Gerhard Dreyer's Wild Flowers Gerhard Dreyer, Brenda Brickman, Ernst Van Jaarsveld, 2003 This is a tribute to the late Gerhard Dreyer who spent years photographing the wild flowers of South Africa and these are some of his best images selected from several thousand This is a tribute not only to Gerhard s photography but also the amazing floral abundance and diversity of South Africa which will appeal to both locals and overseas tourists there is a short introduction by Ernst van Jaarsveld an expert on flowers based at the Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens with extended captions on each flower South Africa has the highest biodiversity for a temperate region and world wide is second only to Brazil and Indonesia both tropical countries The Fynbos biome alone has more plant species than the whole of Europe so a publication of this scope can only hope to give a representation of the unbelievable variety available but anyone who has a fondness for flowers will want this book

A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literature William Swan Sonnenschein,1895 Profiles of Saints Cornelio Fabro,2020-02-07 Profiles of Saints presents a unique series of essays by the philosopher and Stigmatine priest Cornelio Fabro that follow from his observation that the common element in the lives of all saints is the luminous thread of divine grace that is powerful in weakness Drawing from the lives of ten very different saints these sketches highlight that aspect of holiness proper to each saint by furnishing the reader with an insight often lacking in summaries of the lives of the saints a genuine understanding of the essential humanity of the saints and of the real transformative power of God s mercy and grace In this sensitive and refreshing treatment of the saints as real people whose lives were never free from human weakness failure and struggle Fabro reveals his own profound spirituality deeply rooted in the mystery of redemptive suffering May this volume serve to inspire all authentic Christians to strive for a life of sanctity and foster devotion to the saints whose very glory was their willingness to allow their lives to be illumined by grace
