Heart Home Hard Hats:

Calling Home Janet Zandy, 1990 Working class women are the majority of women in the United States and yet their work and their culture are rarely visible Calling Home is an anthology of writings by and about working class women Over fifty selections represent the ethnic racial and geographic diversity of working class experience This is writing grounded in social history not in the academy Traditional boundaries of genre and periodization collapse in this collection which includes reportage oral histories speeches songs and letters as well as poetry stories and essays The divisions in this collection telling stories bearing witness celebrating solidarity address the distinction of by or about working class women and show the connections between individual identity and collective sensibility in a common history of struggle for economic justice The geography of home identity parents sex motherhood the dominance of the job the overlapping of private and public worlds the promise of solidarity and community are a few of the themes of this book Here is a chorus of working class women s voices Sandra Cisneros Barbara Garson Meridel Le Sueur Tillie Olsen Barbara Smith Endesha I M Holland Mother Jones Nellie Wong Agnes Smedley Bobbie Louise Hawkins Sharon Doubiago Carol Tarlen Hazel Hall Margaret Randall Judy Grahn and many others The aesthetic impulse is shaped by class but not limited to one ruling class What connects these writers is a collective consciousness a class which rejects bondage and lays claim to liberation through all the possibilities of language Calling Home is illustrated with family photographs as well as images of working women by professional photographers

Sisters in the Brotherhoods J. LaTour, 2008-08-04 Sisters in the Brotherhoods is an oral history based study of women who have against considerable odds broken the gender barrier to blue collar employment in various trades in New York City beginning in the 1970s It is a story of the fight against deeply ingrained cultural assumptions about what constitutes women s work the middle class bias of feminism the daily grinding sexism of male co workers and the institutionalised discrimination of employers and unions It is also the story of some gutsy women who seeking the material rewards and personal satisfactions of skilled manual labour have struggled to make a place for themselves among New York City s construction workers stationary engineers firefighters electronic technicians plumbers and transit workers Each story contributes to an important unifying theme the way women confronted the enormous sexism embedded in union culture and developed new organisational forms to support their struggles including and especially the United Tradeswomen Hard Hat Bonnie Bryant, 2013-01-30 Stevie s on the loose in New York City Stevie Lake thinks she knows everything there is to know about getting along in New York City until she meets Regina Evans Regina is the daughter of a New York friend of Stevie s mom When Stevie and her mother visit the city Mrs Lake and Mrs Evans catch up on old times while Regina introduces Stevie to her friends and their favorite hangouts It s a lot of fun until an accident leaves Regina and Stevie in real danger But just when things look worst Stevie gets a chance to prove that a horse can always save the day even in New York City

Liberating Memory Janet Zandy, 1995 This is a book about working class identity consciousness and self determination

It offers an alternative to middle class assimilation and working class amnesia The twenty five contributors use memory both personal and collective to show the relationship between the uncertain economic rhythms of working class life and the possibilities for cultural and political agency Manual labor and intellectual work are connected in these multicultural autobiographies of writers educators artists political activists musicians and photographers and in the cultural work the poems stories photographs lectures music they produce Illustrated with family snapshots this collection the first of its kind includes the work of a female machinist who is also a poet a secretary who is also a writer a poet who worked on the assembly line a musician who was also a red diaper baby and an academic who is recovering the working class writing of her father The consciousness that is revealed in this book makes evident the value of class identity to collective democratic struggle The contributors are Maggie Anderson Steve Cagan Jim Daniels Lennard Davis Masani Alexis de Veaux Sue Doro Julie Olsen Edwards Carol Faulkner Barbara Fox Laura Hapke Florence Howe David Joseph Linda McCarriston Wilma Elizabeth McDaniel Gregory Mantsios M Bella Mirabella Joseph Nassar Tillie Olsen Maxine Scates Saul Slapikoff Clarissa T Sligh Carol Tarlen Joann Maria Vasoncellos Pat Wynne and Janet Zandy New Working-Class Studies John Russo, Sherry Lee Linkon, 2018-08-06 We put the working class in all its varieties at the center of our work The new working class studies is not only about the labor movement or about workers of any particular kind or workers in any particular place even in the workplace Instead we ask questions about how class works for people at work at home and in the community We explore how class both unites and divides working class people which highlights the importance of understanding how class shapes and is shaped by race gender ethnicity and place We reflect on the common interests as well as the divisions between the most commonly imagined version of the working class industrial blue collar workers and workers in the new economy whose work and personal lives seem at first glance to place them solidly in the middle class from the Introduction In John Russo and Sherry Lee Linkon s book contributors trace the origins of the new working class studies explore how it is being developed both within and across fields and identify key themes and issues Historians economists geographers sociologists and scholars of literature and cultural studies introduce many and varied aspects of this emerging field Throughout they consider how the study of working class life transforms traditional disciplines and stress the importance of popular and artistic representations of working class life Speech Practice Material Thomas, Jack E., 2008-07-01 This book features materials that are not based on or related to any particular treatment program They are intended to be versatile flexible and used in many ways for many populations Some of the stimuli are tried and true with some new variations Decisions about whom to use it with how and why are in the hands judgment and creativity of the clinician This book invites therapists to think critically and study and apply the best evidence and practice guidelines from the current professional literature Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1994 Each in Her Own Way Elizabeth Claman, 1994 Dps , Literature, Class, and Culture Paul Lauter, Ann Fitzgerald, 2001 Literature Class and Culture the latest volume in the Literature and Culture Series a series
