Heart Of The Mountains:

Heart of the Mountains Betty Brooks, 1991      The Eagles of Heart Mountain Bradford Pearson, 2021-01-05 One of Ten Best History Books of 2021 Smithsonian Magazine For fans of The Boys in the Boat and The Storm on Our Shores this impeccably researched deeply moving never before told tale that ultimately stands as a testament to the resilience of the human spirit Garrett M Graff New York Times bestselling author about a World War II incarceration camp in Wyoming and its extraordinary high school football team In the spring of 1942 the United States government forced 120 000 Japanese Americans from their homes in California Oregon Washington and Arizona and sent them to incarceration camps across the West Nearly 14 000 of them landed on the outskirts of Cody Wyoming at the base of Heart Mountain Behind barbed wire fences they faced racism cruelty and frozen winters Trying to recreate comforts from home they established Buddhist temples and sumo wrestling pits Kabuki performances drew hundreds of spectators yet there was little hope That is until the fall of 1943 when the camp's high school football team the Eagles started its first season and finished it undefeated crushing the competition from nearby predominantly white high schools Amid all this excitement American politics continued to disrupt their lives as the federal government drafted men from the camps for the front lines including some of the Eagles As the team's second season kicked off the young men faced a choice to either join the Army or resist the draft Teammates were divided and some were jailed for their decisions The Eagles of Heart Mountain honors the resilience of extraordinary heroes and the power of sports in a timely and utterly absorbing account of a country losing its moral way and a group of its young citizens who never did Evan Ratliff author of The Mastermind      In the Heart of the Bitter-Root Mountains Abraham Lincoln Artman Himmelwright, 1894      The Heart Mountain Detachment Fault: A Critical Reappraisal Albert J. Warner, Thomas M. Bown, 2025-02-10 The Heart Mountain Detachment Fault HMDF is an immense geologic structure in northwest Wyoming that as defined prior to this study extends from just inside the northeast entrance of Yellowstone National Park to areas southwest and northeast of Cody WY This enigmatic structure has puzzled geologists for more than 100 years The consensus is that a massive slab of limestones and dolomites 320 485 million years old broke away from an outcrop near Silver Gate MT about 49 million years ago and slid nearly 75 miles to the southeast at speeds of nearly 100 mph to more than 700 mph and broke up into several giant blocks up to five miles in diameter Heart Mountain north of Cody WY the namesake for this displacement is where some of its geologic relationships were first recognized over 125 years ago Our research demonstrates that all of the geologic features attributed to the single event HMDF are instead the result of two geologic events separated in time by more than 47 million years The first we term the Shoshone Sunlight Abiathar Detachment Fault SSADF that occurred 49.5 million years ago and the second we call the Heart Mountain McCullough Peaks Sturzstrom HMMPs that occurred 2.08 million years ago A sturzstrom is a huge landslide that travels a great horizontal distance Both massive displacements were instigated by violent tectonic processes The SSADF was triggered by a powerful megathrust earthquake initiated by plate tectonic movements and followed by extensive volcanism whereas the HMMPS was caused by a gigantic super eruption of a volcano in what is present day Yellowstone National Park      Colorado and Adjacent Areas David R. Lageson, Alan Lester, Bruce Trudgill, 1999-01-01      The Heart of the Antarctic Sir Ernest Henry Shackleton, 1909

annotated complete translation of a key source text on Kory fills this gap Xu Jing spent a little more than a month in the Kory capital Kaes ng but he was a meticulous chronicler compiling a veritable handbook on Kory that is full of fascinating details found nowhere else on daily life history customs and manners buildings the military food among others However Xu Jing was not unbiased in his observations and supplemented his work with unreliable information from earlier chronicles a fact often ignored in previous studies of the Illustrated Account In a substantial introduction to his translation Sem Vermeersch not only places this important work in its historical context but also reveals both the sources used by the author and the merits and limits of his observations allowing historians of medieval Korea to make fuller use of this singular primary source
