offered artists amateurs and collectors of a systematic turn of mind the opportunity to put together holdings with a wide representation of different hands schools and types of subject Prints and drawings are traditionally treated separately but their collecting is shown here to raise many interrelated issues Employing a wide range of methodologies the essays in this volume offer a number of innovative investigations into the collecting perception classification and display of works on paper

Lines of Connection Edina Adam, Jamie Gabbarelli, 2025-03-04 The first volume to chart the rich and reciprocal relationship between drawing and printmaking from the fifteenth to nineteenth centuries While often viewed and studied separately drawings and prints have always been closely intertwined They facilitated and generated the production of one another and in some instances clear distinctions between the two dissolved Many artists created drawings specifically intended for translation into print and an even greater number used prints as a training tool copying from them to hone drawing skills This reciprocal relationship goes even deeper however as innovative artists made fascinating hybrid works that blurred the boundaries between the two media pushing against modern definitions and hierarchies Lines of Connection charts these historical and geographical continuities for the first time by bringing together works on paper of superb quality foregrounding issues of artistic process and collaboration technical innovation and creative ingenuity Featuring over 170 prints and drawings by such artists as Albrecht Dürer Parmigianino Hendrick Goltzius Maria Sibylla Merian Rembrandt van Rijn and William Blake this catalogue is a rich narrative introduction to the compelling yet understudied relationship between drawing and printmaking This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at The Art Institute of Chicago from March 15 to June 1 2025 and at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from July 1 to September 14 2025
