George Moore In Transition Letters To T:

George Moore: Across Borders Christine Huguet, Fabienne Dabrigeon-Garcier, 2013 A truly cosmopolitan Irish writer George Moore 1852 1933 was a fascinating figure of the fin de siècle moving between countries crossing genre and medium boundaries forever exploring and promulgating aesthetic trends and artistic developments Naturalism in the novel and the theatre Impressionism in painting Decadence and the avant garde Literary Wagnerism the Irish Literary Revival New Woman culture This volume on border crossings offers a variety of critical perspectives to approach Moore's multifaceted oeuvre and personality The essays by Contributors from various national backgrounds and from a wide range of disciplines establish original points of contact between literary creation art history Wagnerian opera gender studies sociology and altogether reposition Moore as a major representative of European turn of the century culture

George Moore on Parnassus George Moore, O. M. Brack, 1988 Through the letters and commentary in this volume the Irish writer George Moore is revealed as a man and artist far more complex and important than most works on him suggest one who played a significant role in the Irish Literary Renaissance

George Moore and the Autogenous Self Elizabeth Grubgeld, 1994 Moore's work exhibits a profound recognition of the forces of heredity gender culture and history while simultaneously declaring his belief in an autogenous self In early novels like A Drama in Muslin and Esther Waters there is a notable conflict between his postulation of the pure instinctive individual and the emphasis upon the shaping power of heredity and economics inherent in the traditions of social realism that he adopts In The Untilled Field The Lake and later works Moore perfects a narrative technique that in highlighting the power of subjective memory allows his characters to work out a new relation with the forces of history

Selected Plays of George Moore and Edward Martyn George Moore, 1995 Best known as a novelist and man of letters George Moore 1852 1933 is the author of such works as Esther Waters A Drama in Muslin The Untilled Field The Brook Kerith and his masterpiece Hail and Farewell Edward Martyn 1859 1923 was a distant cousin of Moore's and for a time the two were close friends Martyn a man of considerable wealth devoted his energies to a wide variety of activities particularly the Church and political activism His interest in playwriting like Moore's was of a secondary nature Nevertheless the two pooled and concentrated their talents to make important contributions at a critical juncture of the Irish literary renaissance In 1899 aiming to provide a platform for the work of serious native dramatists Martyn W. B. Yeats and Lady Gregory together founded the Irish Literary Theatre Martyn soon brought Moore on board to lend his experience and notoriety to the venture The great success of the Theatre's first season was Martyn's The Heather Field republished here which later enjoyed brief revivals in England Germany and the United States Top billing in the second season was to have gone to Martyn's fast paced caustic satire The Tale of the Town but Yeats thought the play crude and not at all suitable for a serious literary theater When Moore reluctantly agreed Martyn turned the play over to them to do with as they wished Moore then rewrote it as The Bending of the Bough Here the plays are published together for the first time This volume also includes Moore's The Strike at Arlingford, The Passing of the Essenes and The Coming of Gabrielle. This last is based on his correspondence with an Austrian countess he never met and much of the dialogue in the play is taken directly from her letters. Martyn's Maeve written for the Irish Literary Theatre and An Enchanted Sea a short lyrical play first produced in 1904 are also found here. The plays in this volume were selected by David B Eakin and Michael Case who have contributed a critical introduction. Helpful bibliographical checklists of Moore's and Martyn's works both published and unpublished are also included. George Moore in transition: letters to T.Fisher Unwin and Lena Milman, 1894-1910, ed George Moore, Thomas Fisher Unwin, Lena Milman, Helmut E. Gerber, George Moore in Transition George Moore, Thomas Fisher Unwin, Lena Milman, 1968 Sexual Restraint and Aesthetic Experience in Victorian Literary Decadence Sarah Green, 2023-03-09 Sarah Green shows how late Victorian Decadent literature paradoxically treats sexual restraint as healthy and aesthetically productive The New Nineteenth Century Barbara Leah Harman, Susan Meyer, 2012-11-12 This book includes essays on writers from the 1840s to the 1890s well known writers such as Anne Brontë, Wilkie Collins and Bram Stoker lesser known writers such as Geraldine Jewsbury, Charles Reade, Margaret Oliphant, George Moore, Sarah Grand and Mary Ward. The contributors explore important thematic concerns: the relation between private and public realms, gender and social class, sexuality and the marketplace and male and female cultural identity. The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction Liam Harte, 2020 Presents essays by thirty-five leading scholars of Irish fiction that provide authoritative assessments of the breadth and achievement of Irish novelists and short story writers George Moore's Fictive Autobiography Brian Greenwood Donovan, 1974 Routledge Library Editions: Joseph Conrad Various, 2021-09-30 Joseph Conrad 1857-1924 is widely considered one of the great modern writers in English literature. This 21-volume set contains titles originally published between 1976 and 1990 as well as a biography from 1957 written by one of his closest friends. The first 18 books are a set of concordances and indexes to Conrad's printed works which were part of a project directed by Todd K Bender at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA and are among the first attempts to use the power of computers to enhance our reading environment and assist in lexicography, scholarly editing and literary analysis. The set also contains a meticulously compiled bibliography of writings on Joseph Conrad as well as an original and powerful analysis of his major work.

