Present W. H. Davenport Adams, 2015-06-12 Excerpt from Egypt Past and Present Described and Illustrated With a Narrative of Its Occupation by British and of Recent Events in the Soudan If Egypt presents no other attractions the certainty says Sir Gardner Wilkinson that it is the oldest State of which we have any positive and tangible records must awaken feelings of interest to which no contemplative mind can remain indifferent The most remote point in its annals to which its extant monuments refer us opens with a nation possessing all the arts of civilized life already matured but though stretching so far back into the early history of the world we still find the infancy of the Egyptian State is placed far beyond our reach All we know is that it was far advanced in all those arts and sciences which contribute so greatly to the comfort and adornment of social life that it had a profound creed a consummate polity a fixed government and immense material resources at an

Excerpt from Photographic Views of Egypt Past and Present In the month of January 1853 I found myself afloat upon the Nile Six months before I had left New York in the uncertainty of pulmonary disease to try the benefit of a year of travel in more genial climes The balmy air of Egypt brought healing to my lungs and with this came an almost boyish gush of life so that in the soul as in the outer world it was the Season of Vegetation after the Season of the Waters For three months the light of each morning without clouds pictured in the mind the scenery of the Nile the passing scenes of Egyptian life and the lingering monuments of Egyptian history in lines that can never be effaced and in the abundant leisure of boat life these views were transferred from the mind to paper Each view was taken by the light which itself threw upon the mind photographed by the outward upon the inward and again transferred from the inward to the outward These impressions as taken at the time were laid by for future reference A few have been exhibited to friends in public journals and in lectures and now the whole are bound together in this volume for whoever cares to look at life pictures of a distant land If the picture is gay or grotesque it is because the reality was gay or grotesque if the picture is sombre it is because the reality was sombre About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art
