Fry: Plays One Christopher Fry, 2007-10-15 Includes the plays The Lady's Not for Burning, A Yard of Sun and Siege. In this volume of Christopher Fry's original stage work his most famous play The Lady's Not for Burning, Spring in his set of Seasonal Plays is joined by the Summer play A Yard of Sun written in the mid 1930s. Celebrated for the sensuousness and joyous wit of its language The Lady's Not for Burning is a key play in the revival of verse drama in the 1940s and the scale of its success made Fry one of the most famous playwrights of his day. A Yard of Sun Fry's last full length stage play is set in Siena just after the end of World War Two. Without ignoring the struggles and privations of war the play is funny, touching and ultimately optimistic. Based on the medieval story of Aucassin and Nicolette and conceived as a form of pageant Siege with its mixing of verse and prose, sprawling structure, employment of different speech patterns and deliberately contemporary touches gives a unique insight into Fry's development as a stage craftsman.

Enid Yandell Juilee Decker, 2019-10-15 Louisville born and nationally renowned sculptor Enid Yandell 1869-1934 was ahead of her time. She began her career when sculpture was considered too physical, too messy and too masculine for women. Yandell challenged the gender norms of early twentieth century artistic practice and became an award winning sculptor, independent artist and activist for women's suffrage. This study examines Yandell's life and work, how she grew from a young Southern dilettante, the daughter of a Confederate medical officer, into a mature, gifted artist who ran in circles with more established male artists in New York and Paris such as Frederick MacMonnies and Auguste Rodin. At the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893 she was one of a select group of women sculptors known as the White Rabbits who sculpted the statues and architectural embellishments of the fair. As a result of her success in Chicago Yandell was commissioned to create a twenty-five foot figure of Pallas Athena for Nashville's Centennial Exposition in 1897. Newspapers hailed it as the largest statue ever created by a woman. Yandell's command of classical subject matter was matched by her abilities with large-scale figurative works such as the Daniel Boone statue in Cherokee Park, Louisville. In 1898 Yandell was among the first women to be selected for membership in the National Sculpture Society the first organization of professional sculptors formed in the United States Presented to coincide with the 150th anniversary of her birth this study demonstrates the ways in which Yandell was a pioneer and draws attention to her legacy
