Elihu Yale The American Nabob Of Queen:

Elihu Yale, the American Nabob of Queen Square Hiram Bingham, 1968      Elihu Yale Hiram Bingham, 1999      The Alchemy of Empire Rajani Sudan, 2016-06-01 Named Top 6 South Asia studies publications of 2016 by the British Association for South Asian Studies The Alchemy of Empire unravels the non European origins of Enlightenment science Focusing on the abject materials of empire building this study traces the genealogies of substances like mud mortar ice and paper as well as forms of knowledge like inoculation Showing how East India Company employees deployed the paradigm of alchemy in order to make sense of the new worlds they confronted Rajani Sudan argues that the Enlightenment was born largely out of Europe's and Britain's sense of insecurity and inferiority in the early modern world Plumbing the depths of the imperial archive Sudan uncovers the history of the British Enlightenment in the literary artifacts of the long eighteenth century from the correspondence of the East India Company and the papers of the Royal Society to the poetry of Alexander Pope and the novels of Jane Austen      Slave Portraiture in the Atlantic World Agnes Lugo-Ortiz, Angela Rosenthal, 2013-09-30 Slave Portraiture in the Atlantic World is the first book to focus on the individualized portrayal of enslaved people from the time of Europe's full engagement with plantation slavery in the late sixteenth century to its final official abolition in Brazil in 1888 While this period saw the emergence of portraiture as a major field of representation in Western art slave and portraiture as categories appear to be mutually exclusive On the one hand the logic of chattel slavery sought to render the slave's body as an instrument for production as the site of a non subject Portraiture on the contrary privileged the face as the primary visual matrix for the representation of a distinct individuality Essays address this apparent paradox of slave portraits from a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives probing the historical conditions that made the creation of such rare and enigmatic objects possible and exploring their implications for a more complex understanding of power relations under slavery      Cultures of United States Imperialism Amy Kaplan, Donald E. Pease, 1993 Cultures of United States Imperialism represents a major paradigm shift that will remap the field of American Studies Pointing to a glaring blind spot in the basic premises of the study of American culture leading critics and theorists in cultural studies history anthropology and literature reveal the denial of empire at the heart of American Studies Challenging traditional definitions and periodizations of imperialism this volume shows how international relations reciprocally shape a dominant imperial culture at home and how imperial relations are enacted and contested within the United States Drawing on a broad range of interpretive practices these essays range across American history from European representations of the New World to the mass media spectacle of the Persian Gulf War The volume breaks down the boundary between the study of foreign relations and American culture to examine imperialism as an internal process of cultural appropriation and as an external struggle over international power The contributors explore how the politics of continental and international expansion conquest and resistance have shaped the history of American culture just as much as the cultures of those it has dominated

By uncovering the dialectical relationship between American cultures and international relations this collection demonstrates the necessity of analyzing imperialism as a political or economic process inseparable from the social relations and cultural representations of gender race ethnicity and class at home Contributors Lynda Boose Mary Yoko Brannen Bill Brown William Cain Eric Cheyfitz Vicente Diaz Frederick Errington Kevin Gaines Deborah Gewertz Donna Haraway Susan Jeffords Myra Jehlen Amy Kaplan Eric Lott Walter Benn Michaels Donald E Pease Vicente Rafael Michael Rogin Jos David Saldarriaga Richard Slotkin Doris Sommer Gauri Viswanathan Priscilla Wald Kenneth Warren Christopher P Wilson     English Literature, Volume 2 Louis A. Segregation Carl H. Nightingale,2012-05-01 When we think of segregation what often comes to mind is apartheid South Africa or the American South in the age of Jim Crow two societies fundamentally premised on the concept of the separation of the races But as Carl H Nightingale shows us in this magisterial history segregation is everywhere deforming cities and societies worldwide Starting with segregation s ancient roots and what the archaeological evidence reveals about humanity s long standing use of urban divisions to reinforce political and economic inequality Nightingale then moves to the world of European colonialism It was there he shows segregation based on color and eventually on race took hold the British East India Company for example split Calcutta into White Town and Black Town As we follow Nightingale s story around the globe we see that division replicated from Hong Kong to Nairobi Baltimore to San Francisco and more The turn of the twentieth century saw the most aggressive segregation movements yet as white communities almost everywhere set to rearranging whole cities along racial lines Nightingale focuses closely on two striking examples Johannesburg with its state sponsored separation and Chicago in which the goal of segregation was advanced by the more subtle methods of real estate markets and housing policy For the first time ever the majority of humans live in cities and nearly all those cities bear the scars of segregation This unprecedented ambitious history lays bare our troubled past and sets us on the path to imagining the better more equal cities of the future
