Elusive Voice:

Singing the Body Electric: The Human Voice and Sound Technology Miriama Young, 2016-03-03 Singing the Body Electric explores the relationship between the human voice and technology offering startling insights into the ways in which technological mediation affects our understanding of the voice and more generally the human body From the phonograph to magnetic tape and now to digital sampling Miriama Young visits particular musical and literary works that define a century and a half of recorded sound She discusses the way in which the human voice is captured transformed or synthesised through technology This includes the sampled voice the mechanical voice the technologically modified voice the pliable voice of the digital era and the phenomenon by which humans mimic the sounding traits of the machine The book draws from key electro vocal works spanning a range of genres from Luciano Berio's Thema Omaggio a Joyce to Radiohead from Alvin Lucier's I Am Sitting in a Room to Björk and from Pierre Henry's Variations on a Door and a Sigh to Christian Marclay's Maria Callas In essence this book transcends time and musical style to reflect on the way in which the machine transforms our experience of the voice The chapters are interpolated by conversations with five composers who work creatively with the voice and technology Trevor Wishart Katharine Norman Paul Lansky Eduardo Miranda and Bora Yoon This book is an interdisciplinary enterprise that combines music aesthetics and musical analysis with literature and philosophy Voices, Voices, Voices ,

Being Taoist , 2015-03-03 A beautifully clear and accessible explanation of how to live a Taoist life with an overview of Taoist philosophy by a renowned Taoist master Taoism isn't a spiritual extracurricular activity it's an integral practice for living all of life to the fullest Taoist living rests on four pillars the public the domestic the private and the spirit lives Not only do Taoists strive to live these four aspects fully and in a balanced way they also believe there is an outlook and an art to each of them Here modern Taoist adept Eva Wong is your guide to living well according to the wisdom of this ancient system Drawing from ancient Taoist texts she explains in simple terms the Taoist masters approach to the four aspects of life asking readers to reflect on the balance of their own lives and demonstrating how that balance is the secret infusing your life with health harmony and deep satisfaction British Poetry from the 1950s to the 1990s Gary Day, Brian

Docherty, 1997-07-13 This collection looks at the developments in British poetry from the Movement until the present The introduction not only provides a context for these changes but also argues that poetry criticism has been debilitated by the quest for political respectability a trend which can only be reversed by reconsidering the idea of tradition The essays themselves focus on general themes or individual authors Written in a clear and informed manner they provoke the reader into a fresh awareness of the nature of poetry and its relation to society Sketches of the East Africa Campaign Robert Valentine Dolbey, 1918 Sketches of General Smuts campaign of 1916 in German East Africa Introd Tracing the Shadow Sarah Ash, 2008-12-30 Rescuing a starving young orphan girl from the streets a member of the much feared Guerriers of the Comanderie's Inquisition is unaware that the child is the daughter of one of the mages they had just burned at the stake
