Fehskens,2025-09-04 A study of Hispanic planetary modernism s use of prophetic discourse as an attempt to counter modern nihilism and provide modernity with poetry as its new Scripture Traditional studies of established literary modernisms such as in the United Kingdom France and Germany have long acknowledged the prophetic authority and tragic struggle for sacredness within modernity As Poetics of Prophecy and Planetary Hispanic Modernism argues the aesthetic and ideological phenomenon of the Vates or prophetic poet is also present in the rich tradition of Hispanic literature that spans more than 20 countries However the later modernization of Spain and Spanish America postpones its adoption until the advent of literary modernism Matthew Fehskens shows that this prophetic role is consistent across multiple poets in Europe Spanish America and the United States and constitutes a fundamental aspect of the transatlantic production of modernism in Spanish The phenomenon is wide ranging from the movement s founding authors such as Cuban Jos Mart and Nicaraguan Rub n Dar o to Uruguayan poets Delmira Agustini and Mar a Eugenia Vaz Ferreira and Spanish authors Antonio Machado Miguel de Unamuno and Ram n del Valle Incl n Hispanic modernism had lofty aims namely to speak poetic words of divine import to a culture ravaged by the Age of Reason and the materialism of modernity Its authors aimed to transcend the limitations of literature reason and a disenchanting culture to create modern scriptures This study demonstrates the centrality of prophecy in the development of Hispanic poetry in modernity     Epitaphs. his critically acclaimed book Who Stole My Church to deal with a new dilemma What's his church's story What is it doing that justifies its existence The importance of these questions is anything but fiction Through a series of e-mails and discussions with friends and parishioners Pastor Gordon's search for their story leads him to realize that the future of the Christian faith and thus the church is at risk As MacDonald says We seem to know how to get unchurched people to visit our buildings We even seem to know how to draw them across the line into a declaration of personal faith in Jesus But what we do not seem to know is how to cultivate spiritually deep people Tomorrow's church could be headed for trouble Deep people People who possess spiritual awareness and maturity people with solid grounded life altering faith MacDonald shows that the church needs people with a passion for God's presence and a desperate hunger to seek him above all things Join Pastor MacDonald and his congregation on their quest to cultivate spiritual depth and grow into a community of believers whose hearts and minds are truly focused on God
