The New Science of Fitness Linda H. Carden, 2021-08-29 The New Science of Fitness reveals the Truth of our Body and a path to create beauty amazing health and effortless movement that is completely opposite to everything we've been taught All is energy and it is our thought energy that governs our body energy It is time for our world to shift from antiquated beliefs about ourselves our bodies in particular and begin to understand the Source and power of our thoughts as the creative energy of our bodies and our lives Linda Carden had memorable opportunities to speak with both Jean Houston and Neale Donald Walsch in reference to the limitless nature of our bodies Jean responded Please DO NOT attempt to walk on water and Neale responded Please DO NOT jump off the Empire State Building She was disgruntled with both responses Neither the spiritual community nor the fitness industry is conveying what she believes to be a higher truth for our bodies the oneness of mindbodyspirit After more than twenty years divine timing brings her truth to light The Politics of the Body in Weimar Germany Cornelie Usborne, 1992-04-08 This book analyses how the Weimar Republic put Germany in the forefront of social reform and women's emancipation with wide ranging maternal welfare programmes and labour protection laws Its enlightened policy of family planning and liberalised abortion laws offered women a new measure of control over their lives But the new politics of the body also increased state intervention the power of the medical profession and the tendency to sacrifice women's rights to national interests whenever the Volk seemed in danger of racial decline The History of Cancer and Emotions in Twentieth-Century Germany Bettina Hitzer, 2022-06-02 Different people feel different emotions when they are diagnosed with cancer Both today and a century ago fear and hope shame and disgust sadness and joy are and were the emotions experienced by many cancer patients and their loved ones But these emotions do not just have significance for the people who feel them They have also exerted a surprisingly profound influence on how hospitals and laboratories dealt with cancer how early detection campaigns portrayed it and how doctors talked about it with their patients Bettina Hitzer details the history of cancer and emotions in twentieth century Germany and thus follows the cancer associated transformations of emotional regimes emotional politics and emotional experiences through five different political systems In doing so the study underscores that political caesuras resonate in the immediate corporeality of the history of emotions Shadows of Treblinka Miriam Kuperhand, Saul Kuperhand, 1998 The authors provide two very different stories of life in Siemiatycze a small town located forty miles from the Treblinka death camp Male Fantasies Klaus Theweleit, 1987 Eroticism of More- and Other-than-Human Bodies Grażyna Gajewska, 2020-09-09 Focusing on non human actors Grażyna Gajewska expands the discussion of eroticism in contemporary culture by bringing in material culture object studies and the anthropology of things She sets out from the assumption that things such as for instance attire underwear shoes or jewelry play an important role in arousing erotic imagination they are genuine participants in the process not mere signifiers of eroticism Their use does not denote only undeniable facts of everyday life associated with functionality the pragmatic or aesthetic aspect but also contribute to the shaping of human emotions fantasies and phantasms In her study Gajewska brings eroticism in contemporary culture to light through applying gender studies to new contexts animals robots virtual worlds even as she explores a new methodology the anthropology of things

English Modernism, National Identity and the Germans, 1890-1950 Petra Rau, 2016-05-13 This is the first systematic study to trace the way representations of Germanness in modernist British literature from 1890 to 1950 contributed to the development of English identity Petra Rau examines the shift in attitudes towards Germany and Germans from suspicious competitiveness in the late Victorian period to the aggressive hostility of the First World War and the curious inconsistencies of the 1930s and 1940s These shifts were no simple response to political change but the result of an anxious negotiation of modernity in which specific aspects of Englishness were projected onto representations of Germans and Germany in English literature and culture While this incisive argument clarifies and deepens our understanding of cultural and national politics in the first half of the twentieth century it also complicates current debates surrounding race and otherness in cultural studies Authors discussed include major figures such as Conrad Woolf Lawrence Ford Forster and Bowen as well as popular or less familiar writers such as Saki Graham Greene and Stevie Smith Accessibly written and convincingly argued Rau's study will not only be an important book for scholars but will serve as a valuable guide to undergraduates working in modernism literary history and European cultural relations

Fieldwork Dilemmas Hermine G. De Soto, Nora Dudwick, 2000

The European Court of Human Rights Helmut P. Aust, Esra Demir-Gürsel, 2021-04-30 This insightful book considers how the European Court of Human Rights ECHR is faced with numerous challenges which emanate from authoritarian and populist tendencies arising across its member states It argues that it is now time to reassess how the ECHR responds to such challenges to the protection of human rights in the light of its historical origins

