Stories of Therapy, Stories of Faith Lex McMillan, Sarah Penwarden, Siobhan

Hunt,2017-03-28 Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith is a collection of stories from therapists who have amplified the theology already present in their work In particular these authors a group of counseling practitioners and educators bring forward a dialogue between their practices and a social Trinitarian theology that emphasizes the relational nature of God and humans The resulting stories of practice give voice to the ethical hope that counseling practice is participation in the redemptive story of the Gospel The authors write about their motivations for practice in initiatives as diverse as parenting trauma work opposing bullying in schools reengaging orphaned African children with their heritage providing hospitality for difference and counselor education Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith will be of interest to counselors and counselor educators particularly those drawn to developing their ethical and theological commitments within their therapeutic practices

Change Jeffrey A. Kottler,2013-10-01 What causes human beings to make a significant change in their lives a transformative shift in thinking and actions This fundamental question has preoccupied philosophers priests politicians authors and scholars for centuries Today psychologists and therapists who sit with clients session after session have a unique window into the human psyche watching the rhythms of change unfold in front of them every day and yet the process remains a mystery Research has shown that even in cases of unqualified success the client and the therapist often have wildly different views on what made it work Taking that as his starting point Jeffrey Kottler leads the reader on an exploration of human behavior seeking to find out what it is that really makes a difference that can lead to transformative and lasting change
