Heart Of Conflict A Spirituality Of Transformation:

The Spirit of Dialogue Aaron T. Wolf, 2017-09-14 Over more than twenty years as a mediator Aaron T Wolf has learned that successful conflict resolution is shaped by complicated dynamics from how comfortable the meeting room is to the participants deepest senses of self Bridging seemingly intractable issues means addressing multiple layers of needs Wolf's approach may be surprising to Westerners who are accustomed to separating rationality from spirituality and science from religion The Spirit of Dialogue draws lessons from a diversity of faith traditions to transform conflict from identifying the root cause of anger to aligning with an energy beyond oneself what Christians call grace to the true listening practiced by Buddhist monks Whether atheist or fundamentalist Muslim or Jewish Quaker or Hindu any reader involved in difficult dialogue will find concrete steps towards a meeting of souls The Heart of Conflict Elinor D. U. Powell, 2003 We are all spiritual beings Our spirituality is an inborn part of our nature the essence of who we are as aware and intuitive human beings Having an appreciation of the spiritual in our lives allows us to explore the deepest layer of our being for ourselves for our relationships with each other and for the world beyond In The Heart of Conflict Dr Elinor Powell takes a fresh look at conflict and then suggests that it is our spirit that is put to the test and most clearly manifested when we are faced with any challenge in our lives

Science and Beyond Rolf Sattler, 2021-06-22 Science coupled with technology has become the dominant force in most parts of the world Thus it affects our lives and society in many ways Yet misconceptions about science are widespread in governments the general public and even among many scientists Science and Beyond explores these misconceptions that may have grave and even disastrous consequences for individuals and society as was evident during the COVID 19 pandemic where they led to much unnecessary suffering sickness and death The misconceptions also obscure the limitations of science Not seeing these limitations prevents us from seeing and going beyond them which leads to a crippled life and an impoverished society But reaching beyond the limitations of science as outlined in this book can open the doors to a more fulfilled saner healthier happier and more peaceful life and society Peace Magazine, 2004 Urgings of the Heart Wilkie Au, Noreen Cannon, 1995 Using stories and images the authors blend the best of spirituality and psychology to help the reader live in peace with self others and God

The Complex Reality of Religious Peacebuilding Katrien Hertog, 2010-08-20 This insightful book focuses on the multifaceted subject of sustainable religious peacebuilding Katrien Hertog discusses the ways in which religious actors can utilize resources to prevent violent conflict from occurring reduce conflict when it does happen and rebuild bridges between sides in after conflict has ceased She examines the emergence of the field of religious peacebuilding developing a conceptual framework that outlines how aspects of religious organizations can contribute to effectual peacebuilding and creating a screening model that allows readers to analyze the resources and obstacles to peacebuilding in depth Using the Russia and the Orthodox Church as a major case study Hertog clearly shows what the concrete resources for peace are how they are applied what obstacles are hindering their realization and how these resources can be better utilized and supported This book tackles the controversial issue of the place of religion and religious organizations in the peace process While recognizing that no simple answer exists in solving ethnic religious and tribal conflict Hertog presents the ways religion can be used to create lasting sustainable peace Choosing Authenticity Richard N Southworth Ma, Richard Southworth, 2011-04-07 Religion is not enough Culture is not enough Both religion and culture are important even crucial to living a full life but they are not enough Choosing authenticity is the only thing that is enough Our deepest desire is for our active lives to actually become more and more an authentic expression of who we are and who we are called to be by that Mysterious Other we call God We long for a No BS Spirituality that changes the way we actually experience and live our lives We need spiritual practice that facilitates that growth and transformation and conversion of heart It is my prayer that these reflections will respond to that longing Read reflect and enjoy A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace Jolyon Mitchell, Suzanna R. Millar, Francesca Po, Martyn Percy, 2022-08-02 Incisive contributions from leading and emerging scholars in the field of Peace Studies In the Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace a team of renowned scholars delivers an authoritative and interdisciplinary sourcebook that addresses the key concepts history theories models resources and practices in the complex and ambivalent relationship between religion and peace The editors have included contributions from a wide range of perspectives and locations that reflect diverse methods and approaches The Companion provides a collection grounded in experience and context that draws on established developing and new research characterized by academic rigor The differences between the approaches taken by several religious traditions are fully explored and numerous case studies highlight relevant theories models and resources Accessible as either a standalone collection or as a partner to the Companion to Religion and Violence this edited volume also offers A thorough introduction to religion and its search for peace including the relationships between religion and peace and theories and practices for studying the interplay between religion and peace Comprehensive explorations of religion and peace in local contexts including discussions of women s empowerment and peacebuilding in an Islamic context Practical discussions of practices and embodiments of religion and peace including treatments of museums for peace and self religion in global peace movements In depth examinations of lived Christian theologies and building peace including discussions of Martin Luther King Jr and spiritual activism in Scotland Perfect for students and scholars of peacemaking peacekeeping and peace building the Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace will also earn a place in the libraries of anyone professionally or personally interested in the field of Peace or Religious Studies International Relations History Politics or Theology A Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace Fernando Enns, Nina Schroeder-van 't Schip, Andres Pacheco-Lozano, 2023-04-05 This edited volume includes contributions by scholars ministers artists and NGO workers from around the world who are interested in topics of Mennonitism peacebuilding and theologies of nonviolence The papers published together here reflect the richness and diversity of peacebuilding interests and approaches within the current global Mennonite family and offer interdisciplinary explorations of peace and conflict with attention to historical theological and lived perspectives The book includes papers based upon research and insights that were shared at the Second Global Mennonite Peacebuilding Conference and Festival 2019 at Mennorode in the Netherlands The findings presented here are structured thematically with attention to key points of current concern and research including among others studies on historical and current peacebuilding efforts pertaining to migration and refugee care ecological justice gender justice interreligious dialogue church state relations and racial justice

