Inclusive Urban Design: Streets For Life Elizabeth Burton, Lynne Mitchell, 2006-08-11 This is the first book to address the design needs of older people in the outdoor environment It provides information on design principles essential to built environment professionals who want to provide for all users of urban space and who wish to achieve sustainability in their designs Part one examines the changing experiences of people in the outdoor environment as they age and discusses existing outdoor environments and the aspects and features that help or hinder older people from using and enjoying them Part two presents the six design principles for streets for life and their many individual components Using photographs and line drawings a range of design features are presented at all scales of the outdoor environment from street layouts and building form to signs and detail Part three expands on the concept of streets for life as the ultimate goal of inclusive urban design These are outdoor environments that people are able to confidently understand navigate and use regardless of age or circumstance and represent truly sustainable inclusive communities Rebuilding Sustainable Communities with Vulnerable Populations after the Cameras Have Gone Adenrele Awotona, 2012-03-15 This volume focuses on the status of the elderly and the disabled after disasters globally as well as the challenges of post earthquake rebuilding in Haiti The International Federation of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies has estimated that between 1987 and 2007 about 26 million older people were affected each year by natural disasters alone and that this figure could more than double by 2050 due to the rapidly changing demographics of ageing People with disabilities physical medical sensory or cognitive are equally at risk of utter neglect during and after disasters The Australian Agency for International Development estimates that 650 million people across the world have a disability and about 80 per cent of them live in developing countries Similarly before the January 2010 earthquake Haiti was a country with tremendous development needs and numerous impediments to development according to Congresswoman Maxine Waters when introducing a Resolution in the US House of Representatives to cancel Haiti's debts in March 2007 These impediments included an overwhelming burden of international debt lack of personal and community assets and very little or no internal and external capacities all of which have been exacerbated by the aftermath of the earthquake It was against this background that the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts Boston organized two international Conferences in 2010 in April on Rebuilding Sustainable Communities in Haiti in the wake of the January Earthquake and in July on Rebuilding Sustainable Communities with the Elderly and Disabled People after Disasters This edited book consists of selected papers that were presented at these academic events The topics include Disaster Experiences of the Elderly and the Disabled in Nigeria The Vulnerability of Elderly People in the Aftermath of Earthquakes in Iran Methods for Assessing and Developing Understanding of Resiliency in Communities The Tuareg's traditional Shelter for Disaster Mitigation and Reconstruction in Libya and People with Disabilities in Haiti Before and After the 2010 Earthquake Alzheimer Federica Caracciolo, 2006 Forfatterens beretning om sin mand Francesco Caracciolo's 7 års kamp mod Alzheimers og hvordan hun tog sig af ham

Social alarms to telecare Fisk, Malcolm J, 2003-06-25 Healthcare social welfare and housing policy agendas while emphasising the importance of supporting the independent living of older people at home have generally failed to take account of the actual or potential role played by social alarms and telecare This book draws on research and practice throughout the developed world It documents the emergence of these important technologies and considers their potential in the contexts of healthcare social welfare and housing The book is of immense importance to policy makers and practitioners in healthcare social welfare and housing It signals the potential the challenges and the threats associated with such technologies As such it must be compulsory reading for every current or potential service provider Dignity in Care for Older People Lennart Nordenfelt, 2009-09-08 The notion of quality of life has for several decades been well established in ethical debate about health care and the care of older people Dignity in Care for Older People highlights the notion of dignity within the care of the elderly focusing on the importance of theoretical concepts Primarily based on a Research Project Dignity and Older Europeans funded by the European Commission this book provides a thorough investigation of the concept of dignity and related concepts such as quality of life and autonomy It includes a chapter devoted to the dignity of human embodiment emphasizing the importance of the notion of the lived body in the context of elderly care As a result of the conceptual study a model of dignity emerges in which four variants of dignity stand out dignity of merit dignity as moral status dignity of identity and Menschenwürde the specifically human value From this follows a discussion of how these variants of dignity can be used in characterizing the care of the elderly The notions of dignity and dignified care are discussed particularly in relation to demented persons and dying persons The book also contains a chapter on the dignity of the dead person International in focus Dignity in Care for Older People provides a contemporary discussion of the care of older people and will be of use to qualified nurses and social care practitioners working with older people as well as those on ethics and gerontology courses

