This book historically maps and examines the evolving contemporary geostrategic and geopolitical imperatives of the United States within Pakistan and the South Asian region, especially after September 11, 2001. It offers a detailed and theoretical account of the rapidly changing context of US foreign policy towards Pakistan after 2001. The history of the US-Pakistan relationship has been a complex and inscrutable mix of cooperation and conflict, has turned even more challenging after 9/11. This book covers the latest developments and relevant themes from world politics as it discusses the impact of the unprecedented rise in religious extremism in Pakistan stemming from the US War on Terror, as well as Pakistan's economic vulnerability and military dictatorship. India's offer to support the US in its war in Afghanistan, Pakistan's nuclear capability and the US administration's decision to end financial aid to Pakistan.
