless mimetic doubles of one another

In this world human beings inhabit a betwixt and between state in which their souls are both substance and nonsubstance both body and soul both their own individual selves and reincarnated others Hunters are thus both human and the animals they imitate which forces them to steer a complicated course between the ability to transcend difference and the necessity of maintaining identity     Field & Stream ,1982-10 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations     Seeing the Dead, Talking with Spirits Alexandra Leclere,2005-09-20 Recounts one woman s discovery of her ability to heal through contact with spirits and reveals how others can awaken this same gift in their own lives Explains how reconnecting with our inner sense of joy is the first step in healing Shows how to rid our life of the traumas from the past that hinder our spiritual development including unresolved traumas from past lives Provides a roadmap that others can use for rediscovering their own connections to the spirit world Like many others who have discovered that they have a healing vocation Alexandra Leclere began meeting with other healers and shamans to learn how to put her gift to use At one of these gatherings she was shocked to find that she was the only one who could see the spirit of a deceased woman that was being honored there a sign that marked the beginning of a remarkable adventure that taught her how to use her gift for healing herself and others Despite the extraordinary powers of clairsentience and clairvoyance revealed to her through her work with the spirit world Alexandra Leclere shows that the greatest gift she has received since her shamanic awakening is the ability to experience unconditional joy Often the pain caused by unresolved psychological traumas from the past including past lives is the key obstacle restricting access to the powers offered by the spirits The first step in healing requires reconnecting with the joy that resides within us Once this connection has been established we are all capable of restoring our connection to the spirit world Alexandra Leclere s story provides a roadmap for finding our way back     The Trail of the Seneca James A.
