Hearing And Keeping Remembering My Matrilineal Roots:

Hearing and Keeping--Remembering My Matrilineal Roots Charlotte Anokwa, 2005-06 It's uncommon to come across a book that offers such a wealth of information on all aspects of life in Ghana traditional rural life assimilating colonization and mission education In Hearing and Keeping Remembering My Matrilineal Roots author Charlotte Anokwa shares the experiences that helped to mold her into the person she is today She introduces the people and institutions that have influenced and continue to influence her life she shares memories of her childhood and upbringing she describes traditional environments including forests and foods and she explains the use of the Twi language in the legendary Ananse stories for children and Akan proverbs She writes I was blessed enough to be born the last of eight into a family a community and a people in rural Ghana with so much history culture talent and skills as well as spiritual connectedness that sharing and acknowledging one's blessings came naturally I can only go peacefully to my grave if I carry on the tradition and share my experiences with those around me and those who would be interested in knowing Through Hearing and Keeping Remembering My Matrilineal Roots Anokwa provides an easy to read reference for the young generation of people of African descent growing up abroad and inquiring non Africans alike Ghana and Its people, The People of Ghana Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2017-07-01 This is a general survey of Ghana and its people Subjects covered include the country's regions and their people Ghana's identity as a nation and how it faced challenges to national unity during the struggle for independence the nature of the post colonial state the asymmetrical relationship between the north and the south rooted in the colonial era a structural imbalance which continues to have a negative impact on the wellbeing of northerners and which could perpetuate inequalities between the two parts of the country Ghana's place in the Pan African world because of the leadership provided by the country's first prime minister later president Kwame Nkrumah and its success in forging unity on the anvil of diversity Among the people the author has covered include an African American community whose members were given some land in the Volta Region in the eastern part of the country for permanent settlement of the descendants of African slaves who want to return to the motherland He describes it as a distinct ethnic group with the same attributes indigenous groups have and which they use to identify themselves as ethnic entities The community has acquired an identity of its own and qualifies as an ethnic group because its members have a common history language and culture as diasporans who lost their African identity under white domination in the United States and were forced to adopt a Euro American culture and the English language The author was closely associated with the founders of the African American community in Ghana known as Fihankra when he was a student in the United States and has written about them in some of his works including his autobiography My Life as an African Members of the general public and students may find this work to be useful if they want to learn some facts about Ghana the first country in sub Saharan Africa to win independence Odagahodhes Gae Ho Hwako Norma Jacobs, The Circles of Odagahodhes, 2022-07-15 In the words of Cayuga Elder Gae Ho Hwako Norma Jacobs

We have forgotten about that sacred meeting space between the Settler ship and the Indigenous canoe odagahodhes where we originally agreed on the Two Row and where today we need to return to talk about the impacts of its violation Odagahodhes highlights the Indigenous values that brought us to the sacred meeting place in the original treaties of Turtle Island particularly the Two Row Wampum and the sharing process that was meant to foster good relations from the beginning of the colonial era The book follows a series of Indigenous sharing circles relaying teachings by Gae Ho Hwako and the responses of participants scholars authors and community activists who bring their diverse experiences and knowledge into reflective relation with the teachings Through this practice the book itself resembles a teaching circle and illustrates the important ways tradition and culture are passed down by Elders and Knowledge Keepers The aim of this process is to bring clarity to the challenges of truth and reconciliation Each circle ends by inviting the reader into this sacred space of Odagahodhes to reflect on personal experiences stories knowledge gifts and responsibilities By renewing our place in the network of spiritual obligations of these lands Odagahodhes invites transformations in how we live to enrich our communities nations planet and future generations Long-term Care for the Indian Elderly United States.
