The Story of Warrington Bill Cooke, 2020-08-11 Bill Cooke is to be congratulated on his extensive and knowledgeable account of Warrington's history Harry Wells author of Medieval Warrington In 2015 Warrington was named by the Royal Society of Arts as the least culturally alive town in England But was this a fair evaluation In his new book Bill Cooke offers a dramatic reexamination of the town Looking back on its fascinating history dating back to the Romans The Story of Warrington demonstrates an extensive and diverse cultural history Should Warrington apologise for the person who supported Richard III against the Princes in the Tower Why was Warrington thought of as the Athens of the North What role did the town play in the Industrial Revolution and the slave trade How did Warrington help win the Cold War With insights into these questions and more readers are presented with the other side of the argument and learn key facts about the history of this British town P-51B Mustang James William "Bill" Marshall, Lowell F. Ford, 2020-07-09 The story of the P 51B Mustang aircraft from its development prior to the American entry into the war through to D Day in June 1944 During World War II the United States Army Air Corps was led by a cadre of officers who believed implicitly that military aviation particularly fast heavy bombers at high altitude would be able to destroy strategic enemy targets during daylight with minimal losses However by 1942 the Flying Fortress was proving vulnerable to Luftwaffe fighters This title charts the United States Army Air Force's struggle to develop a Long Range Escort which would enable them to achieve the Combined Bomber Objectives and gain mastery of the skies over the Third Reich. The commitment of the USAAF to the Mediterranean and European theatres saw an increasingly desperate need to find a fighter escort which reached crisis point in 1943 as losses suffered in the Tidal Wave offensive and Schweinfurt Regensburg Munster raids emphasised the mounting strength of the Luftwaffe. The USAAF leaders increasingly accepted the probability of bomber losses and the deployment of the P 51B Mustang solved the problem of Germany's layered defence strategy as Luftwaffe fighters had been avoiding the P 47 Thunderbolt and P 38 Lightning escort fighters by concentrating their attacks beyond the range of the Thunderbolt and Lightning. The P 51B duly emerged as the The Bastard Stepchild that the USAAF Material Division did not want becoming the key Long Range Escort fighter alongside the P 38 and P 47 that defeated the Luftwaffe prior to D Day. As well as the P 51B's history this title explores the technical improvements made to each of these fighters as well as the operational leadership and technical development of the Luftwaffe they fought against.

Voices of My Comrades Carol Adele Kelly, 2007. Over the course of five years the Reserve Officers Association of the United States the nation's oldest such professional military organization invited its members to write about their experiences in World War II. The response was an impressive outpouring of memories now compiled here in an extraordinary record of courage sacrifice and commitment. Stories from 240 veterans representing all theaters ranks and services track the years of World War II month by month. From the young ensign's letter to his fiancée describing his escape from the USS Cassin minutes before it explodes at Pearl Harbor to the battle-seasoned colonel's account of his flyover at the peace treaty signing aboard the USS Missouri the stories give a human face to the moments of war written by men and women who intimately lived those history-making days on bombing missions and invasion duty on front lines and the home front. Readers will meet a survivor of the USS Reuben James sunk by a German U boat before December 7 1941 and eight D Day invaders of Normandy including Lieutenant Colonel J Strom Thurmond paratrooper. They will also meet a bodyguard to General Douglas MacArthur and the nurses who healed the fallen in huts on Bataan the hospital ship Shamrock in the Mediterranean and field hospitals in France. Here too are personal accounts by Women Airforce Service Pilots WASPs and the battle-hardened engineers of the Seabees in the Pacific. Other veterans tell of surviving the sinking of the troopship Leopoldville when 750 Americans died in the English Channel on Christmas Eve 1944 the horrific discovery of the Nazi extermination camps and the tragic bombings near war's end of unmarked Japanese ships transporting U S POWs from the Philippines. Featuring photographs a chronology and historical introductions this book thanks to these stories by ordinary soldiers sailors airmen marines and nurses is destined to become an enduring testimony to the American experience in World War II.

8th AF News ,1994 Not Like Home Michael John Law, 2019-08-15. In the decade of economic expansion following the Second World War many ordinary Americans travelled abroad for the first time. Those who visited Britain were surprised to find that the people they encountered were not the aristocrats or working class ciphers they knew from Hollywood movies Britons views of Americans were likewise informed by films and by encounters with the American military during the war Based on over thirty personal accounts of Americans travelling to Britain in the 1950s Not Like Home examines how direct contact influenced the relationships between these two groups and their attitudes towards each other Michael John Law explains that prejudice on both sides was replaced by the realities of direct encounters Painting an evocative portrait of Britain in the 1950s as seen through the eyes of outsiders Law depicts the characteristics and practices of these American visitors and compares them to their caricatures in British newspapers and magazines Going to Britain was a transformative experience for most American visitors providing a link to a shared history and culture In turn their arrival influenced British life by providing a reality check on Hollywood s portrayal of American life and through their demands for higher standards in Britain s hotels restaurants and trains Through an engaging narrative incorporating unpublished reports of American visits to Britain Not Like Home describes the exciting and sometimes confounding mid century encounters between two very different cultures

Miller,2008-04-21 Following World War II the Soviet Union drew an Iron Curtain across Europe crowning its efforts with a blockade of West Berlin in a desperate effort to prevent the creation of an independent democratic West Germany The United States and Great Britain aided by France responded with a daring air logistical operation that in fifteen months delivered almost three million tons of coal food and other necessities to the people of Berlin Now drawing on rare U S Air Force files recently declassified documents from the National Archives records released since the collapse of the Soviet Union and the memories of airlift veterans themselves Roger G Miller provides an original study of the Berlin Airlift The Berlin Airlift was an enterprise of epic proportions that demonstrated the power of air logistics as a political instrument What began as a hastily organized operation by a small number of warweary cargo airplanes evolved into an intricate bridge of aircraft that flowed in and out of Berlin through narrow air corridors Hour after hour day after day week after week a stream of airplanes delivered everything from food and medicine to coal and candy in defiance of breakdowns inclement weather and Soviet hostility And beyond the airlift itself a complex system of transportation maintenance and supply stretching around the world sustained operations Historians veterans and general readers will welcome this history of the first Western victory of the Cold War Maps diagrams and more than forty photographs illustrate the mechanical inner workings and the human faces that made that triumph possible

World War II US Gunships William Wolf,2020-11-26 The XB 40 and XB 41 were secret little known experimental modifications of the B 17F and B 24D respectively into heavily armed bomber gunships sometimes referred to as bomber escorts They were developed during early World War II in response to the lack of a USAAF long range fighter aircraft able to escort and protect regular B 17 formations making the round trip from Britain deep into Germany Using many formerly classified documents from his large microfilm collection William Wolf presents their previously unpublished history It describes in depth for the first time the politics and development and associated problems of both escorter types Unfortunately these protecters were found wanting in several ways after the addition of guns and ammunition they became overweight and tail heavy causing center of gravity problems and each encountered numerous delays in the development and delivery of their various armament additions and improvements particularly the Bendix chin turret In the end the YB 40 participated in only 14 lackluster operational service test missions during mid 1943 before being withdrawn from service The XB 41 Liberator never saw operational testing before also being cancelled for its poor performance The failure of the gunship concept left a huge hole in the capabilities of the Eighth Air Force Their failure however spurred the adoption of the Merlin powered P 51 Mustang the outstanding escort fighter that was key to Allied victory in the air war over Europe
