Fighting Slavery in the Caribbean Luis Martinez-Fernandez, 2015-03-04 This volume presents a social history of life in mid 19th century Cuba as experienced by George Backhouse and his wife Grace who served on the British Havana Mixed Commission for the Suppression of the Slave Trade Documented with extracts from the Backhouse's correspondence diaries and other contemporary papers Martinez Fernandez paints a detailed picture of the Cuban slave trade its role in the sugar industry and the interrelated contradictions within Cuba's economy, society and politics. The Backhouse story provides additional insights into important aspects of life in the male city of Havana: social antagonisms between Britons and North Americans; interactions with European social circles; religious tension and the reality of tropical disease. Drama is added to the narrative in the author's description of the tragic and mysterious murder of George Backhouse in August 1855, possibly the result of a slave traders conspiracy. Middlesex County Records ... Middlesex (England), 1886 Box Set: Speed Kills and The Unsolved Murder of Adam Walsh Books One and Two Arthur Jay Harris, 2016-06-09. SPEED KILLS: He built the fastest boats for royalty, the rich, spies, smugglers, Feds and a former U.S. President. Then came six shots. THE UNSOLVED MURDER OF ADAM WALSH BOOK 1: It was the crime of the decade and the perpetrator may have been the most notorious serial killer in history. BOOK 2: 30 years after he was reported as dead, could the Walshes' little boy Adam actually be alive? George Gissing and the Woman Question Christine Huguet, 2016-04-22. Approaching its subject both contextually and comparatively, George Gissing and the Woman Question reads Gissing's novels, short stories and personal writings as a crux in European fiction's formulations of gender and sexuality. The collection places Gissing alongside nineteenth and twentieth century authors as diverse as Paul Bourget, Ella Hepworth Dixon, May Sinclair and Theodore Dreiser, theorizing the ways in which late Victorian sexual difference is challenged, explored and performed in Gissing's work. In addition to analyzing the major novels, essays make a case for Gissing as a significant short story writer and address Gissing's own life and afterlife in ways that avoid biographical mimetics. The contributors also place Gissing's work in relation to discourses of subjectivity and intersubjectivity, identity, public space, class and labour, especially literary production. Increasingly viewed as a key chronicler of the late Victorian period's various redefinitions of sexual difference, Gissing is here recognized as a sincere, uncompromising chronicler of social change. Naval Commissioners from 12 Charles II. to 1 George III., 1660-1760 Sir George Jackson, 1889. As Rhonda moves to a detective position with the county sheriff's office, her first lead case is the murder of the most hated man in the county. George Atkins has been killed with his own pitchfork while spreading manure. The fact the elderly man was out in a raging blizzard makes no sense. Why would he be out in such inclement weather? As the case progresses, threats are made against other members in the family until Rhonda finally reveals the most unexpected suspect with a deep-seated hatred for the Atkins family for what he believes has been done to him in the past. Cold Blooded Murder Brad Hunter, 2021-07-08. Murder is the most vile crime known to man. It can be triggered by love or money or sex. Those are the three big ticket items for homicide. But people are strange. They will kill for the most obscure and ridiculous of reasons. In 30 years covering murder

I have discovered each one has its own flavour Cops and friends can be stunned by the evil lurking within a seemingly ordinary man or woman In this collection of some of the most memorable cases I ve reported on there are serial killers rich kid monsters football stars and wives in pursuit of hormone charged hijinks The very rich and the very poor Successful lawyers and hotel executives Southern belles who could melt butter with a come hither wink and a sexy drawl Daddy s girls with gleaming smiles good marks and possessed by the devil These are stories of American crimes and they stretch from coast to coast You will find cheating husbands and wives so desperate for love that they ll kill for it When the mob kills it s never personal It s strictly business With the murderers in Cold Blooded Murder it s ALWAYS personal
