Edward Boyle His Life:

Edward Boyle Ann Gold,2014-01-14 A biography of Edward Boyle written as a collection of essays by former colleagues and friends The essays are presented in chronological sequence and discuss in detail certain periods and events of his life

A Standard History of Kansas and Kansans ,1919 The Making of the Conservative Party's Immigration Policy Rebecca Partos,2019-05-31 This book explains the development of the Conservative Party's immigration policy during the seven decades since 1945 up to today By bringing together existing theories from the fields of political science and migration studies this book offers a new model of party policy making which could be modified and tested in other contexts Grounded in rigorous scholarship but of interest to general readers as well as specialists and students this book provides a thoughtful and engaging account of the making of modern Britain The book draws on 30 interviews with figures who were at the heart of policy making from Kenneth Clarke and Douglas Hurd to Damian Green and Gavin Barwell to reveal that the national mood often has more impact on policy making than the empirics of the situation This book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers interested in British politics immigration and migration studies Conservative Party politics and more broadly public policy political parties and European and comparative politics Closet Queens Michael Bloch,2015-05-28 Closet Queens is a fascinating study of gay men in twentieth century British politics from Lord Rosebery and Lord Beauchamp in Edwardian times to Michael Portillo and Peter Mandelson in our own era As all homosexual activity was illegal until 1967 and exposure meant ruin and disgrace such men were obliged either to repress their sexual feelings or else lead double lives indulging their tastes secretly while respectably married with children The need to cover up their sexuality while causing problems and disappointments often sharpened their skills as politicians they were masters of secrecy and subterfuge and knew how to take calculated risks An entertaining and insightful account of some extraordinary personalities Closet Queens opens doors into a hidden world The Conservative Party and the Destruction of Selective Education in Post-War Britain Piers Legh,2023-01-26 The book tells the untold story of the Conservative Party's involvement in terms of stance and policy in the destruction of selective state education from 1945 up to the present day Close consideration is paid to their attitudes and prejudices towards education both in power and in opposition Legh examines the Party's responses to the pressure for comprehensive schooling and egalitarianism from the Labour Party and the British left In doing so Legh defies current historiography to demonstrate that the Party were not passive actors in the advancement of comprehensive schooling The lively narrative is moved along by the author's critical examination of the Education Ministers throughout this period Florence Horsbrugh and David Eccles serving under Churchill and Eden and also Quintin Hogg and Geoffrey Lloyd under Macmillan as well as Edward Boyle and Margaret Thatcher under Edward Heath Legh's detailed research utilises a range of government documents personal papers parliamentary debates and newspapers to provide this crucial re assessment of the Conservative Party and selective education and in doing so questions over simplistic generalisations about wholesale support for selective education policy It reveals instead questioning compromises and disagreements within the Party and its political and ideological allies The result is a stimulating revival of existing scholarship which will be of interest to scholars of British education and politics

History of Mendocino and Lake Counties, California Aurelius O. Carpenter, Percy H. Millberry, 1914

Schooling and Social Change 1964-1990 Roy Lowe, 2002-01-04 This is the first book to offer an overview of the ways in which the sweeping social and economic changes of the modern period have impacted on the education system Roy Lowe draws on extensive research to paint a vivid picture of the ways in which schools and universities were moulded by external events and of the part they played in promoting modernisation of society The book explores some key themes the nature of the economic transformations taking place the growing awareness of gender issues the changing ethnic composition of modern Britain the bureaucratisation of society and the rise of a new politics Exploring the links between these issues and educational provision Lowe argues that the growing political significance of educational issues is largely explained by the critical part played by the education system in providing social and economic stability during these years of swift social change Roy Lowe is Professor of Education at the University of Wales Swansea

Azmeary Ferdoush,2025-10-01 Migration and borders are at the center of political debates in South Asia and around the world as more people migrate in search of safety and opportunity This book brings a deep engagement with individuals whose lives are shaped by encounters with borders by telling the stories of a poor Bangladeshi woman who regularly crosses the India border to visit family of Muslims from India living in Gulf countries for work and the harrowing journey of a young Afghan man as he sets off on foot to Germany The international and interdisciplinary work in this book contributes to this moment by analyzing how borders are experienced by migrants and borderlanders in South Asia how mobility and diaspora are engaged in literature and media and how the lives of migrants are transformed during their journey to new homes in South Asia the Middle East North America and Europe

Alan Clark: The Biography Ion Trewin,2009-09-14 The unknown life of Alan Clark celebrated diarist womaniser Tory MP and controversial minister in Mrs Thatcher s governments Celebrated diarist famous womaniser Tory MP and controversial minister a castle owning toff and lecherous cad to some to others a colourful and life enhancing figure Alan Clark was politically incorrect before the term was invented He is best remembered for his sensational diaries but what of the man Alan Clark rarely spoke about his upbringing even to his family Was it as unhappy as he hinted Ion Trewin has had unrestricted access to extensive family papers including twenty years of unpublished diaries He has talked to politicians to those who knew him at the prep school which burnt down to friends at Eton and Oxford and to some of the many women he found impossible to resist despite a loving marriage of forty one years From his struggles to teach himself to write to formidable historian and diarist from his enthusiasm for Margaret Thatcher to the drunk at the Commons dispatch box affair ALAN CLARK THE BIOGRAPHY is a revealing and absorbing account of a remarkable and unforgettable man Journals of the House of Commons of the Kingdom of Ireland Ireland. Parliament. House of Commons,1765 British Labour and Higher Education, 1945 to 2000 Richard Taylor,Tom Steele,2011-06-23 The Solidarity Economy Tehila Sasson,2024-05-28 The untold story of the role of humanitarian NGOs in building the neoliberal order after empire After India gained independence in 1947 Britain reinvented its role in the global economy through nongovernmental aid organizations Utilizing existing imperial networks and colonial bureaucracy the nonprofit sector sought an ethical capitalism one that would equalize relationships between British consumers and Third World producers as the age of empire was ending The Solidarity Economy examines the role of nonstate actors in the major transformations of the world economy in the postwar era showing how British NGOs charted a path to neoliberalism in their pursuit of ethical markets Between the 1950s and 1990s nonprofits sought to establish an alternative to Keynesianism through their welfare and development programs Encouraging the fair trade of commodities and goods through microfinance consumer boycotts and corporate social responsibility these programs emphasized decentralization privatization and entrepreneurship Tehila Sasson tells the stories of the activists economists politicians and businessmen who reimagined the marketplace as a workshop for global reform She reveals how their ideas though commonly associated with conservative neoliberal policies were part of a nonprofit driven endeavor by the liberal left to envision markets as autonomous and humanizing spaces facilitating ethical relationships beyond the impersonal realm of the state Drawing on dozens of newly available repositories from nongovernmental international national and business archives The Solidarity Economy reconstructs the political economy of these markets from handicrafts and sugar to tea and coffee shedding critical light on the postimperial origins of neoliberalism
