Germaine Krull Photographer Of Modernity:

Germaine Krull Kim Sichel,1999 An in depth look at a master of twentieth century photography Making Strange Kim Sichel,2020-03-17 A richly illustrated look at some of the most important photobooks of the 20th century France experienced a golden age of photobook production from the late 1920s through the 1950s Avant garde experiments in photography text design and printing within the context of a growing modernist publishing scene contributed to an outpouring of brilliantly designed books Making Strange offers a detailed examination of photobook innovation in France exploring seminal publications by Brassa Henri Cartier Bresson Robert Frank Pierre Jahan William Klein and Germaine Krull Kim Sichel argues that these books both held a mirror to their time and created an unprecedented modernist visual language Sichel provides an engaging analysis through the lens of materiality emphasizing the photobook as an object with which the viewer interacts haptically as well as visually Rich in historical context and beautifully illustrated Making Strange reasserts the role of French photobooks in the history of modern art Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Film Noir and the Spaces of Modernity Edward Dimendberg,2004-06-15 Exploring classic examples of film noir such as The Asphalt Jungle Double Indemnity and The Naked City alongside many lesser known works Dimendberg confirms that noir is not simply a reflection of modernity but a virtual continuation of the spaces of the metropolis Seduced by Modernity Mary Elizabeth O'Connor,Katherine Tweedie,2007 A richly illustrated and vivid account of the life and work of an important Canadian modernist photographer Photography Fifth Edition Mary Warner Marien,2021-06-24 The fifth edition of this indispensable history of photography spans the history of the medium from its early development to current practice and providing a focused understanding of the cultural contexts in which photographers have lived and worked throughout this remains an all encompassing survey Mary Warner Marien discusses photography from around the world and through the lenses of art science travel war fashion the mass media and individual photographers Professional amateur and art photographers are all represented with Portrait boxes devoted to highlighting important individuals and Focus boxes charting particular cultural debates Mary Warner Marien is also the author of 100 Ideas that Changed Photography and Photography Visionaries New additions to this ground breaking global survey of photography includes 20 new images and sections on advances in technology and the influence of social media platforms An essential text for anyone studying photography      Avant-Garde Fascism Mark Antliff, 2007-09-03 An investigation of the central role that theories of the visual arts and creativity played in the development of fascism in France between 1909 and 1939      The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Peres, 2013-05-29 This volume is a complete revision of the 1996 third edition shares the ever changing breadth of photographic topics with a special emphasis on digital imaging and contemporary issues Produced by an international team of photographic and imaging experts with collaboration from the George Eastman House the world's oldest photography museum this fourth edition contains essays and photographic reproductions sharing information where photography and imaging serve a primary role ranging from the atomic to the cosmic      Adding Sense Mary Kalantzis, Bill Cope, 2020-05-07 Through a wide range of examples from literature to social media the book explores how meaning and communication interact      Street Photography Clive Scott, 2020-09-14 Street photography is perhaps the best loved and most widely known of all photographic genres with names like Cartier Bresson Brassai and Doisneau familiar even to those with a fleeting knowledge of the medium Yet what exactly is street photography From what viewpoint does it present its subjects and how does this viewpoint differ from that of documentary photography Looking closely at the work of Atget Kertesz Bovis Rene Jacques Brassai Doisneau Cartier Bresson and more this elegantly written book extensively illustrated with both well known and neglected works unpicks Parisian street photography's affinity with Impressionist art as well as its complex relationship with parallel literary trends and authors from Baudelaire to Philippe Soupault Clive Scott traces street photography's origins asking what really what happened to photography when it first abandoned the studio and brings to the fore fascinating questions about the way the street photographer captures or frames those subjects traders lovers entertainers so beloved of the genre In doing so Scott reveals street photography to be a poetic even picturesque form looking not to the individual but to the type not to the reality of the street but to its romance      Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School John Abromeit, 2011-10-10 This book is the first comprehensive intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life 1895 1941 Drawing on unexamined new sources John Abromeit describes the critical details of Horkheimer's intellectual development This study recovers and reconstructs the model of early Critical Theory that guided the work of the Institute for Social Research in the 1930s Horkheimer is remembered primarily as the co author of Dialectic of Enlightenment which he wrote with Theodor W Adorno in the early 1940s But few people realize that Horkheimer and Adorno did not begin working together seriously until the late 1930s or that the model of Critical Theory developed by Horkheimer and Erich Fromm in the late 1920s and early 1930s differs in crucial ways from Dialectic of Enlightenment Abromeit highlights the ways in which Horkheimer's early Critical Theory remains relevant to contemporary theoretical discussions in a wide variety of fields      A Companion to Photography Stephen Bull, 2020-03-16 The study of photography has never been more important A look at today's digital world reveals that a greater number of photographs are being taken each day than at any other moment in history Countless photographs are disseminated instantly online and more and more photographic images are earning prominent positions and garnering record prices in the rarefied realm of top art galleries Reflecting this dramatic increase in all things photographic A Companion to Photography presents a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore a variety of key areas of current debate around the state of photography in the twenty first century Essays are grouped and organized in themed sections including photographic interpretation markets popular photography documents and fine art and provide comprehensive coverage of the subject Representing a diversity of approaches essays are written by both established and emerging photographers and scholars as well as various experts in their respective areas A Companion to Photography offers scholars and professional photographers alike an essential and up to date resource that brings the study of contemporary photography into clear focus

