Ellsworth Kelly In Between Spaces Works:

Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, 2002 Ellsworth Kelly : in-between spaces : works 1956-2002, 2002

Ellsworth Kelly in San Francisco Madeleine Grynsztejn, Ellsworth Kelly, Julian Myers, 2002 An elegant presentation of the most significant collection of the artist's work. It secures Kelly's place as one of the most original and compelling of contemporary American artists. Ellsworth Kelly: Catalogue Raisonné of Paintings and Sculpture Yve-Alain Bois, 2021

Written by Kelly scholar Yve Alain Bois in direct collaboration with the artist's estate, this comprehensive multivolume publication contains exhaustive documentation of each of Kelly's paintings, sculptures, and reliefs. This is volume 2. The catalogue includes insightful texts and high quality images of individual works and preparatory drawings, along with provenance information, exhibition history, and bibliographic information. UNESCO Art Collection Selected works

UNESCO, 2021-11-19 Face to Face Hans-Michael Herzog, Daros Collection (Art), 2008 Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s, the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists. It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke, Barbara Kruger, Alfredo Jaar, and Louise Bourgeois among many others. In 2000, when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established, the museum boldly struck off in a new direction, and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded. Already comprising roughly 1,000 works by around 100 artists, including Carlos Amorales, Jos Bedia, Alfredo Jaar, Gego, Guillermo Kuitca, Vik Muniz, among others, it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe, an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long-term ramifications for contemporary European art. Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together, thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon-oriented perspectives. Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds. Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. La Biennale Di Venezia Robert Storr, 2007 Dragging Away Lex Morgan Lancaster, 2022-08-08 In Dragging Away, Lex Morgan Lancaster traces the formal and material innovations of contemporary queer and feminist artists, showing how they use abstraction as a queering tactic for social and political ends. Through a process Lancaster theorizes as a drag, dragging past aesthetics into the present and reworking them while pulling their work away from direct representation, these artists reimagine midcentury forms of abstraction and expose the violence of the tendency to reduce abstract form to a bodily sign or biographical symbolism. Lancaster outlines how the geometric enamel objects, grid paintings, vibrant color, and expansive installations of artists ranging from Ulrike Moller, Nancy Brooks Brody, and Lorna Simpson to Linda Besemer, Sheila Pepe, and Shinique Smith offer direct challenges to representational and categorical legibility. In so doing, Lancaster demonstrates that abstraction is not apolitical, neutral, or universal; it is a form of social praxis that actively contributes to queer feminist critical race trans and crip politics Serial Drawing Joe Graham,2021-08-26 Serial Drawing offers a timely and rigorous exploration of a relatively little researched art form Serial drawings artworks that are presented as singular works but are made up of distributed parts are studied in fresh contemporary terms with a novel philosophical approach emphasizing both the way in which this unique form of visual art exists in the world and how it is encountered by the beholder Inspired by the quadruple framework of Graham Harman s object oriented ontology Joe Graham explores a variety of serial drawings according to the idea that in being serially arrayed such artworks constitute a rather particular form of art object one which is both unified yet pluralised visible yet withdrawn Examining works by artists such as Alexei Jawlensky Ellsworth Kelly Hanne Darboven Jill Baroff and Stefana McClure Graham interrogates the manner in which serial drawings are able to be appreciated by the viewer who beholds them in object oriented terms This task is carried out by paying attention to the manner in which three tensions space time and seriality emerge for consideration within the beholders performative encounter with the work an encounter which is seen serially and which the medium of drawing specifically directs their attention towards Calder: The Conquest of Space Jed Perl,2020-04-14 The concluding volume to the first biography of one of the most important influential and beloved twentieth century sculptors and one of the greatest artists in the cultural history of America is a vividly written illuminating account of his triumphant later years The second and final volume of this magnificent biography begins during World War II when Calder known to all as Sandy and his wife Louisa opened their home to a stream of artists and writers in exile from Europe In the postwar decades they divided their time between the United States and France as Calder made his first monumental public sculptures and received blockbuster commissions that included Expo 67 in Montreal and the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City Jed Perl makes clear how Calder s radical sculptural imagination shaped the minimalist and kinetic art movements that emerged in the 1960s And we see as well that through everything their ever expanding friendships with artists and writers of all stripes working to end the war in Vietnam hosting riotous dance parties at their Connecticut home seeing the mobile Calder s essential artistic invention find its way into Webster s dictionary Calder and Louisa remained the risk taking singularly bohemian couple they had been since first meeting at the end of the Roaring Twenties The biography ends with Calder s death in 1976 at the age of seventy eight only weeks after an encyclopedic retrospective of his work opened at the Whitney Museum in New York but leaves us with a new clearer understanding of his legacy both as an artist and a man American Art in Asia Michelle Lim,Kyunghee Pyun,2022-05-05 This book challenges existing notions of what is American and or Asian art moving beyond the identity issues that have dominated art world conversations of the 1980s and the 1990s and aligning with new trends and issues in contemporary art today e g the Global South labor environment and gender identity Contributors examine both historical and contemporary instances in art practices and exhibition making under the rubric of American art in Asia The book complicates existing notions of what constitutes American art Asian American and American Asian art As today s production and display of contemporary art takes place across diffused borders under the fluid conditions of a globalized art world since transformed by the COVID 19 pandemic new contexts and art historical narratives are forming that upend traditional Euro American mappings of center margins migratory patterns and community engagement The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history American studies Asian studies and visual culture Semiotica del formato AA.
