Tolles Frederick Barnes Tolles,1953 Women in the American Revolution Barbara B. Oberg,2019-05-24 Building on a quarter century of scholarship following the publication of the groundbreaking Women in the Age of the American Revolution the engagingly written essays in this volume offer an updated answer to the question What was life like for women in the era of the American Revolution The contributors examine how women dealt with years of armed conflict and carried on their daily lives exploring factors such as age race educational background marital status social class and region For patriot women the Revolution created opportunities to market goods find a new social status within the community or gain power in the family Those who remained loyal to the Crown however often saw their lives diminished their property confiscated their businesses failed or their sense of security shattered Some essays focus on individuals Sarah Bache Phillis Wheatley while others address the impact of war on social or commercial interactions between men and women Patriot women in occupied Boston fell in love with and married British soldiers in Philadelphia women mobilized support for nonimportation and in several major colonial cities wives took over the family business while their husbands fought Together these essays recover what the Revolution meant to and for women

Memoir of Dr. George Logan of Stenton Deborah Norris Logan,1899 Memoir of Dr. George Logan of Stenton Deborah Norris Logan,1899 The Shortest and Most Convenient Route Robert S. Cox,2004 Based on papers delivered at the Bicentennial Conference for Lewis Clark held in Philadelphia in Aug 2003 these essays grapple in different ways with the motives underlying the Corps of Discovery the impact on American culture The question of failure is used by the authors as a means of interrogating the intellectual cultural context in which the expedition was framed in which its results were distributed Contributors include Robert S Cox also the Ed of the vol Domenic Vitiello S D Kimmel John W Jengo Brett Mizelle Andrew J Lewis Illus The American Counterrevolution Larry E. Tise,1998 A refutation of virtually the entire historiography surrounding the outcomes of the Revolution this epic narrative traces the shift from the ideas of liberty to the politics of order during the difficult period between 1783 and1800 70 illustrations Americans of Royal Descent Charles Henry Browning,1891 National Identity and the Agrarian Republic Manuela Albertone,2016-04-22 With a few exceptions historiography has paid little attention to the impact of French economic thought during the American Revolution focusing instead on the Revolution s links with Britain This book outlines how from the mid eighteenth to the early nineteenth century the political and social dimension of French economic thought and particularly of Physiocracy spurred American Republicans to a radical shaping of American agrarian ideology Such a perspective allows for a reconsideration of several questions that lie at the heart of contemporary historiographic debate the connection between politics and economics the meaning of republicanism the foundations of representation the role of Europe in the Atlantic world and the interaction between national histories and global context In particular the research methodology adopted here makes it possible to reconstruct how American national identity conceived as an expression of society in economic terms emerged through a cosmopolitan way of thinking focused on the uniqueness of the new state John Adams David McCullough,2001-05-22 The Pulitzer Prize winning bestselling biography of America s founding father and second president that was the basis for the acclaimed HBO series brilliantly told by master historian David McCullough In this powerful epic biography David McCullough unfolds the adventurous life journey of John Adams the brilliant fiercely independent often irascible always honest Yankee patriot who spared nothing in his zeal for the American Revolution who rose to become the second president of the United States and saved the country from blundering into an unnecessary war who was learned beyond all but a few and regarded by some as out of his senses and whose marriage to the wise and valiant Abigail Adams is one of the moving love stories in American history This is history on a grand scale a book about politics and war and social issues but also about human nature love religious faith virtue ambition friendship and betrayal and the far reaching consequences of noble ideas Above all John Adams is an enthralling often surprising story of one of the most important and fascinating Americans who ever lived Presidential Machismo Alexander DeConde,2000 A look at the expansion of executive authority in America and the influence of scholars journalists and presidents themselves The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of the American Enlightenment Mark G. Spencer,2015-01-01 Pennsylvania Archives Samuel Hazard,John Blair Linn,William Henry Egle,George Edward Reed,Thomas Lynch Montgomery,Gertrude MacKinney,Charles Francis Hoban,1890 A collection of documents supplementing the companion series known as Colonial records which contain the Minutes of the Provincial council of the Council of safety and of the Supreme executive council of Pennsylvania Official Register of the United States ,1903 Official Register United States Civil Service Commission,1901 If This Be Treason Jeremy Duda,2016-10-15 Treason is the only crime explicitly defined in America s Constitution Relatively few Americans have been convicted of it Far more have had the poisonous word thrown at them Through the cases of Americans who whether acting in defense of their country for personal gain or simply when society had redefined treasonous activity were accused of betraying their country though not charged with the ultimate crime against one s nation If This Be Treason tackles the complicated question of where dissent ends and betrayal begins Jeremy Duda covers the gamut of American history from the earliest days of the republic when George Logan s act of unauthorized diplomacy kept his fledgling country out of war with France but so outraged his enemies that Congress passed a law to prevent it from ever happening again to today as Edward Snowden remains an international fugitive for exposing the government s spying on its own citizens Among other examples are diplomatic envoy Nicholas Trist who betrayed his president s order to return home so he could negotiate a just treaty with a vanquished foe former congressman Clement Vallandigham who was exiled from his own country for speaking out against Lincoln s prosecution of the Civil War and Richard Nixon who scuttled a peace deal to end the war in Vietnam If this be treason make the most of it So proudly declared Patrick Henry accused of treason for opposing the Stamp Act imposed by Great Britain on its American colonies Throughout history Americans have toed the line between treason and dissent Exactly where that line is has remained difficult to ascertain But these cases serve as a fascinating way to explore and interpret where dissent ends and betrayal begins The Creation of the British Atlantic World Elizabeth Mancke,Carole Shammass,2015-10-15 Was the British Atlantic shaped more by imperial rivalries or by the actions of subnational groups with a variety of economic social and religious agendas The Creation of the British Atlantic World analyzes the interrelationship between these competing explanations for the development of the British Atlantic by examining migration patterns on both the macro and micro level It also scrutinizes the roles played by trade religion ethnicity and class in linking Atlantic borders and the increasingly complicated legal intellectual and emotional relationship between the British sovereign and colonial charterholders Contributors include Joyce E Chaplin John E Crowley David Barry Gaspar April Lee Hatfield James Horn Ray A Kea Elizabeth Mancke Philip D Morgan William M Offutt Robert Olwell Carole Shammass Wolfgang Splitter Mark L Thompson Karin Wulf Avihu Zakai American Aurora Richard N.
