The Craft of Thought first published in 1998 is a companion to Mary Carruthers earlier study of memory in medieval culture
The Book of Memory This more recent volume examines medieval monastic meditation as a discipline for making thoughts and discusses its influence on literature art and architecture In a process akin to today s creative thinking or cognition this discipline recognises the essential roles of imagination and emotion in meditation Deriving examples from a variety of late antique and medieval sources with excursions into modern architectural memorials this study emphasises meditation as an act of literary composition or invention the techniques of which notably involved both words and making mental pictures for

Adopting the Song of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Eileen Georges Conversations In Heaven

In a world used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the prepared term frequently diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Eileen Georges Conversations In Heaven a stunning literary treasure overflowing with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of the moving examination, we will explore the book's main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
