George Eliot's Life, as Related in Her Letters and Journals (Volume 2) George Eliot,2021-12-29 The book George Eliot's Life as Related in Her Letters and Journals Volume 2 has been considered important throughout the human history and so that this work is never forgotten we have made efforts in its preservation by republishing this book in a modern format for present and future generations This whole book has been reformatted retyped and designed These books are not made of scanned copies and hence the text is clear and readable George Eliot's Life George Eliot,2020-04-17 Jan 2 George has returned this evening from a week s visit to Vernon Hill On coming up stairs he said I have some very pretty news for you something in my pocket I was at a loss to conjecture and thought confusedly of possible opinions from admiring readers when he drew the Times from his pocket to day s number containing a review of the Scenes of Clerical Life He had happened to ask a gentleman in the railway carriage coming up to London to allow him to look at the Times and felt quite agitated and tremulous when his eyes alighted on the review Finding he had time to go into town before the train started he bought a copy there It is a highly favorable notice and as far as it goes appreciatory When G went into town he called at Nutt s and Mrs Nutt said to him I think you don t know our curate He says the author of Clerical Scenes is a High Churchman for though Mr Tryan is said to be Low Church his feelings and actions are those of a High Churchman The curate himself being of course High Church There were some pleasant scraps of admiration also gathered for me at Vernon Hill Doyle happening to mention the treatment of children in the stories Helps said Oh he is a great writer I wonder how I shall feel about these little details ten years hence if I am alive At present I value them as grounds for hoping that my writing may succeed and so give value to my life as indications that I can touch the hearts of my fellow men and so sprinkle some precious grain as the result of the long years in which I have been inert and suffering But at present fear and trembling still predominate over hope

Eliot (Vol. 1-3) George Eliot,2020-07-02 George Eliot's Life as Related in Her Letters and Journals is a specific kind of autobiography of English author Mary Ann Evans better known as George Eliot. This book is based on her correspondence and journals edited by her husband John Walter Cross. His goal in assembling this work was to make known the woman as well as the author through the presentation of her daily life and to show the development of her intellect and character. Eliot was married to Cross only for six months before she died, leaving him with the task to present her life to the public. By arranging all the letters and journals so as to form one connected whole, keeping the order of their dates, the editor and the husband managed to combine a narrative of day to day life of this prominent literary figure.

GEORGE ELIOT'S LIFE AS RELATED George 1819-1880 Eliot,2016-08-26 George Eliot's Life, Complete George Eliot,2016-01-15 Chapter I In the foregoing introductory sketch I have endeavored to present the influences to which George Eliot was subjected in her youth and the environment in which she grew up. I am now able to begin the fulfilment of the promise on the titlepage that the life will be related in her own letters or rather in extracts from her own letters for no single letter is printed entire from the beginning to the end. I have not succeeded in obtaining any between 6th January 1836 and 18th August 1838 but from the latter date the correspondence becomes regular and I have arranged it as a continuous narrative with the names of the persons to whom the letters are addressed in the margin. The slight thread of narrative or explanation which I have written to elucidate the letters where necessary will hereafter occupy an inside margin so that the reader will see at a glance what is narrative and what is correspondence and will be troubled as little as possible with marks of quotation or changes of type. The following opening letter of the series to Miss Lewis describes a first visit to London with her brother. Sidenote Letter to Miss Lewis 18th Aug 1838 Let me tell you though that I was not at all delighted with the stir of the great Babel and the less so probably owing to the circumstances attending my visit thither.
