Georgiana Molloy Alexandra Hasluck,2002      Georgiana Molloy Alexandra Hasluck,2017-07-05 The story of a remarkable pioneer who discovered in the strange colonial wilderness the splendour and richness of Australia's unique flora In 1829 Georgiana Molloy moved from the middle class comfort of the English border country to an isolated wilderness on the opposite side of the world The young bride and her husband Captain John Molloy were among a small party that founded the settlement of Augusta on Western Australia's south west coast A pioneer of great courage and capacity Georgiana was presented with seemingly overwhelming trials and hardships But she was a woman who was never defeated by circumstance and never ceased to find enjoyment and satisfaction in her life One of her enduring legacies is her study and identification of much of the unique local flora A vivid portrait of an extraordinary woman      Core Of My Heart, My Country Maggie MacKellar,2016-05-18 When Georgiana Molloy gave birth on the beach at Augusta in 1830 with boxes of her possessions lying where they'd landed she was one of the many women who literally had to remake their homes out of the broken bones of their past In this passionate book Maggie MacKellar tells the stories of women on the frontier in Canada and Australia who ventured out in bonnets and petticoats to collect seeds who abandoned sidesaddles to ride in the mountains who risked their reputations to climb mountains and beyond this it tells of the risky business of women who put their lives on the page to claim the importance of their experience Core of My Heart My Country weaves together experience and insight from women who lived and wrote in different landscapes in different climates and in different eras It is a provocative and remarkable encounter with buried stories and persistent myths      Georgiana Molloy: The Mind That Shines Bernice

Barry,2016-03-22 This meticulously researched biography tells the extraordinary story of Georgiana Molloy one of Australia's first internationally successful female botanists From the refined beauty of 19th century England and Scotland to the dramatic landscape of the West Australian coast Georgiana Molloy The Mind That Shines gives new insight into the life of this pioneering botanist Following a swift marriage Georgiana and Captain John Molloy a handsome hero with a mysterious past emigrated to Australia among the first group of European settlers to the remote southwest Here despite personal tragedy Georgiana's passion for flora was ignited Entirely self taught she gathered specimens of indigenous flora from Augusta and Busselton that are now held in some of the world's leading herbarium collections Using Georgiana's own writings and notes accompanied by full colour pictures of some of the stunning plants mentioned throughout Bernice Barry reveals a resilient independent woman of strong values whose appreciation and wonder of the landscape around her became her salvation and her legacy      Women Writing Home, 1700-1920 Susan Clair Imbarrato,2024-07-31 Assembles a range of women's letters from the former British Empire These letters written home are not only historical sources they are also

History Of Australia (Volumes 3 & 4) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark s six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A

History of Australia 1824 1888 takes the story of Australia through the momentous discovery of gold and the separation of Victoria from New South Wales to the centenary of the coming of European civilisation to Australia on 26 January 1888 The story is one of destruction as well as construction the destruction of the Aborigines and the construction of an essentially English bourgeois society and the taming of an alien and seemingly sterile land This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R. S. Creese, Thomas M. Creese, 2010-02-08 Published in 1998 Ladies in the Laboratory provided a systematic survey and comparison of the work of 19th century American and British women in scientific research A companion volume published in 2004 focused on women scientists from Western Europe In this third volume author Mary R S Creese expands her scope to include the contributions of 19th and early 20th century women of South Africa Australia New Zealand and Canada The women whose lives and work are discussed here range from natural history collectors and scientific illustrators of the early and mid years of the 19th century to the first generation of graduates of the new colonial colleges and universities Rarely acknowledged in publications of the British and European specialists the contributions of these women nonetheless formed a significant part of the natural history information about extensive previously unknown regions and their products Rather than a biographical dictionary or a collection of self contained essays on individuals from many time periods Ladies in the Laboratory III is a connected narrative tied into the wider framework of 19th century science and education A well organized blend of individual life stories and quantitative information this volume is for everyone interested in the story of women s participation in 19th century science The stories of these women make for fascinating reading and serve as a valuable source for the student of women s and colonial history Paul Hasluck in Australian History Tom Stannage, Kay Saunders, Richard Niles, 1998 No Marketing Blurb The Good Bishop Michael Gourlay, 2016-11-04 Australian historical memory should not forget Mathew Blagden Hale whose generosity of spirit and openness to the needs of all classes of people earned him the title of the good bishop CRC World Dictionary of Plant Names Umberto Quattrocchi, 1999-11-17 This volume provides the origins and meanings of the names of genera and species of extant vascular plants with the genera arranged alphabetically from M to Q Loving and Studying Nature Malcolm Skilbeck, 2022-01-05 This volume investigates crucial ways in which nature has been apprehended understood and valued in different cultures and over time It is grounded in current global concerns about growing threats to the natural environment Through a critical appraisal of specific examples it ranges widely over historical and contemporary attitudes and behaviours It presents a wide ranging analysis of selected ideas and attitudes in the evolution mainly of western civilisation from the time of the cave artists to the present day It argues for preservation and conservation of the natural resources and beauty of the earth in the face of religious supernatural arguments and the rise of consumer capitalism and consumerism Wellington's Men in Australia

C. Wright, 2011-04-28 An exploration of the little known yet historically important emigration of British army officers to the Australian colonies in the aftermath of the Napoleonic Wars The book looks at the significant impact they made at a time of great colonial expansion particularly in new south Wales with its transition from a convict colony to a free society

Reading the Garden Katie Holmes, Susan K. Martin, Kylie Mirmohamadi, 2007-05-28 Whether a small plot in the backyard of an inner urban home or a capital city's sprawling botanic garden Australians have long desired a patch of dirt to plough or enjoy Reading the garden explores our deep affection for gardens and gardening and illuminates their numerous meanings and uses from European settlement to the late twentieth century Cover