Dementia Care Nursing Trevor Adams, 2017-09-16 This book looks at the role nurses play when working with people who have dementia and their relatives Dementia Care Nursing is a fascinating insight into the field which outlines approaches that may be used by nurses within practice and provides advice on how dementia care may be developed and enhanced Community Music Therapy Mercedes Pavlicevic, Gary Ansdell, 2004 Community Music Therapy presents a new way of considering music therapy in more culturally socially and politically sensitive ways It suggests new practices and new thinking for music therapy in the 21st century and offers a critique of some older methods

Quality of Life Philip Seed, Greg Lloyd, 1997 While exploring the popular references to the term Quality of Life this book also compares the technical meanings in medicine the social sciences and in economic and social planning Methods of measuring quality of life in these and other fields are reviewed to draw out elements which enhance the others Critical Issues in Social Work With Older People Mo G. Ray, Miriam Bernard, Judith Phillips, 2018-06-26 This timely text highlights the importance of informed and critical practice in social work with older people With an emphasis on reflection throughout it argues for the need to rethink how social workers support some of the most vulnerable people in society The text begins with an exploration of the relationship between gerontology the study of aging and social work and demonstrates that a gerontological approach has long been missing from social work practice The central chapters consider key issues affecting older people and social work practice such as Risk of poverty Memory loss and dementia Palliative and end of life care Loss and bereavement Moving into a care home Bringing together theoretical and research insights this agenda setting text provides a sound base for creative practice with older people All those looking to make a positive and discernible difference to older people will find this text rewarding reading

Psychosocial Studies of the Individual's Changing Perspectives in Alzheimer's Disease Dick-Muehlke, Cordula, Li, Ruobing, Orleans, Myron, 2015-08-31 Cognitive impairment through Alzheimer's disease or other related forms of dementia is a serious concern for afflicted individuals and their caregivers. Understanding patients' mental state and combatting social stigmas are important considerations in caring for cognitively impaired individuals. Psychosocial Studies of the Individual's Changing Perspectives in Alzheimer's Disease describes programs and strategies that professional and family caregivers can implement to engage and improve the quality of life of persons suffering from cognitive impairment. Including real world cases by international experts and a personal approach to the subject, this book is an important resource for caregivers, researchers, and families living with dementia.

Dementia Reconsidered: The Person Still Comes First Tom Kitwood, Dawn Brooker, 2019-01-07. The original Dementia Reconsidered: The Person Comes First by Tom Kitwood was published by Open University Press in 1997. It was a seminal text in the field of dementia studies and is still cited and referenced as core reading on person-centred dementia care. Tom died unexpectedly just 12 months after the book was published. This book continues to inspire many people to challenge simplistic paradigms about dementia. Since the original book was written, however, there have been many changes in our understanding of dementia. The editor of this new edition, Dawn Brooker, was mentored by Tom Kitwood. She has drawn together a remarkable group of writers to provide a commentary on Kitwood's work. This new edition reproduces the original chapters but provides extra content from subject experts to update the book to a contemporary level.

Dementia Reconsidered: Revisited is an ideal main text or supplementary text for all those studying or working in nursing, medicine, psychiatry, psychology, occupational therapy, social work, adult education, gerontology, and health and social care, more generally. This important book does three things. It brings to a new generation the insight and vision of Tom Kitwood. It highlights the remarkable progress we have made in recent years. But most important of all, it reminds us what still needs to be done if we are to fully respect the rights of people with dementia and their family caregivers. Kitwood inspired Alzheimer's Society to knit together research, care, and societal change. We are now re-inspired to make sure all progress is evidenced and evaluated for its impact. We must realise the enormous opportunities the digital age offers people affected by dementia, but in doing so, constantly listen to and learn from their many and varied voices across nations and cultures.