How to Make the Body Jennifer Creech, Thomas O. Haakenson, 2022-05-05 How to Make the Body Difference Identity and Embodiment brings together contemporary and historical readings of the body exploring the insights and limits of established and emerging theories of difference identity and embodiment in a variety of German contexts The engaging contributions to this volume utilize and challenge cutting edge approaches to scholarship on the body by putting these approaches in direct conversation with canonical texts and objects as well as with lesser known yet provocative emerging forms To these ends the chapter authors investigate the body through detailed studies across a wide variety of disciplines and modes of expression from advertising aesthetics and pornography to social media scientific experimentation and transnational cultural forms Thus this volume showcases the ways in which the body as such cannot be taken for granted and surmises that the body continues to undergo constant and potentially disruptive diversification and transformation

Our Bodies Are Selves Philip Hefner, Ann Pederson, Susan Barreto, 2015-08-11 Our Bodies Are Selves is a look at what it means to be human in a world where medical technology and emerging ethical insight force us to rethink the boundaries of humanity spirit and man machine This book gives us a fresh look at how our expanding biological views of ourselves and our shared evolutionary history shows us a picture that may not always illumine who and where we are as Christians Offering up Christian theological views of embodiment the authors give everyday examples of lives of love faith and bodily realities that offer the potential to create new definitions of what it means to be a faith community in an increasingly technological age of medicine American Fury Myra Mendible, 2024-02-12 Moral outrage is one of the most compelling complex and powerful emotional responses It is the affective currency that drives collective action in a democracy where it can rally constituents incentivize legislation affect how we vote and catalyze individual anger into righteous protests or mob rule In recent years outrage has bolstered extremism and political polarization and it spurred thousands of self prescribed patriots to storm the U S capitol But it also gave birth to new social justice groups such as Black Lives Matter and March for Our Lives and what began as an outraged tweet ultimately grew into the global MeToo movement This book offers the first interdisciplinary study of the myriad ways moral outrage is articulated invoked and mediated in contemporary U S society from feminist and indigenous politics climate activism and school curriculum debates to book banning alt right rhetoric literature and entertainment venues Setting its focus on the social dynamics and cultural effects of collective outrage these timely essays underscore its vital function as a galvanizing force in identity politics social change policymaking and civic engagement God's Beauty Patrick T. McCormick, 2012 What if we began our study of Christian ethics not with an examination of our moral duties but with an exploration of the call of beauty For like justice beauty generates a call to a larger more generous self In Gods Beauty Patrick McCormick asks How does the beauty of the righteous community manifest the glory of God How can we imitate and improve this beauty by reforming our own societies What fundamental need and right do all of us especially the poor have to experience and create beauty in our lives and communities Why is it also essential to our own humanity that we recognize and treasure the beauty of the stranger alien and foe and resist every effort to render these unrecognized neighbors ugly McCormick offers a fresh positive approach to moral arguments calling us to work for social justice Instead of laying out the evils of failing to work for justice protect human rights overcome alienation and hostility or tend to the earth Gods Beauty focuses on the calling of divine beauty summoning us to be tenders and creators of beauty United Empire, 1916 Body Modern Michael Sappol, 2017-04-11 A poster first printed in Germany in 1926 depicts the human body as a factory populated by tiny workers doing industrial tasks Devised by Fritz Kahn 1888 1968 a German Jewish physician and popular science writer Der Mensch als Industriepalast or Man as Industrial Palace achieved international fame and was reprinted in various languages and versions all over the world It was a new kind of image an illustration that was conceptual and scientific a visual explanation of how things work and Kahn built a career of this new genre In collaboration with a stable of artists only some of whom were credited Kahn created thousands of images that were metaphorical allusive and self consciously modern using an eclectic grab bag of schools and styles Dada Art Deco photomontage Art Nouveau Bauhaus functionalism and commercial illustration In Body Modern Michael Sappol offers the first in depth critical study of Fritz Kahn and his visual rhetoric Kahn was an impresario of the modern who catered to readers who were hungry for products and concepts that could help them acquire and perform an overdetermined modern identity He and his artists created playful new visual tropes and genres that used striking metaphors to scientifically explain the life of Man This rich and largely obscure corpus of images was a technology of the self that naturalized the modern and its technologies by situating them inside the human body The scope of Kahn s project was vast entirely new kinds of visual explanation and so was his influence Today his legacy can be seen in textbooks magazines posters public health pamphlets educational websites and Hollywood movies But Sappol concludes Kahn s illustrations also pose profound and unsettling epistemological questions about the construction and performance of the self Lavishly illustrated with more than 100 images Body Modern imaginatively explores the relationship between conceptual image image production and embodied experience Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,1991 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