Joseph Conrad Bruce Teets, 2020-04-30 Originally published in 1990, this is a comprehensive and annotated bibliography of the writings on Joseph Conrad and his works. Covering the years from 1895 to 1975, it also includes indexes of authors, secondary works, periodicals and newspapers, foreign languages and primary titles. Part of a series of annotated bibliographies on English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920, this will be a valuable resource for students of literature.

George Moore in Transition George Moore, Thomas Fisher Unwin, Lena Milman, 1968 A Sense of Shock Adam Parkes, 2011-08-19 What does modern British and Irish literature have to do with French impressionist painting? And what does Henry James have to do with the legal dispute between John Ruskin and J.M.W. Whistler? What links Walter Pater with

Conrad's portrait of a genocidal maniac in Heart of Darkness Or George Moore with Irish nationalism Virginia Woolf with modern distraction and Ford Madox Ford with the Great Depression Adam Parkes argues that we must answer such questions if we are to appreciate the full impact of impressionist aesthetics on modern British and Irish writers Complicating previous accounts of the influence of painting and philosophy on literary impressionism A Sense of Shock highlights the role of politics uncovering new and deeper linkages In the hands of such practitioners as Conrad Ford James Moore Pater and Woolf literary impressionism was shaped by its engagement with important social issues and political events that defined the modern age As Parkes demonstrates the formal and stylistic practices that distinguish impressionist writing were the result of dynamic and often provocative interactions between aesthetic and historical factors Parkes ultimately suggests that it was through this incendiary combination of aesthetics and history that impressionist writing forced significant change on the literary culture of its time A Sense of Shock will appeal to students and scholars of nineteenth and twentieth century literature as well as the growing readership for books that explore problems of literary history and interdisciplinarity The Irish George Moore Elizabeth Hall Harris,1976 Diarmuid and Grania William Butler Yeats,George Moore,2005 The manuscript materials included in the Cornell Yeats edition of Diarmuid and Grania provide a full record of the disputes and revisions that culminated in the final draft of the play which opened at the Gaiety Theatre in Dublin on October 21 1901

The Historical Jesus and the Literary Imagination 1860-1920 Jennifer Stevens,2010-07-14 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Fictional reconstructions of the Gospels continue to find a place in contemporary literature and in the popular imagination Present day writers of New Testament fiction and drama are usually considered as part of a tradition formed by mid to late twentieth century authors such as Robert Graves Nikos Kazantzakis and Anthony Burgess This book looks back further to the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when the templates of the majority of today's Gospel fictions and dramas were set down In doing so it examines the extent to which significant works of biblical scholarship both influenced and inspired literary works Focusing on writers such as Oscar Wilde George Moore and Marie Corelli this timely new addition to the English Association Monographs series will be essential reading for scholars working at the intersection of literature and theology Writers, Readers, and Reputations Philip Waller,2008 Philip Waller explores the literary world in which the modern best seller first emerged with writers promoted as stars and celebrities advertising both products and themselves George Moore in Perspective Janet Egleston Dunleavy,1983 Threshold of a Nation Philip Edwards,1979 This imprint is established to publish in paperback for an individual readership the Press's most outstanding original monographs These are titles which would normally appear in specialist hardback editions only but whose quality and general academic importance justify their special promotion in this prestige imprint The series will include both new and recent titles drawn from the whole range of the Press's very substantial publishing programmes in the Humanities and Social Sciences and therefore represents some of
