Changing Church Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 2011-11-01 Through the fascinating stories of pioneering ministers this book reveals a unique picture of progressive changes occurring in the Christian tradition Meeting challenges and overcoming obstacles these twelve diverse ministers are changing the church as they take prophetic stands on gender race interfaith cooperation ecology sexual orientation economic opportunity and other social justice issues Believing in the power of sacred symbolism to shape social reality and to provide a foundation for justice and freedom for all people these ministers lead worship with inclusive language and imagery for humanity and divinity They include multicultural female and male images of the Divine Their stories affirm the connection between this expansive theology and an ethic of justice and equality in human relationships In working from within to change the church these ministers have risked censure by denominational authorities loss of opportunities for promotion to larger congregations or to prestigious denominational positions and even loss of their jobs They have found creative ways to balance advocating for change and working to support the church using their positions as ordained clergy to bring liberating change to the church and the wider culture

A Mother's Heart Moved the Hand of God Tedd A. Galloway, 2014-05-06 The power of love can save a life One rainy night on the Zambian savannah a mother's heart moves the hand of God From a land laid waste by disease and drought emerges this incredible story of courage suffering and the ultimate triumph of the power of God's love This is the true story of an infant born in the bush of southern Zambia at the height of the worst drought in years That tiny life was awaiting the traditional burial lying on the chest of her mother who died during delivery For months the relentless claw of death would try to snatch another victim but God had a purpose for her life Through Tedd Galloway's eloquent and inspiring words you will learn that God's timing is perfect but not always understood Genuine Christian love is colorblind Love is costly and can be painful Every life is precious to God The cost of loving doesn't compare to the joy that comes Our world would be a different place if God's people saw each other through the eyes of the mother in this story Be inspired as you read about the body of Christ not just talking about loving each other but actually demonstrating it Tedd Galloway is a former pastor and missionary who served as a pastor in six churches For three years he worked in Zambia where he oversaw property development for his denomination He has been married to Donna for thirty nine years and is the father of three daughters Due to a spinal injury today he finds himself writing and guest speaking