Critical Theory to Structuralism David Ingram,2014-09-11 Philosophy in the middle of the 20th Century between 1920 and 1968 responded to the cataclysmic events of the time Thinkers on the Right turned to authoritarian forms of nationalism in search of stable forms of collective identity will and purpose Thinkers on the Left promoted egalitarian forms of humanism under the banner of international communism Others saw these opposed tendencies as converging in the extinction of the individual and sought to retrieve the ideals of the Enlightenment in ways that critically acknowledged the contradictions of a liberal democracy racked by class cultural and racial conflict Key figures and movements discussed in this volume include Schmitt Adorno and the Frankfurt School Arendt Benjamin Bataille French Marxism Black Existentialism Saussure and Structuralism Levi Strauss Lacan and Late Pragmatism These individuals and schools of thought responded to this modernity crisis in different ways but largely focused on what they perceived to be liberal democracy s betrayal of its own rationalist ideals of freedom equality and fraternity

The Paris Zone James Cannon,2016-02-24 Since the mid 1970s the colloquial term zone has often been associated with the troubled post war housing estates on the outskirts of large French cities However it once referred to a more circumscribed space the zone non aedificandi non building zone which encircled Paris from the 1840s to the 1940s This unusual territory although marginal in a social and geographical sense came to occupy a central place in Parisian culture Previous studies have focused on its urban and social history or on particular ways in which it was represented during particular periods By bringing together and analysing a wider range of sources from the duration of the zone s existence this study offers a rich and nuanced account of how the area was perceived and used by successive generations of Parisian novelists including Zola and Flaubert poets songwriters artists photographers film makers politicians and town planners More generally it aims to raise awareness of a neglected aspect of Parisian cultural history while pointing to links between current and past perceptions of the city s periphery