The Highest of All Mountains Samuel K. Sarpiya, 2021-03-18 This book is for people who believe that the gospel is a message of peace and this gospel of peace is relevant for our time Peacemaking is a core part of our Christian discipleship just as we learn how to pray just as we learn how to love our neighbors just as we learn how to feed the hungry We can also learn how to be peacemakers Sarpiya believes that peacemaking is central to the Christian faith and practice This book will serve as a guide that will offer a scriptural guide with practical stories and applications Readers will be challenged by Scripture to take the call to peacemaking into their communities The fact that numerous peace treaties have collapsed serves to show how difficult it is to transcend cycles of violence and foster a sustained durable peace The one place that one could look to for answers about how to move toward peace is within faith communities and sometimes not just one faith acting alone but working alongside other faiths in concert with other faiths taking an interreligious approach The Highest of All Mountains shows how Sarpiya's Christian peacemaking backed by the interreligious approach brings the monotheistic faiths together as they all agreed on one denominator to their faith's origin Abraham

Religion and Public Policy Sumner B. Twiss, Marian Gh. Simion, Rodney L. Petersen, 2015-02-26 Examines human rights in relation to religion and the role of religion in perennial issues of war and peace

Religion and Peacebuilding Harold Coward, Gordon S. Smith, 2012-02-01 In the wake of September 11 2001 religion is often seen as the motivating force behind terrorism and other acts of violence Religion and Peacebuilding looks beyond headlines concerning violence perpetrated in the name of religion to examine how world religions have also inspired social welfare and peacemaking activism Leading scholars from the Aboriginal Hindu Buddhist Confucian Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions provide detailed analyses of the spiritual resources for fostering peace within their respective religions The contributors discuss the formidable obstacles to nonviolent conflict transformation found within sacred texts and living traditions Case studies of Northern Ireland Bosnia Cambodia and South Africa are also examined as practical applications of spiritual resources for peace

