IN putting together this memoir of my friend George Mallory the help I have received has been too widespread to make individual acknowledgement possible. But there must be two exceptions: the late Mr. Arthur Benson and Mrs. Owen O'Malley. My debt to the former for details of Cambridge days will be evident in Chapter II. Without the co-operation of Mrs. O'Malley the book in its present form would scarcely have been possible at all.

I am indebted to the Mount Everest Committee for permission to make use of the two photographs which face pages 114 and 129.
