Edwin Rickards Timothy Brittain-Catlin,2023-11-01 Edwin Rickards was the most flamboyant of Edwardian architects his buildings were said by John Summerson to fizz like champagne During a short working life launched at the age of 25 by winning the competition to design Cardiff City Hall with his partners H V Lanchester and James Stewart he completed four spectacular baroque buildings Rickards work was unique in Edwardian architecture for his personal combination of French and especially Austrian sources Working closely with H C Fehr and Henry Poole leading practitioners of the New Sculpture he designed two of the major monuments of the period As well as being one of the best freehand draughtsmen in London he was also a prodigious caricaturist With a foot in the demi monde and an endless appetite for architectural and personal adventure Rickards was an unforgettable figure to everyone who met him Illustrated throughout with stunning new photography by Robin Forster and by Rickards own sketches and drawings this book portrays his close friendship with the novelist Arnold Bennett who described him along with H G Wells as one of the two most interesting provocative and stimulating men I have yet encountered and his meteoric career that ended with his early death History, Performance and Conservation Barry Bridgwood, Lindsay Lennie, 2013-09-13 Ideal for students of architectural technology this volume of the Technologies of Architecture series covers the technologies available and the processes necessary for the conservation of existing buildings and environments This book provides in a single text the tools for students to be able to evaluate such buildings as well as an extensive understanding of the mechanisms which cause their deterioration and knowledge of the technologies available to correct their status The ever higher standards set for buildings especially in energy conservation contexts demand that practitioners appreciate how the performance of existing structures can be enhanced which is also covered Considering the work of conservation within a holistic perspective and historical context this book is additionally invaluable for architecture and construction students Yorkshire Nikolaus Pevsner, David Neave, 1995-03-11 This volume sheds light on the pride of the region the great medieval churches of York Minster the Minster and St Mary at Beverley and Holy Trinity Hull but also on less well known architectural pleasures of town and county Outstanding Victorian village churches including masterpieces by Street Pearson are as rewarding as the major country houses of Burton Agnes Burton Constable and Sledmere The countryside offers a wide range of monuments from the beautifully sited ruins of Kirkham Priory to the spectacular Humber Bridge Farmhouses and cottages of the Wolds picturesque estate villages and chapels and industrial structures are all brought into focus A large section is devoted to York and includes a survey of the historic buildings of the city centre from the Roman period onwards This is complemented by a detailed exploration of York's eighteenth and nineteenth century suburbs Equal care has been applied to the descriptions of Beverley with its attractive townscape and the port of Hull where unexpected highlights include seventeenth century merchant houses Georgian almshouses ornate Victorian pubs and grand Edwardian public buildings Library of Congress Subject Headings: A-E Library of Congress.