The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Basil Ugorji, René Lemarchand, Ph.D., Jamie L. Hurst, Zarrín Caldwell, Erna Anjarwati, Allison Trimble, Lanhe S. Shan, David Silvera, Ph.D., 2014-09-18 Welcome to the first edition of the International Center for Ethno Religious Mediation's Journal of Living Together We were surprised and delighted to receive so many outstanding submissions and see the resounding response to our very first call for papers as an appreciable indication of the connection

people feel to our mission and our community Through this journal it is our intention to inform inspire reveal and explore the intricate and complex nature of human interaction in the context of ethno religious identity and the roles it plays in war and peace By sharing theories observations and valuable experiences we mean to open a broader more inclusive dialogue between policymakers academics researchers religious leaders representatives of ethnic groups and indigenous peoples and field practitioners around the world Lasting peace stems from changes in thinking about what it is to be a part of the human family who we are to one another and what mutual obligations and responsibilities exist between us It requires us to accept that we are each a resource an advantage an asset to the whole It hinges on our ultimate acceptance of cultural identity history faith and tradition as simply vivid aspects of our overarching human kinship The belief based perspectives that influence these patterns of being however are among the most deeply ingrained of all individual and social mechanisms Any efforts to reshape them are highly ambitious and fraught with seemingly insurmountable obstacles Yet cultures and their societies are not static and their adaptive nature requires that even within the most intractable of conflicts there will be change how they change will depend upon shifts in the environment changes in human experience and the availability of new information with which to make different choices The theme of this issue The Role of Religion and Ethnicity in Contemporary Conflict Related Emerging Tactics Strategies and Methodologies of Mediation and Resolution looks at ways to influence these changes improve interethnic and interfaith experiences and offers information which can enlighten social discourse and reveal the possibility of previously unforeseen choices We begin with Words from the Board where Dr David Silvera explains that mediation is at the very heart of democratic thought lays out the value of mediation as a vital aspect of adult education in his commentary Education for Democratic Citizenship and Intercultural Conflicts by Mediation Dr Ren Lemarchand s cautionary discussion regarding the risks involved in mankind s willingness and even propensity to ignore some of history s worst atrocities follows in his article Remembering Forgotten Genocides Jamie L Hurst s paper Holy Conflict the Intersection of Religion and Mediation explores the junction where religion and mediation meet focusing on the unique challenges and opportunities this crossroads brings to bear In her piece Identity Reconsidered Zarr n Caldwell describes the cost of narrowly construed identity formations and puts forward the idea that the teachings of the Bah Faith on nested identities might offer some new ways of approaching peacebuilding Similarly in their work Storytelling as a Means for Peace Education Intercultural Dialogue in Southern Thailand Erna Anjarwati Allison Trimble describe their research conducting peace storytelling as a means to encourage social reconciliation between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims youth And finally Lanhe S Shan presents an in depth assessment of the long term outcomes following the implementation of unfortunate conflict mitigation strategies and offers suggestions for improved results in Analysis of Tito s Policies on Ethnic Conflict the Case of Kosovo This journal is not meant to be a bastion of declarative wisdom rather it is intended to be a conduit a medium for vibrant exchange and discussion of its contents is vital to its purpose We want your input your ideas your thoughts and your insights You will find plenty to discuss every quarter in the articles book reviews Living Together Movement updates social media buzz and Photos from the Field here and in the issues ahead

Oppression and Resistance in Africa and the Diaspora Kenneth Kalu, Toyin Falola, 2019-01-04 Africa's modern history is replete with different forms of encounters and conflicts From the fifteenth century when millions of Africans were forcefully taken away as slaves during the infamous Atlantic slave trade to the colonial conquests of the nineteenth century where European countries conquered and subsequently balkanized Africa and shared the continent to European powers and to the postcolonial era where many African leaders have maintained several instruments of exploitation the continent has seen different forms of encounters exploitations and oppressions These encounters and exploitations have equally been met with resistance in different forms and at different times The mode of Africa's encounters with the rest of the world have in several ways shaped and continue to shape the continent's social political and economic development trajectories Essays in this volume have addressed different aspects of these phases of encounters and resistance by Africa and the African Diaspora While the volume documents different phases of oppression and conflict it also contains some accounts of Africa's resistance to external and internal oppressions and exploitations From the physical guerilla resistance of the Mau Mau group against British colonial exploitation in Kenya and its aftermath to efforts of the Kayble group to preserve their language and culture in modern Algeria and from the innovative ways in which the Tuareg are using guitar and music as forms of expression and resistance to the modern ways in which contemporary African immigrants in North America are coping with oppressive structures and racism the chapters in this volume have examined different phases of oppressions and suppressions of Africa and its people as well as acts of resistance put up by Africans