Postcards from Absurdistan Derek Sayer,2022-11-01 A sweeping history of a twentieth century Prague torn between fascism communism and democracy with lessons for a world again threatened by dictatorship Postcards from Absurdistan is a cultural history of Prague from 1938 when the Nazis destroyed Czechoslovakia's artistically vibrant liberal democracy to 1989 when the country's socialist regime collapsed after more than four decades of communist party rule Derek Sayer shows that Prague's twentieth century far from being a story of inexorable progress toward some end of history whether fascist communist or democratic was a tragicomedy of recurring nightmares played out in a land Czech dissidents dubbed Absurdistan Situated in the eye of the storms that shaped the modern world Prague holds up an unsettling mirror to the absurdities and dangers of our own times In a brilliant narrative Sayer weaves a vivid montage of the lives of individual Praguers poets and politicians architects and athletes journalists and filmmakers artists musicians and comedians caught up in the crosscurrents of the turbulent half century following the Nazi invasion This is the territory of the ideologist the collaborator the informer the apparatchik the dissident the outsider the torturer and the refugee not to mention the innocent bystander who is always looking the other way and Václav Havel's greengrocer whose knowing complicity allows the show to go on Over and over Prague exposes modernity's dreamworlds of progress as confections of kitsch In a time when democracy is once again under global assault Postcards from Absurdistan is an unforgettable portrait of a city that illuminates the predicaments of the modern world City

Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city Friedrich Pollock Philipp Lenhard, 2024-07-22 The son of an industrialist who wanted to abolish private property A Jew who didn't want anything to do with Judaism A professor who published little An economist who squandered his wealth on the stock market A communist who thought Marxism was anachronistic And finally a critical intellectual When dealing with the political culture of the Weimar Republic the development of Critical Theory and German Jewish emigration to the USA there is no way around Friedrich Pollock Max Horkheimer's companion and the founder of the Institute for Social Research in Frankfurt plays an important part in German Jewish intellectual history as one of the most prominent representatives of Critical Theory The present volume presents the first biography of a major but overlooked figure Walter Benjamin's Archive Walter Benjamin, 2015-09-15 An absorbing selection of Walter Benjamin's personal manuscripts images and documents The work of the great literary and cultural critic Walter Benjamin is an audacious plotting of history art and thought a reservoir of texts commentaries scraps and fragments of everyday life art and dreams Throughout his life Benjamin gathered together all kinds of artifacts assortments of images texts and signs themselves representing experiences ideas and hopes each of which was enthusiastically logged systematized and analyzed by their author In this way Benjamin laid the groundwork for the salvaging of his own legacy Intricate and intimate Walter Benjamin's Archive leads readers to the heart of his intellectual world yielding a rich and detailed portrait of its author Escape from Vichy Eric T. Jennings, 2018-03-09 Early in World War II thousands of refugees traveled from France to Vichy controlled Martinique en route to safer shores in North Central and South America While awaiting transfer the exiles formed influential ties with one another and with local black dissidents As Eric T Jennings shows what began as expulsion became a kind of rescue

Dissonant Waves Sam Dolbear, Esther Leslie, 2023-09-19 An investigation of the cultures and technologies of early radio and how a generation of cultural operators with Schoen at the center addressed crisis and adversity Dials knobs microphones clocks heads hands breath voices Ernst Schoen joined Frankfurt Radio in the 1920s as programmer and accelerated the potentials of this collision of bodies and technologies As with others of his generation Schoen experienced crisis after crisis from the violence of war the suicide of friends economic collapse and a brief episode of permitted experimentalism under the Weimar Republic for those who would foster aesthetic technical and political revolution The counterreaction was Nazism and Schoen and his milieux fell victim to it found ways out of it or hit against it with all their might Dissonant Waves tracks the life of Ernst Schoen poet composer radio programmer theorist and best friend of Walter Benjamin from childhood as he moves between Frankfurt Berlin Paris and London It casts radio history and practice into concrete spaces into networks of friends and institutions into political exigencies and domestic plights and into broader aesthetic discussions of the politicization of art and the aestheticization of politics Through friendship and comradeship a position in state backed radio imprisonment exile networking in a new country re emigration ill treatment neglect Schoen suffers the century and articulates its broken promises An exploration of the ripples of radio waves the circuits of experimentation and friendship and the proposals that half found a route into the world and might yet spark political technical experimentation

Adopting the Beat of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Germaine Krull Photographer Of Modernity

In a world consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic beauty and mental symphony developed by the written word frequently diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives.
