Authentocrats Joe Kennedy, 2018-06-19. The Authentocrats claim to be the new voice of common sense that speak for the common man and woman, right wing traditional and dangerous. Joe Kennedy argues that they are everything but what they purport to be. In contemporary Britain a lot has been said about what it is that real people want politically. Forgotten by elites and sick of globalisation so the story goes they demand patriotism, respect for the military, assurances on defence and controls on immigration. In trying to meet these supposed wishes politicians attempt to appear normal, salt of the earth, authentic. Authentocrats examines the function of this authenticity in a centrist politics which paradoxically often defines itself as cosmopolitan, technocratic and opposed to populism. Casting a doubtful eye over amongst other things latter day James Bond films, contemporary nature writing and stand up comedy, Authentocrats suggests that the sooner we can break with the sententiousness of a skewed conception of authenticity in aesthetics and politics the better.
