The Anglican Imagination Robert Boak Slocum, 2016-03-03 The variety and depth of Anglican theology is best engaged through personal encounter with its many sources the theologians and theological witnesses themselves Anglican theology is often worked out in personal terms that provide a synthesis between reflection on the truths of faith and the particular contexts of culture and life This book presents modern Anglican theology through a unique gallery This theological gallery includes a portrait or sketch of ten Anglican writers DuBose Farrer Stringfellow Brooks Kemper DeKoven McCord Adams Polkinghorne Gore and Macquarrie Theological description interpretation and application are included for each with the presentations differing as widely as the theologians and theological witnesses themselves Drawing together understandings and experiences of faith this will be an invaluable resource for students of Anglican theology and anyone who seeks to understand the distinctive perspectives and contributions of Anglicanism relative to living faith and daily life      A Light in a Burning-Glass Robert Boak Slocum,2019-09-27 A Light in a Burning Glass introduces readers to the distinctive synthesis of theological reflection and everyday faith that characterizes the life and theology of Austin Farrer 1904 1968 a man widely considered to be the most important Anglican theologian of the twentieth century Often quoted for isolated insights but rarely appreciated for his depth and coherency Farrer is a theologian who according to Robert Boak Slocum is fascinating to consider but difficult to master In this survey and explanation of the Anglican leader s prodigious output and complexity of thought Slocum sorts through Farrer s many writings to articulate his theological vision Slocum delves into Farrer s treatises essays lectures correspondence and reviews in an exploration of his three primary areas of theological concern pastoral biblical and philosophical Noting that few theologians have published so many significant works in such varied areas of theological study Slocum maps the connectedness of thought that unites Farrer s works Slocum moves from a basic study of Farrer s background and methodology to a consideration of his major themes Christian hope the problem of evil the role of image and imagination in Christian faith the use of literary methods in the interpretation of theology and the interplay of divine action and human freedom in the Christian life      Kingdom Come Matthew K. Thompson,2019-05-21 In his Pentecostal Spirituality A Passion for the Kingdom 1993 theologian Steven J Land issued a clarion call for Pentecostal theologians to reconsider eschatology outside the categories of premillennial dispensationalism Kingdom Come Revisioning Pentecostal Eschatology is Matthew Thompson s constructive answer to Land s invitation Thompson persuasively argues that Pentecostalism s adoption of premillennial dispensationalism as a hermeneutic as a philosophy of history and as an eschatology robs the movement of the potential for dynamic growth and of profound experiences of the power of the Holy Spirit Thompson concludes his account with an engagement of the eschatologies of John Fletcher J rgen Moltmann and Sergius Bulgakov in order to construct what he terms a genuinely Pentecostal eschatology formulated thematically through the lens of the five fold Pentecostal Full Gospel      Joy to the World! Robert Boak Slocum,2025-09-02 An uplifting devotional for those seeking comfort and hope during the seasons of Advent Christmas and Epiphany In this beautifully designed devotional priest Robert Slocum offers heartwarming devotions for the seasons of Advent Christmas and Epiphany From the miraculous conception of Jesus to the visit of the Magi Joy to the World explores the wonders of the God s coming into the world and how we can embrace the Incarnation in our everyday life even 2 000 years after Jesus s birth Each devotion comes bolstered with uplifting passages from scripture thought provoking questions and soulful prayers to help us as we contemplate God s steadfast presence and love in our lives      It is the Spirit Who Gives Life Radu Bordeianu,2022-04-22 Who is the Holy Spirit What is the Holy Spirit The answers to these questions were so obvious in the first centuries of Christian history that the New Testament and the earliest Christian writers did not feel the need to deliberately address the identity of the Spirit The more stringent question was this what does the Spirit do in the Hebrew Scriptures in the life of Jesus in the community of disciples in the Church and in the world These same questions however did not have the same obvious answers to subsequent generations Writing in the fourth century Gregory of Nazianzus observed a slow progress of better understanding the identity and mission of the Holy Spirit throughout the centuries his opponents still referred to the Spirit as a strange unscriptural and interpolated God Or 31 One would expect that today centuries later pneumatology would be exponentially further developed than in the patristic era And yet contemporary theology only rarely asks who the Spirit is and what the Spirit does That is where the present volume attempts to bring a contribution by addressing early Pneumatologies reflected in the Scriptures and the age of the martyrs historical developments in patristic literature and spiritual writings and contemporary pneumatological themes as they relate to ecumenism ecology science ecclesiology and missions The present volume gathers essays authored by eleven world renowned theologians Each contribution originated as a public lecture addressed to theologians and an educated general audience followed by a private colloquium in which the lecturers conferred with scholars who are experts in the field Thus the present volume offers a multifaceted approach to Pneumatology in an ecumenical spirit Eschatology and Hope Anthony Kelly ,2006     A Future Full of Hope? Gemma Simmonds,2013 Are we looking at the imminent death of religious life in the church at a future full of hope or at something in between This book based on papers given at a colloquium run by the Religious Life Institute Heythrop College University of London addresses urgent questions around the renewal and survival of religious life from a British and Irish religious and lay perspective Who is looking at religious vocation today What are they seeking and what are they finding With a foreword by former Dominican Master General Timothy Radcliffe leading authors on religious life with lay and religious colleagues explore these questions and propose answers in a book offering material for group and personal reflection Provided by publisher     The Christian's Future Assured George Henry Atkinson, 1878     The Future of Hope Miroslav Volf, William Henry Katerberg, 2004 Over the last three decades a major cultural shift has taken place in the attitudes of Western societies toward the future Modernity's eclipse by postmodernity is characterized in large part by the loss of hope for a future substantially better than the present Old optimism about human progress has given way to uncertainty and fear In this book scholars from various disciplines theology the social sciences and the humanities explore the move from a culture of optimism to a culture of ambiguity and they seek to infuse today's jaded language of hope with a new vitality The Future of Hope offers a powerful critique of today's stifling cultural climate and shows why the vision of hope central to Christian faith must be a basic component of any flourishing society The first section of the book sets the context with telling cultural criticism of modernity The second section focuses on affinities between premodern Christian visions of hope and twentieth century thought The final section of the book examines the relationship between postmodern thought Christian tradition and biblical hope addressing how Christians in a postmodern world can best articulate their faith Written by truly profound thinkers these chapters are diverse in their content methodologies and temperament yet they are united by a deep engagement with both the Christian tradition and the larger cultural and intellectual climate in which we live and work The Future of Hope can thus be read not just as an attempt at retrieval of hope for today but as itself one small act of hope in an age when people too seldom take time to think critically and hopefully Contributors David Billings Robert Paul Doede Kevin L Hughes Paul Edward Hughes Daniel Johnson William Katerberg John Milbank Jurgen Moltmann James K A Smith Miroslav Volf Nicholas Wolterstorff
