George Friedrich Kersting:

The Window Paintings of Georg Friedrich Kersting Claudine R. Galos-Dixon, 1988 Georg Friedrich Kersting, 1785-1847 Bärbel Kovalevski, 2010 Design Thomas Hauße, 1998 Aiming to place design developments in their broader context this text describes the history of design from its emergence as a separate discipline around 1750 to the present Arranged chronologically and with colour coded pages for ease of reference the book includes time lines and designers biographies as well as feature spreads on notable designers and companies There is also a detailed list of major design museums and collections polytektonDesign 1990-1997 Mikesch W. Muecke, 2016-11-29 Designs completed by polytekton between 1990 and 1997 including drawings etchings photographs architect's sculptures ceramic pieces and architectural projects Rooms with a View Sabine Rewald, 2011 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York April 5 July 4 2011 Writing, Speech and Flesh in Lacanian Psychoanalysis Shirley Zisser, 2021-09-13 This book explores the place of the flesh in the linguistically inflected categories of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis drawing explicit attention to the organic as an inherent part of the linguistic categories that appear in the writings of Freud and Lacan Lacan's return to Freud famously involves a linguistic turn in psychoanalysis The centering of language as a major operator in psychic life often leads to a dualistic or quasi dualistic view in which language and the enjoyment of the body are polarized Exploring the intricate connections of the linguistic and the organic in both Lacanian and Freudian psychoanalysis from its beginnings Zisser shows that surprisingly and not only in Lacan's late teaching psycho-linguistic categories turn out to be suffused with organicity After unfolding the remnant of the flesh in the signifier as a major component of Lacan's critique of Saussure using visual artworks as objective correlatives as it does so the book delineates two forms of psychic writing These are aligned not only with two fundamental states of the psychic apparatus as described by Freud pain and satisfaction but with two ways of sculpting formulated by Alberti in the Renaissance but also referred to by Freud Continuing in a Derridean vein the book demonstrates the primacy of writing to speech in psychoanalysis emphasizing how the relation between speech and writing is not binary but topological as speech in its psychoanalytic conception is nothing but the folding inside out of unconscious writing Innovatively placing the flesh at the core of its approach the text also incorporates the seminal work of psychoanalyst Michel Montrelay to articulate the precise relation between the linguistic and the organic Writing Speech and Flesh in Lacanian Psychoanalysis will be indispensable to psychoanalysts literary theorists rhetoricians deconstructionists and those studying at the intersection of psychoanalysis language and the visual arts Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism

Fashion Victims Alison Matthews David, 2015-09-24 From insidious murder weapons to blaze igniting crinolines clothing has been the cause of death disease and madness throughout history by accident and design Clothing is designed to protect shield and comfort us yet lurking amongst seemingly innocuous garments we find hats laced with mercury frocks laden with arsenic and literally drop dead gorgeous gowns Fabulously gory and gruesome Fashion Victims takes the reader on a fascinating journey through the lethal history of women s men s and children s dress in myth and reality Drawing upon surviving fashion objects and numerous visual and textual sources encompassing louse ridden military uniforms accounts of the fiery deaths of Oscar Wilde s half sisters and dancer Isadora Duncan s accidental strangulation by entangled scarf the book explores how garments have tormented those who made and wore them and harmed animals and the environment in the process Vividly chronicling evidence from Greek mythology to the present day Matthews David puts everyday apparel under the microscope and unpicks the dark side of fashion Fashion Victims is lavishly illustrated with over 125 images and is a remarkable resource for everyone from scholars and students to fashion enthusiasts

Strange Sisters Francesca Orestano, 2009 This collection of essays stems from the conference Nineteenth Century Literature and Aesthetics which was held at the University of Milan in 2006 and organised by the editors of this volume The interface between word and image covered in these essays embraces the fields of literature architecture painting photography music and art criticism The authors stress the role of aesthetics in a number of contexts ranging from the early 1830s to the fin de siècle and beyond as far as the last influences of Victorian taste on the early years of the twentieth century During the nineteenth century the ancient interaction between literature and aesthetics was challenged and criticised by Martineau Rossetti Ruskin Pater Wilde Beardsley Cameron and Carroll among others their awareness of the complexity of visual perception problematised the existing categories of realism artistic conventions discourse of description translation and representation The essays cover almost a century of debate between literature and aesthetics They focus on the intersection of word and image by emphasising transgressions in art hierarchies forms and languages which restyle existing categories and project them into new aesthetic dimensions beyond the conventional idea of the sister arts

Looking at the Landscapes The J. Paul Getty Museum, 2007-12-31 In this daylong symposium a group of international experts and scholars of nineteenth century art gathered to discuss Courbet s landscape oeuvre and debate his contribution to the history of modern painting in conjunction with the exhibition Courbet and the Modern Landscape The preface by Mary Morton and five papers presented here comprise the J Paul Getty Museum s first online only publication

Historical Dictionary of Romantic Art and Architecture Allison Lee Palmer, 2019-07-26 Romanticism is multifaceted and a wide range of nostalgic emotional and exotic concerns were expressed in such styles and movements as the Gothic Revival Classical Revival Orientalism and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood Some movements were regional and subject specific such as the Hudson River School of landscape painting in the United States and the German Nazarene movement which focused primarily on religious art in Rome The movements range across Western Europe and include the United States This dictionary will provide a fuller historical context for Romanticism and enable the reader to identify major trends and explore artists of the period This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Romantic Art and Architecture contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on major artists of the romantic era as well as entries on related art movements styles aesthetic philosophies and philosophers This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Romantic art Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997

