literary voice by speaking through the strong southern women who inhabit her novels While concentrating on the places and people she knows well Gibbons has managed to speak for people who struggle to find their own place wherever they are and her books have reached a worldwide audience Whether for students assigned to read Ellen Foster or for lovers of literature this companion the first and only book length study of its kind provides insights and interpretations that will help readers enjoy and better appreciate the novels of Kaye Gibbons Beginning with a biographical chapter this companion shows how Gibbons s own life came to shape her fiction Her place in and contributions to the genre of the southern novel are considered and readers are taken through each of her six novels starting with the highly acclaimed Ellen Foster 1987 and concluding with On the Occasion of My Last Afternoon 1998 For each work lucid analyses of plot character development theme and style are provided along with an alternate critical perspective The select bibliography includes reviews and further information on biographical and critical sources

Women, America, and Movement Susan L. Roberson,1998 Since the colonial days American women have traveled migrated and relocated always faced with the challenge of reconstructing their homes for themselves and their families Women America and Movement offers a journey through largely unexplored territory the experiences of migrating American women These narratives both real and imagined represent a range of personal and critical perspectives some of the women describe their travels as expansive and freeing while others relate the dreadful costs and sacrifices of relocating Despite the range of essays featured in this study the writings all coalesce around the issues of politics poetry and self identity described by Adrienne Rich as the elements of the politics of location treated here as the politics of relocation The narratives featured in this book explore the impact of race class and sexual economics on migratory women their self identity and their roles in family and social life These issues demonstrate that in addition to geographic place ideology is itself a space to be traversed By examining the writings of such women as Louise Erdrich Zora Neale Hurston and Gertrude Stein the essayists included in this volume offer a variety of experiences The book confronts such issues as racist politicking against Native Americans African Americans and Asian immigrants sexist attitudes that limit women to the roles of wife mother and sexual object and exploitation of migrants from Appalachia and of women newly arrived in America These essays also delve into the writings themselves by looking at what happens to narrative structure as authors or their characters cross geographic boundaries The reader sees how women writers negotiate relocation in their texts and how the written word becomes a place where one finds oneself
