Pavarotti Tibbett Terfel and te Kanawa Beyond the Score Nicholas Cook,2013 In Beyond the Score Music as Performance author Nicholas Cook supplants the traditional musicological notion of music as writing asserting instead that it is as performance that music is loved understood and consumed This book reconceives music as an activity through which meaning is generated in real time as Cook rethinks familiar assumptions and develops new approaches Focusing primarily but not exclusively on the Western art tradition Cook explores perspectives that range from close listening to computational analysis from ethnography to the study of recordings and from the social relations constructed through performance to the performing and listening body In doing so he reveals not only that the notion of music as text has hampered academic understanding of music but also that it has inhibited performance practices placing them in a textualist straightjacket Beyond the Score has a strong historical emphasis touching on broad developments in twentieth century performance style and setting them into their larger cultural context Cook also investigates the relationship between recordings and performance arguing that we do not experience recordings as mere reproductions of a performance but as performances in their own right Beyond the Score is a comprehensive exploration of new approaches and methods for the study of music as performance and will be an invaluable addition to the libraries of music scholars including musicologists music theorists and music cognition scholars everywhere People I Made Music with David Tidboald,2011-09-13 Born in England in 1926 in the historic naval port of Plymouth David Tidboald now enjoys his retirement in Simon s Town South Africa s equivalent Improbably enough it was while doing national service in the Royal Navy that he was sent at the end of World War II to Berlin and was there presented with opportunities that led to his career in music In 1960 he was appointed to the first of the three orchestras in South Africa of which he was resident conductor two of which he was instrumental in forming from scratch While occupying these positions as well as during the freelance years that preceded them he worked with many of the greatest musicians singers and dancers of the age From Alicia Markova and Margot Fonteyn to Birgit Nilsson and Anna Russell as conductor and also in the earlier years as pianist This book tells of these fascinating people and also affords glimpses of a life of enviable variety The Rise & Fall of EMI Records Brian Southall,2012-08-13 This is the continuing saga of Britain s greatest music company as it faces an uncertain future under new ownership Since 2009 EMI has broken new acts and sold millions of records BUT the massive debts incurred by its owners Terra Firma have finally taken it to the brink of a break up Music industry experts and executives financiers and commentators plus artists managers assess EMI s fortunes as the company celebrates its 80th birthday Includes interviews with many key players including former EMI Group EMI Music executives Sir Colin Southgate Jim Ffield Eric Nicoli Tony Wadsworth David Munns Rupert Perry Ray Cooper and Jon Webster He has also interviewed many managers music journalists financial analysts and rival record company executives The Metropolitan Opera Guide to Recorded Opera Paul Gruber,1993 A guide to recordings of operas The Grove Book of Opera Singers Laura Williams Macy,2008 Covering over 1500 singers from the birth of opera to the present day this