For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

Revisiting Prussia's Wars against Napoleon Karen Hagemann,2015-03-30 In 2013 Germany celebrated the bicentennial of the so called Wars of Liberation 1813 15 These wars were the culmination of the Prussian struggle against Napoleon between 1806 and 1815 which occupied a key position in German national historiography and memory Although these conflicts have been analyzed in thousands of books and articles much of the focus has been on the military campaigns and alliances Karen Hagemann argues that we cannot achieve a comprehensive understanding of these wars and their importance in collective memory without recognizing how the interaction of politics culture and gender influenced these historical events and continue to shape later recollections of them She thus explores the highly contested discourses and symbolic practices by which individuals and groups interpreted these wars and made political claims beginning with the period itself and ending with the centenary in 1913 Artist Complex Jadwiga Kamola,2021-10-11 With the Jungian term of the complex the present volume inquires about the making of the artistic persona in twentieth century photography The articles examine photographic self portraits the dynamics between self statements of artists and photographers the interrelations of photography of painting and of performance art and investigate their origins in the history of ideas The volume traces a portrait of photography as a metascience as preparatory work a source of inspiration and an alternate medium in which artists could explore different subjects With essays by Ulrike Blumenthal Till Cremer Victoria Fleury Jadwiga Kamola Weronika Kobylska Bunsch Nadja Kffler Constance Krger Wilma Scheschonk Gerd Zillner The People in Arms Daniel Moran,Arthur Waldron,2006-11-02 The People in Arms first published in 2002 is concerned with the mass mobilization of society for war It takes as its starting point the French levée en masse of 1793 which replaced former theories and regulations concerning the obligation of military service with a universal concept more encompassing in its moral claims than any that had prevailed under the Ancien Régime The levée en masse has accordingly gone down in history as a spontaneous free expression of the French people's ideals and enthusiasm It also became a crucial source for one of the most powerful organizing myths of modern politics that compulsory mass social mobilizations merely express and give effective form to the wishes or higher values of society and its members The aim of the papers presented here is to analyse and compare episodes in which this distinctive ideological configuration has played a leading role Baltic Light Catherine

Johnston, Helmut Borsch-Supan, Helmut R. Leppien, National Gallery of Canada, Kasper Monrad, 1999-01-01 During the first half of the nineteenth century Danish and German artists studying in Paris and Rome brought back the concept of plein air painting and began to paint out of doors on their native soil They introduced a whole new aesthetic that was sensitive to the light and atmospheric conditions peculiar to the north especially during the long summer days This beautiful book focuses on the painters and paintings of this period particularly Caspar David Friedrich who produced many fine works before he developed the romantic style for which he is better known The book presents topographical landscapes panoramas and some group and individual portraits that often include a window from which light emanates Essays by eminent authorities discuss various aspects of the Danish and North German open air movement They note for example that the paintings reflect a direct view of nature devoid of the intellectual and moral overtones of the neoclassical paintings that preceded them They also discuss the fact that Schleswig Holstein was closely allied with Denmark until 1848 and this favored many Hamburg and north German artists studying at the Academy in Copenhagen where painting out of doors was encouraged In addition to the essays the book presents 108 works by twenty three artists catalogue entries for each work and a biography of each artist

Picturing the Romantic Elisabeth Ansel, Johannes Grave, Christin Neubauer, Mira Claire Zadrozny, 2025-09-30 European Romanticism in the visual arts has always been defined by transnational transfer processes It is surprising that international aspects of Romantic movements have been in contrast to literary studies a gap in art historical research Picturing the Romantic addresses this issue and reveals new perspectives on European Romanticism's in the visual arts by reconsidering the phenomenon's traditional canon geographical dimensions and terminology and analysing various examples of the complex and heterogeneous works of Romantic painting In fifteen original essays renowned and early career researchers examine the question of whether to speak of several independently considered Romanticisms or one European Romanticism They adopt a transnational perspective on Romantic art in and beyond Europe focusing on the interconnections between the countries German Romantic Painting William Vaughan, 1994-01-01 The early 19th century was a period in German art in which painting played a significant part in the cultural resurgence commonly known as the Romantic Movement This Movement and some of its chief exponents are examined against a background of German literature philosophy and music

German History, 1770-1866 James J. Sheehan, 1989 Now available in paperback this is a uniquely authoritative study of Germany from the mid eighteenth century to the formation of the Bismarckian Reich James J Sheehan gives an extensive account of social and cultural as well as political developments and shows that the creation of a Prussian led nation state should not be seen as natural or inevitable He shows how German history in this period was shaped by three separable yet closely linked developments the rise of sovereign territorial states the expansion of economic activity and social mobility and the emergence of a literary culture

The Magic of Silence Florian Illies, 2024-11-11 No German painter evokes such strong emotions as Caspar David Friedrich his evening skies remain icons of longing his mountain vistas testaments to the grandeur of nature He inspired Samuel Beckett to write Waiting for Godot and Walt Disney to create Bambi Goethe however was so enraged by the enigmatic melancholy of Friedrich's paintings that he wanted to smash them on the edge of a table In a sweeping journey through time bestselling author Florian Illies tells the story of Friedrich's paintings and their impact on subsequent generations Many of his most beautiful paintings were burned first in his birthplace and then in World War II others like the Chalk Cliffs on Rügen emerge from the mists of history a hundred years after Friedrich's death Illies recounts the story of how Friedrich's paintings ended up at the Russian czar's court others among a pile of winter tires in a Mafia car repair shop and others still in the kitchen of a German social housing apartment Adored by Hitler and Rainer Maria Rilke despised by Stalin and by the generation of 68 this compelling narrative dances through 250 years of history as seen through Friedrich's art and life As a result the man himself becomes flesh and blood before our very eyes