Jeremy Hughes CBE, Chief Executive, Alzheimer's Society UK.

Social Work Practice with Older People Rory Lynch, 2013-11-13. Older people are the biggest service user group for social workers, and an increasing proportion of the population. In this refreshingly positive and practical textbook, Rory Lynch draws on years of practice and teaching experience to show how to achieve best social work practice with older adults. He takes a person-centred approach which fosters respect by valuing the fact that elderly people have more lived experience than others. Exploring the key theoretical approaches and methods of intervention, this book helps social workers to identify, understand, and facilitate their service users' wishes for well-being and a fulfilling older age. Chapters are practice-driven, containing case studies drawn from a range of care settings, reflective questions, and exercises. Mapping directly onto the key modules on the social work degree, this is essential reading for all student social workers.

especially as they prepare to go on their practice placement It is also valuable reading for qualified social workers Rory Lynch is Lecturer in Social Work at Robert Gordon University      Reminiscence and Life Story Work Faith

Gibson,2011-08-15 Reminiscence is a valuable tool for the professional carer as well as those looking after a family member or friend It enhances and enriches the care relationship and benefits both the person being cared for and the carer This fully updated fourth edition is full of practical information on planning and running successful reminiscence work      Caring for

Adults with Mental Health Problems Ian Peate,Sonya Chelvanayagam,2007-01-11 Mental health care provision can be complex and the approach the carer uses can have a detrimental effect on the health of the person being cared for Caring for Adults with Mental Health Problems provides the reader with many examples of thoughts ideas and perspectives in a user friendly easily accessible format The chapters are divided into discrete sections reflecting contemporary care approaches Reference to care in a range of primary and secondary care settings is made throughout the book Each chapter provides the reader with a clear and concise approach to health care encouraging the reader to understand and delve deeper Written by contributors who are experienced clinicians and academics with many years of clinical and academic experience in various health care settings this text is based upon the principles of care a foundation text that encourages the student to grow and develop Caring for Adults with Mental Health Problems is a practice based handbook or manual that has a sound evidence basis and one that will challenge and encourage the student to develop a questioning approach to care The text is designed to be used as a reference book by a variety of readers in either the clinical setting classroom or at home in statutory or non statutory surroundings      Social Work Intervention Trevor Lindsay,2013-03-19 Since launching in 2003 Transforming Social Work Practice has become the market leading series for social work students These books use activities and case studies to build critical thinking and reflection skills and will help social work students to develop good practice through learning Social workers need to have a sound working knowledge of intervention as they are often balancing complex and sometime stressful circumstances with the individual needs of the service users Also as there are a wide range of social work interventions in current practice students will benefit from knowing the advantages and disadvantages of each model and approach This book on effective social work intervention will help students apply and integrate this knowledge in practice to critically evaluate different methods and to choose the most effective in any particular set of circumstances Fully revised to include new material on value based practice and direct links to the new Professional Capabilities Framework for Social Work this second edition is essential reading for all social work students      Handbook of the Clinical Psychology of Ageing Robert T.

Woods,Linda Clare,2015-04-13 The first authoritative reference on clinical psychology and aging the Handbook of the Clinical Psychology of Ageing was universally regarded as a landmark publication when it was first published in 1996 Fully revised and updated the Second Edition retains the breadth of coverage of the original providing a complete and balanced picture of all areas of clinical research and practice with older people Contributions from the UK North America Scandinavia and Australia provide a broad overview of the psychology of aging psychological problems including depression anxiety psychosis and dementia the current social service context and assessment and intervention techniques     The Essential Handbook of Memory Disorders for Clinicians Alan D. Baddeley, Michael Kopelman, Barbara A. Wilson, 2004-07-29 This concise version of the Handbook of Memory Disorders is a selection of chapters from the original volume that have been chosen with the busy practitioner in mind The Essential Handbook provides individual clinicians and students with those parts the editors consider most relevant and useful on a day to day basis as a portable adjunct to the more comprehensive Handbook Handbook of Memory Disorders 047 149819X
